

A Clearance Sale That's Going to Clear.

All over the store, in every department, prices have been clipped to make the goods hustle out before the commencement of another season.

Shirt Waists,
Lace Stockings,
Light Weight Underwear,
Hop Picker's Gloves,
Fancy Ribbons,
Crockery and Glassware,

Summer Ties,
Dress Goods,
Straw Hats,
Summer Corsets,
Ladies' Wrappers,
Belts, Notions, Etc.

Golden Rule Bazaar

Oregon City's Big Cash Store

PERSONALS

F. D. Sturgis, of Molalla, has moved to Carus.
John Noble is back from the mines in Eastern Oregon.
William Barlow, of Barlow, was in Oregon City Wednesday.
Frank Palmer, of Macksburg, was in Oregon City the past week.
Fred Moehne, of Shubel, was in this city one day the past week.
Gottlieb Schneider, of Redland, was in Oregon City one day this week.
I. Selling, who is in San Francisco, will return home in a few days.
Fred Lindsey, the young sawmill man at Carus, was in the city Thursday.
Mrs. F. A. Toepelman is reported quite ill at her residence in this city.
Dr. Carl is expected home this week from his vacation in Eastern Oregon.
C. Barlow, the young business man of Barlow, was in this city Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Ford, of Portland, visited friends in Oregon City Sunday.
John Dennison, of Meadowbrook, was on business in Oregon City Wednesday.
W. Russell, of Willhoit, was transacting land business in Oregon City Wednesday.
Henry Roos and Sewald Toepelman returned Wednesday from an outing at Newport.
Mr. and Mrs. George Blanchard, of New Era precinct, were in Oregon City Wednesday.
Miss Essie Block returned last week from Seaview, where she spent several days' recreation.
R. M. Cooper, the postmaster and justice of the peace at Carus, was in the city Wednesday.
Mr. Peterson, who lives on the Eagle Creek road, was in the city one day during the past week.
Mr. and Mrs. R. T. DeLashmutt, of this city, returned this week from Ballston, Polk county.
Miss Gertie Griffith returned Thursday from a visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Griffith.
Miss Anetta Gleason has been engaged to teach the fall term of school in district No. 81, Jones' Mill.
Harry Walker, who has been employed on the boats running up the river, was in the city the past week.
Robert Githner, of Shubel, who will teach school at Needy this winter, was in Oregon City Monday.
Mrs. Agnes Crookshank and little son Clarence are visiting at Clackamas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davoren.
Charles Albright, who works in the paper mill, is back from an outing at Mulino, where he went to recuperate.
Geo. Murdock, who has been teaching school for several years, intends leaving this winter for a course at Monmouth.
Adolphus Willey, who has just recovered from a serious case of typhoid fever, has returned to his home in Portland.
D. H. Mosher, one of the young teachers in attendance at the institute, intends to go to Willamette university this year.

Mrs. Fred White accompanied by her daughter, Miss Jean, after a pleasant month's outing at Seaside, returned to their home here this week.
Mrs. McGrath and sister, Miss Dunn, Salem, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Hart Saturday. Mrs. McGrath formerly resided in this city.
Miss Anetta Gleason is one of the successful ones who took the teachers' examination a few days ago. Miss Gleason lacked one point of obtaining a first grade certificate.
Miss Myrtle Taylor and Miss Iva Harrington returned Tuesday morning from their summer outing at Ocean Park, Wash. On their way home they visited friends in Astoria.
William Smith, of Parkplace, returned recently from Celilo, Washington county, where he went to look after a hatchery. He made some repairs and introduced needed alterations.
Monday night Tom Randall and mother, and sister, Mrs. Will Aldridge, and two children, and niece, Miss Louva Randall, returned home after a three weeks' outing at Newport.
E. E. Judd, of Molalla, made a trip to Oregon City Monday. Mr. Judd reports that crops in his section are not as good as expected owing perhaps to the extreme hot weather.
Fred Hargreaves, of Parkplace, is back from the University of Washington at Seattle. Mr. Hargreaves is a sophomore and is progressing rapidly. He will probably return next fall.
Dr. C. P. Marr, of California, is visiting his brother, W. W. Marr, is a specialist on chronic diseases is here in the city looking for a place to locate. He is debating between Oregon City and St. Jose, Calif.
The Rev. P. K. Hammond having returned from his summer vacation, services will be resumed next Sunday in St. Paul's church. Sunday school at 10. Morning prayer and sermon at 11. Evening song and sermon at 8.
Mrs. W. H. Godfrey and son, Guy, returned last week from Salem, where the former took the teachers' examination. Mrs. Godfrey has just completed a three years' course at Monmouth College, where she has fitted herself for teaching. She has already been elected to teach in the Eastham school.
N. E. Damico, manager of the Postal Telegraph and Cable Co. in this city has received a promotion and will go to Seattle, Wash., to take charge of an office requiring more work and longer hours. Mr. Damico has many friends in this city whose hopes are sanguine for his future. His successor is C. G. Tull, of Canby.
Miss Josie Newton and Mrs. Edward Newton, of Philadelphia, arrived in Oregon City Saturday to visit for a few days with the former's mother, Mrs. K. L. Newton. Miss Newton has been taking a course of training in the nurse's department at the hospital in Philadelphia and, having completed her course, will return soon to take charge of active work.
Mrs. F. L. Purvine and children, of Salem, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. H. Samson Monday. Mrs. Purvine, whose maiden name was Jennie Nichols, was a resident of this city a number of years ago and has many friends here. Mrs. Purvine was a her way home from Astoria and other points, where she has been for the past three weeks.

