

NEW GOODS Arriving Daily

—AT— ADAMS BROS.

Golden Rule Bazaar

—Oregon City's Big Cash Store—

Latest Fall Styles

WALKING SKIRTS, DRESS SKIRTS
UNDERSKIRTS, JACKETS, CLOAKS
CAPES, FLANNEL and SILK WAISTS
SHOES, DRESS GOODS, NOTIONS, ETC.

Correct Styles in Men's Furnishings

CLOTHING, SHIRTS, NECKWEAR
UNDERWEAR, HATS, SHOES
HOSIERY, HANDKERCHIEFS, ETC.

New Goods have also been received in our Stationery; Crockery and Tinware Departments.

Thomas Garret, of Marquam, was on the streets this week.

Miss Kinsaid, of Portland, was in town Thursday transacting business.

Mrs. J. N. Graham and Miss Alice Glasspool were visiting here this week.

Sohn L. Moorman, of Knox (Ind.) Republican, called at this office yesterday.

Dr. L. L. Pickens, the dentist, has gone to Brownsville for a two week's hunt.

James Nelson, the new assessor, was doing business in this city one day this week.

J. S. Jesse a farmer, who lives at Needy was the guest of Mr. Samson Thursday.

Miss Nellie Swafford left this week to begin a course of study in the Willamette University.

Herman Tinner a prosperous farmer of Clackamas, was on the streets of this city Wednesday.

Joseph Daly and Philipp Tucker, of Macksburg, were in town Thursday en route for Portland.

Mrs. Charles Wright and son, Carl, have left for a visit with friends and relatives in Southern Oregon.

Emanuel Rupe a wagon maker of Silverton, and an old friend of W. W. H. Samson, was in this city Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Huntley are spending a few days at Barlow, where Mr. Huntley will engage in hunting.

John H. Daly, the prominent democratic war horse of Macksburg, was doing business in the metropolis Wednesday.

Messrs. John Cole, H. Engle and R. Dougherty, all residents of Molalla, were on the streets of this city Wednesday.

W. J. Bernier passed through this city Thursday for Portland where he is clerking a drug store. He has been visiting at Woodburn.

Mrs. Courson's class pupils can arrange for vocal lessons in Oregon City by writing to Mrs. Courson at 129 Thirteenth street, Portland. Phone West 658.

Dr. Strickland leaves about the 15th for Philadelphia and New York, where he will take a post-graduate course in medicine and surgery. His practice will be left in charge of Dr. W. H. Haviland of St. Vincent's hospital.

Charles Muir left Tuesday for Iowa, where he will reside. Mr. Muir has been engaged in the grocery business in Oregon City for a number of years and has done a good business. Mrs. Muir and children will remain for the present.

For the coming winter the evening services at St. Paul's Episcopal church will be changed to five o'clock, beginning with next Sunday. The morning service as usual at 11 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend these services.

Abner Hart, who lives a few miles east of this city, underwent a serious operation at the Good Samaritan hospital, one day this week. He is 75 years old, but stood this serious ordeal well and will probably be at home in about a week.

Mr. Snodgrass after several months in this city as proprietor of the Art Gallery on Main street, has sold out to Miss A. Wiener. Mr. Snodgrass is going to Seattle where he is going to open up another gallery. He has many friends here and all regret his departure.

J. Kelnhofer, a young man who lives at Carus, was here the past week with potatoes. His potatoes are not as good as usual and he states that the cry all over the country is that they will fall short of usual crop. This poor crop is caused by the extreme heat during July and August.

Mrs. Parks, of Springwater, accompanied by her son, were in this city Wednesday. She lost her house, barn, household goods, hay and grain in the recent fire and has only a tent left for a place to abide. They have lived there three years and worked hard to get what they have lost.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Story and family returned from Ocean Park, Wash., where they have been spending a few weeks for Mr. Story's health. This visit to the sea side did not result as beneficially to Mr. Story's health as was hoped, so they will leave soon for Whittier, Cal.

