That took place between two prominent Oregon City ladies at an afternoon tea. Names not mentioned.

Mrs. X. (the guest)—My! What lovely table linen. Mrs. K. (the hostess)—Yes, it is lovely. Mamma gave me two cloths and a dozen napkins when I was married—ten years ago. Mrs. X.—Where did she get them? Mrs. K.—At McAllen & McDonnell's. Mrs. X.—Well! I was never in there. I don't know why. Mrs. K.—Mamma says she can do better there than anywhere. You know they only keep dry goods, and they do understand. Next day I go shopping I will take you along. And they came.

Adolph Aschoff, forest ranger, for the mountainous section around Marmot, has been actively engaged the past few days suppressing forest fires in the mountains in his range. Much fine timber both fir and cedar are already destroyed, and considerable more will probably burn before the fire is extinguished.

Last week several members of Company I, Oregon Volunteers, celebrated the fourth anniversary of the fall of Manila in a manner appropriate to the memorable occasion. Company A, O. N. G., will soon begin its annual target practice. The target range, where the boys do their shooting, is on the West Side, and the practice this season will be on a new revolving target. About Thanksgiving time a medal is to be presented to the best marksman in the company, and all the men are going into the contest to win it possible.

It has been definitely learned that the fire in the mountains, east of Springwater, has done considerable damage. It covered over 1000 acres of valuable timberland, and destroyed some of the choicest cedar in Clackamas county. Cedar is scarce, and a loss of this timber is serious in the extreme. It is thought the fire started in the berry patch east of Springwater and was probably the result of carelessness on part of campers. The fire is still burning, but is now under control. Only one man was entirely burned out.

The band offered its valuable services freely and made many friends by so doing. The proceeds are to go to the building of a sidewalk to Mount Pleasant, which has been sadly needed for a long time, and the amount taken in amounted to $10.80. Besides the musical program, delicious ice cream and cake were served.