E. E. Brodie was in the metropolis Wednesday.
Frank Lewis was in the city one day the past week.
J. N. Wood, of Graeme, was in Oregon City Monday.
C. R. Nobblitt, of this city, was on business in Portland Tuesday.
Edward Snider, of Aurora, will teach the coming winter at Union hall.
E. F. Githner, of Shubel, a well to do farmer was in this city Thursday.
L. H. Young spent two days this week visiting friends on Milk creek.
William Morse, the clerk in Harding's drug store, visited in Portland Tuesday.
Floyd Williams, son of Assessor William returned last week for Medford.
William Dutcher returned to the city Wednesday after a few days at Willhoit.
Harvey Ball, of Milk creek, was in the city Wednesday on his way to Canby on business.
Mr. and Mrs. John Thornton were on business in Portland one day the past week.
Mrs. Robert Finley and daughter, Metta, returned Thursday from San Francisco.
Geo. McCormack, who works for the N. P. T. Co., Portland, was in the city Wednesday.
C. W. Nobblitt, of Needy, one of the old residents of this county, was in the city recently.
Walter Dimmick, of Hubbard, a graduate of Pacific University is summing at Long Beach.
Miss Nettie Chase spent a few days this week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Foster at Eagle Creek.
Jacob and Branch Harless, E. Austin and James Baty of Molalla were in our city one day this week.
Sylvester Nicholson and Mrs. Nicholson, of Marquam were transacted business in the city Tuesday.
Miss Rosa Bratton, daughter of Justice Bratton at Barlow, returned to the city after a visit in the East.
Will E. King, democratic candidate for governor in 1900, is now editor of the Democrat at Ontario, Oregon.
John W. Loder and James McIntyre made a long bicycle ride to Garfield Wednesday to see the country.
Wallace Winslow, of Iowa, visited with his brother, Frank Winslow, near Milk creek, Saturday and Sunday.
Hugh Jones, of Carus, was in this city this week. He expects to start to the Agricultural school at Corvallis this fall.
Clark Jones, who has been employed in the paper mills, left this week to continue his employment at Floriston, Cal.
J. D. Myers returned Tuesday to his ranch at Coquille City. He milks nine cows and the milk nets him $50 per month.
Miss Maud Jones, of Portland, and Edward King, of Eastern Oregon, spent a few hours in this city Thursday visiting friends.
T. L. Grider, of Indiana, has been the guest of E. T. Grider, of Wilsonville, the past week. Mr. Grider returned to his home Wednesday.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