Miss Claudia Hart, who has been confined to her room at St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, as the result of an operation for appendicitis three weeks ago, has sufficiently recovered to be removed to her home, and her many friends in the city, who have been anxiously watching the progress of her case, will be pleased to know of her recovery.

Wednesday morning Fred Humphreys assumed control of the Postal Telegraph office and also the post office store. He has been clerking in W. A. Huntley's book store for a number of years and his thorough preparation gained while working there has amply fitted him for the duties of his new position. The position which he vacated is to be filled by Will Marshall.

William Beach has resigned his place in the woolen mill to assume charge of the physical department of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Beach has had considerable experience as trainer at Corvallis college, and his friends think his services as physical director of the Y. M. C. A. will be a valuable addition. His regular work began October 2d, and will probably continue throughout most of the winter.

William Hammond the eldest son of the Rev. and Mrs. P. K. Hammond left last Saturday evening for Gambier, Ohio, where he will finish his collegiate course at Kenyon College, after which he will enter the theological seminary and prepare himself for the ministry of the Episcopal church. This will mean six years of study. He has for the past six or seven months held a position in the office of the Willamette Pulp and Paper Co. He leaves with the good wishes of his many friends.

His Life in Peril.

"I just seemed to have gone all to pieces," writes Alfred Bee, of Welfare, Tex., "billionness and a lame back had made life a burden. I couldn't eat or sleep and felt almost too worn out to work when I began to use Electric Bitters, but they worked wonders. Now I sleep like a top, can eat anything, have gained in strength and enjoy hard work." They give vigorous health and new life to weak, sickly, run down people. Try them. Only 50c at Geo. A. Harding's drug store.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Linon napkins, 6 cents each at Racket Store.

The county commissioners court convened on Wednesday with the usual amount of county business to transact.

Last Thursday Jack Nendel and Miss Elsie Baker, of Wilsonville, were united in marriage. They will reside in Portland.

All the Jewish stores in this city were closed Thursday in observance of that time-honored custom of the Jewish holiday.

A delightful party was tendered Miss Bernice Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelly Tuesday evening. About twenty of her young friends were present.

At the Presbyterian church Sunday morning the regular morning service will be held, and in the evening the Sunday school is to observe Rally Day. The public is invited to be present.

Mrs. Mary Turner, of Carus, wife of William Turner died at her home last Tuesday of cancer. The funeral was conducted in this city Thursday under the auspices of the Odd Fellows.

Next Sunday at the Baptist church will occur communion service. In the evening Rev. Marrs will preach. A week from next Sunday is Rally Sunday, and an especially interesting program is to be rendered by the children.

The Aladdin Opera Co., which appears at Shively's opera house Saturday, Oct. 4th, is an exceptionally strong production. Such names as Bertha Caylor, Lucille Miller, Robt. Clayton, Edwin Carroll and others all are familiar.

The Les Papillous Club will hold another one of its popular dances at the Armory on the evening of October 17th. This has been the most popular organization of its kind held in the city for a long time. This will probably be the last assembly of this club this fall.

Miss Veda Williams held a pleasing piano recital at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. G. Miller, Saturday afternoon. The musicians who rendered the music were some of Miss Williams' junior pupils, and their work was very satisfactory to all who heard them.

The work of making the big fill along the electric trestle has been suspended for a few days until the company can get some more flat cars with which to carry the dirt to the point desired. It seems that the company is needing the cars in some other place now.

Water in the Willamette river is at a very low stage notwithstanding the heavy showers of the last few days. At the rapids where the rocks are most plentiful, and the bed of the river very narrow. The boats have to puff like good fellows to get up at all, striking bottom in numerous places as they go.

Saturday evening Mrs. Elizabeth Moody was united in marriage to John Trullinger at the home of the bride at Molalla. Mr. and Mrs. Trullinger have lived at Molalla for a number of years and are well known throughout the county. They will reside at Molalla, where Mr. Trullinger will work at his trade, that of a carpenter.

The case of Eldora Younger vs John Younger in which Eldora Younger applied for a divorce and for the care and control of her minor children. It was heard by Judge McBride Thursday afternoon and the divorce was granted. J. U. Campbell appeared for the state and Geo. C. Brownell for the defense.

L. Gurtinger, of Portland, is starting to erect a new lumber mill at Deep creek about 18 miles from here. The concern is to be known as the Oregon Lumber Co., and when the machinery is all installed and everything in running order, will turn out 400000 feet of lumber a day. E. Epperson is one of the overseer in the work.

The last few days the United States Land office in this city has been very busy trying a contest case in which W. P. Sniffin, of Mt Tabor has been contesting the rights of Mrs. Laura Felger. Mr. Sniffin is a well to do berry grower. Mrs. Felger is a widow with three children. The case was closed Wednesday but is yet undecided.

Communion services will be held at the Congregational church on Sunday morning. The rite of infant baptism will be administered and new members received. In the evening the Rev. H. H. Wilkoff, field secretary of the church building society, will give an illustrated address on the churches of the Pacific coast, assisted by this society.

The annual fair of the Butte Creek Association closed Saturday at Marquam after one of the most successful seasons ever held. Sheriff Shaver is president, and he spared no pains this year to get together the finest exhibition of stock, grain and fruits obtainable. People from all over the county and neighboring counties and many, after attending the state fair, say the exhibit at Marquam was quite as good.

Bob Adams the carman, who has been operating the cars for the O. W. P. & P. R., is one of the most efficient men on the line. A few days ago while running into Portland a man, who had been drinking a little too freely for his own good, fell across the track just ahead of Adams' car. He, by his prompt action reversed the brakes and stopped his car just as the wheels were rubbing the body of the prostrated man.

Tuesday evening the many Baptist friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Loder tendered them a very pleasing reception at the residence of Rev. and Mrs. Beavens on 11th street. Many of Mr. and Mrs. Loder's friends were present and the evening passed off most pleasantly with social intercourse followed by tasty refreshments. Mr. and Mrs. Loder have many friends in this city whose best wishes accompany them.

The Oregon City Academy, under the management of Professor Davis and wife, opened Wednesday in their rooms on Seventh street. The attendance is as good as usual, with very encouraging prospects that it will grow all through the winter. Professor Davis, assisted by his wife, is amply competent to teach, and any young man or woman who is seeking an education, could do no better than to take instruction from them.

J. Bucholz, an old resident of Salmon, was in the city Wednesday with a fine variety of salmon trout. He is an old fisherman and every year goes up Salmon river to fish. His skill as a fisherman is recognized by his friends in his neighborhood.

Book Bargains

We are pretty nearly through selling books without profit—but it will be another week or 10 days before the carpenters and painters get out and we get in—so here are some more specials:

Dictionaries.

- Webster's Pocket, cloth $ .15
- Webster's Unabridged 1300 pages . . . . . .67
- Webster's Unabridged 1900 census ed., sheep 1.65

Miscellaneous Books.

- Practical Family Physician . . . . . $ .98
- Over 1000 pages of Common Sense Medical Advice, a book sold by agents regularly at $2.50
- Advice to Wife and Mother, Chavasse . . 1.05
- 13th edition
- Ridpath's Popular History of U. S. . . . . 1.50
- Regular $2.50 edition, 1000 large pages

Stock Books.

- Gleason's Horse Book. $1.05
- Manning's Horse Book 1.45
- " Cattle, Sheep and Swine . . . . . 1.45
- Felch's Poultry Culture 1.05
- Farmer's Encyclopedia. 1.05
- 600 pages and 400 illustrations, a book that every farmer ought to have.

Wit and Humor.

- 20 Years of Hustling Peck's Bad Boy
- Peck's Uncle Ike and Sunbeams
- Remarks by Bill Nye
- Eli Perkins, Wit and Humor
- Choice of these big well bound books. . . . . .69

C. G. Huntley

W. A. Huntley

POPULAR PRICE

DRUGGISTS

BOOKSELLERS

Another good bit of work done by the county commissioners this week was the order to open the Graves road by May, 1903.