H. Meens is plastering and remodeling his house on Adams street.
A. Boylan has remodeled a large house on the north side of town.
Mr. Thayer is having a neat little cottage painted and enlarged on 12th street.
H. L. Kelly, who has several desirable houses to rent, is painting one of his cottages on 8th street.
The Welch candy store was sold last Saturday by Constable Moody in satisfaction of a debt. The store and fixtures sold for $35.
A divorce complaint appears on the files almost every week. This time it's Kate Schmidt vs Alex Schmidt. The plea is abuse and a prayer for a decrease of divorce entered.
Word is received as we go to press that little Ernest Wells, the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wells, of Oswego, is not expected to live. The cause of illness is not ascertained.
F. E. Murdock, a young school teacher of Macksburg is in the city attending the teachers institute. Mr. Murdock will teach the coming year at Macksburg. He has 47 pupils and will be assisted in his work by Miss Vesta Knight, of Canby.
Monday evening the board of school directors met and elected Edgar Faulk, of Sacramento, Cal., city school superintendent. Mr. Faulk has had charge of some of the largest schools of Sacramento, and he comes to this city highly recommended.
Work on the new addition of the Parkplace school is progressing toward completion. The Beaver Creek school house is in the process of erection and Solomon Garde's handsome structure near the bridge is rapidly assuming attractive proportions.
Charles Criswell, who has been working at mill A, on the new flume, sustained a severe injury to his ankle one day last week. A piece of the machinery fell against him and seriously injured the bone in the leg. As a consequence, he has been confined to his room for several days.
C. G. and W. A. Huntley whose respective stores have always drawn custom, will soon undergo a decided improvement. The portion between the book and drug store is to be removed, new fixtures will be installed and the store room enlarged.
Teachers Institute held at court house, closed Thursday afternoon. The session began Tuesday and had large attendance. The program including Miss Veda Williams' musical contributions has been one of an exceedingly high character and the teachers are high in their praises for it.
Sherman Burford measured the depth of the water under the suspension bridge a few days ago, and found it to be 90 feet deep. There is little, if any, current there, as the water is extremely low, and it is thought the body of the drowned man will be near where he jumped to his death.
Alexander Cooper, the temperance evangelist, will preach next Sunday morning at 10:45 a. m. and give a lecture in the afternoon at 3:30 p. m. at the M. E. church. Everybody invited to come and hear this noted speaker. In the evening the choir will hold a song service in honor of Miss Iro Harding.
Next Wednesday the board of county commissioners holds its monthly session and Wednesday evening city council convenes. At this session of the council will arise the reading of the ordinance granting the electric line its right of way. It will be read for the first time and perhaps ordered published according to law.
Company A, O. N. G. has commenced target practice, they shoot every Sunday morning on the range across the river. The first shooting will be on the 200 yard mark. Each man is required to make a certain percentage in points when he is given a longer range to shoot until the distance of 600 yards is attained.
S. D. Elder, of Moro, Sherman county occupied the Presbyterian pulpit last Sunday both morning and evening. This coming Sunday Rev. Mr. Wright, of Sellwood will preach and he has been chosen by the Presbytery to declare the pulpit vacant. At this time no arrangements have been made for the evening service.
William McKee has appealed his road case from the commissioner's court of the circuit court. It is the Davis road which efforts have been made to build in Clackamas precinct. Mr. Davis alleges that he has suffered damages to the extent of $500 and the commissioners couldn't see it that way and only offered him $50 satisfaction.
The M. E. Sunday school held a delightful picnic at Willamette Falls Thursday. Judging the amount of noise that arose from their youthful throats, they had the best time of their lives. Games, such as deer to young hearts, absorbed their attention and at noon luncheon, very delicate and tasty were spread and heartily enjoyed.
Some poor wretch apparently tired of life, jumped the suspension bridge Sunday evening about 8 o'clock. Who he is, whence he came or his business are matter of conjecture. Several who saw him say he resembled a Japanese, small in stature and of a brown complexion. The body remains in the water and will probably not rise for several days yet.
The case of G. Schaber vs. William H. Andros was heard in the justice court at Stafford Monday morning. The case was for the ejectment of William Andros from a place owned by the landlord, G. Schaber. No jury was called, the matter being argued before the judge, who decided against the defendant. Geo. O. Brownell appeared for the defendant and will appeal the case to the supreme court at its next session.
Several reports are received of petty robberies. John Gleason had a saddle and valuable bridle taken from his stable in the night not long ago, and Fred Greenman had a large tent mysteriously disappear from his back yard a few days ago. Mr. Greenman had just set the tent up for the purpose of inspection, as he intended taking it to the mountains, and on the following morning the tent was gone.
Friday afternoon Dr. Seaman was called to Carus to dress the hand of Robert Irish. The young man was hunting and carelessly placed his hand on the muzzle of his shotgun, and the weapon catching in some way in his

12th SEASON 12th

First and Last Appearance in Oregon City
In the Big Tents, Corner 7th and John Quincy Adams Streets

ONE NIGHT ONLY
Friday, September 5th Friday, September 5th

WARREN & DAY'S NEW YORK

Uncle Tom's Cabin

Special Scenery
Dogs, Ponies and Donkeys

4,500 square feet special scenery, 28 realistic scenes, 12 grand tableaux. A superb and awe-inspiring transformation scene. Absolutely the best equipped organization on earth. Do not fail to see this.