The county commissioners have let the construction for the Shipley bridge on the Tualatin river to J. P. Tiltonson, of Albany, for $4494.

E. Thomas is acting as office boy in the office of Hedges & Griffith. He will take a course of study in the night class at the Y. M. C. A.

Professor G. A. Prentiss, principal of the West Side school, reports an enrollment of 100 pupils. The teachers are Misses Grant, Goodfellow and Humphrey and Sturcheer (Bolton.)

The work of fitting up the new room in the Eastham school building has been considerably retarded by the fact that the authorities are unable to get the required number of desks as they cannot be gotten in Portland. This means a back set of perhaps three weeks during which time the pupils will be cared for in the best possible way.

The music lovers of Oregon City gave Mrs. Courson of Portland, a most cordial greeting last Wednesday at Mrs. Brownell's residence, thereby showing their appreciation for first-class vocal training. Mrs. Courson has for years been accorded first place among Portland singers, and perhaps has the best record of any choir singer on the coast.

The Oregon Water Power & Portland Railway is making splendid progress with its new railway. The plans are to start the railway out by Mount Scott and extend it along through Eagle Creek, Graham, Carrinsville and the new power station on the Clackamas. Four and one-half miles of roadbed have been made from Mount Scott out and heavy grading is being rapidly pushed toward completion. The railway is a go-send to the country through which it is to run and its influence will be felt all over the entire county.

Every Healthy Boy. likes to get himself into places of danger. Hence bruises, strains and sprains. Mother scolds and brings out the bottle of Perry Davis' Painkiller and rubs it on the injured spots with and energy and frequency depending on the seriousness of the case. There is nothing like Perry Davis' Painkiller to take out the soreness. There is but one Painkiller, Perry Davis'. Price 25c and 50c.

C. W. Swallow, who owns a fine fruit farm at Maple Lane, came to town Wednesday with a load of fruit and gave the Courier-Herald a pleasant call. Mr. Swallow makes a specialty of grapes and prunes. He raises a fine variety of Worden grapes, Moore's Diamond, and also a variety called Niagara. Mr. Swallow's Italian prunes are of a good quality this season, but fell about three hundred boxes short of the usual number. In Mr. Swallow's opinion his variety of grapes surpass the old-time Concord grapes both in quantity and quality, and thinks as soon as the public is acquainted with them they will have the larger market. The farm where he grows his delicious fruits is an ideal one, and is situated two miles from town.

Captain Holtum, known as the cannon king, is in the city this week giving an exhibition of physical feats in a building on Main street, between Fourth and Fifth. The show will be held every day this week at 11 o'clock a. m. and in the evening from 7:30 to 8:30. This remarkable man can perhaps accomplish what no other living man has yet—catch a cannon ball fired from the mouth of a real cannon. He has been all over the world, has appeared before kings and friends, and has the medals and newspaper clipping to show for it. The man is 57 years old and well preserved. His hands are disfigured from the hard usage of his performance, and his physique is as near perfect as one can approach. Captain Holtum says he was in Oregon City and Portland in 1864, but these cities have so changed, he says, he would no longer recognize them.

Foreign Lands

We issue Drafts payable in other countries Whenever you have occasion to send money to Foreign Lands it will pay you to send it through this Bank

The Bank of Oregon City Oregon City, Ore.

SCHOOL BOOKS

We Furnish the SCHOOL SUPPLIES for the OREGON CITY SCHOOLS as we were the LOWEST bidders and were awarded the CONTRACT.

We would be pleased to figure with any SCHOOL DISTRICT in the county for their supplies. We buy very close and give our customers the benefit of the lowest Cash PRICE.

We carry all the BOOKS used in the SCHOOLS of this county and sell them at the lowest State Prices.

Here is a few of our CUT PRICES

25 Slate Pencils 5c

6 Lead Pencils 5c

Extra Large Tablets 5c

Companions 5c

FREE

Rulers and Tablets with each complete Book order

Charman & Co.

CUT-PRICE DRUGGISTS

Prescriptions a specialty

Mail orders promptly attended to

Wood's Sarsaparilla, $1 size only 50c