CLEVER SPECIALTIES BETWEEN ACTS

2 - BIG SHOWS IN ONE - 2

A City Attraction Direct from the Cities
A Grand Street Parade at Noon

Comfortable Seats for All. Gentlemanly Ushers. Prices so Low All Can Attend

Never Risk Money

In the mails when you can get a bank draft.

This is the safer and better way of sending money.

Allow us to sell you the draft.

The Bank of Oregon City.
Oregon City, Ore.

many friends will watch her career with deep interest and her ability will certainly assert itself.

The will of the late Martha A. McConnell was admitted to probate Tuesday. The estate comprises 272 acres besides considerable personal property, its value is estimated at $10,000. James E. Marquam, of Marquam, is chosen executor and the estate is to be divided equally between nine heirs as follows: James McConnell, Alaska, William McConnell, residence unknown, John McConnell, Dayton Wash., Mary E. Jackson, Marquam Ore., Ruth Howe, Scotta Mills Ore., Charles McConnell, Scotta Mills Ore., Jane Taylor, Needy Ore., Louisa A. Nicholson, Marquam Oregon.

A madam Davenport, from Portland, is giving a course of lectures in the city on "The Care of the Body." Mrs. Davenport delivered her lectures to about twenty five ladies at the home of Mrs. Sarah McCown and those who heard her, speak with high praise of her subject and her theories. She advocates physical exercise in abundance, plenty of fresh air and the consumption of plenty of water. For many years this lady has retired at eight o'clock p. m. and arises at four in the morning; she thinks sleep is "nature's soft music" and advocates plenty of it. Her lectures are able and practical.

Rev. P. K. Hammond, who has just returned from an outing at Seaside, narrates a very amusing experience which befell him and four other clergymen while fishing in the Necanicum river at Seaside. These gentlemen were fishing for trout after sundown, and just as they had cast out their lines for the last time two fish warden appeared on the scene and arrested them for violating the fish law of that place, which prohibits all fishing or attempts at fishing after dark. Mr. Hammond and his friends were ignorant of the law, and on the following day were obliged to appear before a justice and submit to a fine of $15.

W. B. Partlow, an old pioneer of '62, went out to Egbert Fosters' farm at Eagle creek Wednesday to celebrate a visit which he made to the same place fifty years ago. When crossing the plains he stopped at old Phillip Foster's inn, at Eagle creek, for a night's entertainment, and this being the anniversary of the visit he returned to celebrate the occasion. Old Phillip Foster has since died, but his son lives, and he and his wife tendered the old pioneer a cordial reception. Mr. Partlow says that the first time he stopped at the Foster inn, fifty years ago, he had to pay 50 cents for his dinner, but this time it was free. The Fosters asked the old gentleman on leaving when he'd come again, and he replied, "in fifty years."

Notice.
Is hereby given that my wife, Prinnie M. Linn, has left my bed and board without cause, and that I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by her after this date.
T. W. LANS.
August 25, 1902.

No Substitute Wanted.
No! I did not ask for a bottle any cheaper, or twice as large, or one made by yourselves. I did ask for and will not have any substitute for Perry Davis' Painkiller; I have used it, my father used it, and I would not be surprised if my grandparents did so too; there is no imitation that can equal it. That I am lunched was served. Miss Harding's sure of— for stomach ache.

J. M. Price, The One Price Clothier

We have just received a very large shipment of the celebrated Union-made both in soft and stiff styles. The Longley Hat is guaranteed not to loose its color and is equal to any $5.00 value. Before buying elsewhere come in and examine the Longley $3.00 hat.

LONGLEY $3.00 HATS

Our Clothing and Overcoat lines can not be excelled in price and quality as they are the most popular lines made in the market. They are the Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothing, and David Alder & Sons broad shouldered Overcoats.

We have them in stock now.

J. M. PRICE, The One Price Store.
6th and Main Sts., Oregon City, Oregon
Sole Agents for the W. L. Douglass $3.50 shoe.