

Eldorado.

Mr Bowman had the misfortune to see his house and nearly all the furniture by fire caused by a defective fuse. Several of the young folks of this place attended the ball at Joe Briggs' Saturday night. The "Baby Lyons" are home from the college mill near Liberal, where they were employed. Jones & Co are rebuilding their residence this week. Pat Lyons was amongst us Monday night. Ernest Jones was in Canby Sunday visiting friends. Pratt Bros are hauling hay in this place. Say, Willis, how's it go to load the same load twice? Sebastian Bany had the misfortune to lose his way home Sunday evening. He fell asleep while driving home and the horse lost their way. Young folks should not stay up so late. "Hooter Creek" camp has moved to Vaughn's place on Milk Creek near Union Mills. Fred Neukirchner was in Oregon City Monday with a load of fine turkeys. Barney Helvey is harvesting corn this week. Otto Strycker was in Canby Sunday. Omer Harmon, of Marquam, was seen in our burg Tuesday. Mary Molan was a caller on friends here last week.

Mulino.

Some work is being done on the Molalla road near the Force place. An exciting time was had last week in the vicinity of Mulino. Edwin Bowman's caught fire from a stove pipe, as it is supposed. Mrs Bowman and the children were home at the time but they could not get help in time to save the house but most of the furniture was saved. A Dougan, who has been absent from some for some time has returned and is building on his farm near here. Mr. and Mrs Wallace were visiting friends at Carus Sunday last. Erickson and family and Mr and Mrs Davis were visiting at the Darnall home Sunday. Mr and Mrs Moldenhauer and son, Adolph, passed through here last week. Fred Force has purchased a new wheel. Charlie Daniels is working in Austin's sawmill at Liberal, at present. Ernest, Mae and Ora Davis departed for Oregon City Saturday, where they will spend the winter. Miss Della Glover is visiting her sister, Mrs. Mary Trullinger at present. Most everyone has their corn cut and in the shock around here. Pat Lyons is working for the Dodge boys at Liberal. Calvin Ball is working for Dell Trullinger. Bessie Lyons was visiting her mother here last Thursday and Friday. Mamie Evans has returned to Oregon City, where she will work this winter. A Erickson has purchased a new organ. Mr Killen is working for W H Seltzer. The party at the home of H Perry Wednesday evening was a grand success. Mr and Mrs Yonts, formerly of Springwater, were visitors here last week.

Russelville.

The weather is fine but a little dry to plow, but fine for drying fruit or hauling grain. Some of the people have taken their cattle out of the mountains. Hop picking is a thing of the past. James Cox and Mary Sheer were the champion hop pickers of Macksburg. George Marts and Mr Trullinger and wife were the champions of Russelville. George picked nine boxes per day and sometimes more. It is thought Trullingers made $5 per day for 19 days, which would be about 114 boxes. Three others made $105, so there is good assurance of lots of beer. We are all wishing for rain. The pleasant callers at the Wingfield home on Sunday evening were Netta Arthur and Scott Carter, Ethel Armstrong and Bessie Johnson. Mrs G Wingfield visited her daughter, Mrs Netta Carter, Monday. Mrs Mary Boyles and family made her sister, Mrs Carter, a call on Monday. George Marts made the Wingfield family a pleasant call yesterday.

To children Scott's Emulsion gives food and strength for growth of flesh and bone and blood. For pale girls, for thin and sickly boys Scott's Emulsion is a great help. Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409-415 Pearl Street, New York. 50c. and $1.00; all druggists.

Mr and Mrs Marts and family, of Russelville, visited the former's parents, Mr and Mrs Marts, on the Molalla. Miss Maud Wingfield visited at the home of her sister, Mrs Carter, Friday and Saturday. Mr Wingfield has gone after Ode Boyles and Mr Marts to have them help him thresh. Mrs Netta Carter went to Molalla today.

Sandy.

Prune drying seems to be the order of the day with those who have prunes. Miss Effie Wolf, of Dover, who was so badly burned, is reported to be improving. R Jonsrad's sister and mother are on the sick list. Anton Malar, Jr, Misses Tenie Malar and Anna Bachman were visiting at Salmon River Sunday. Miss Nola Walkley is staying with Mrs Welsh, of Salmon River, who has been sick for some time. She is not improving yet. Mrs Spaniel, of Firwood, died Sunday night at the home of Anton Malar, Sr. Deceased had been suffering about a year with paralysis. The interment was in the Cherrystone cemetery Tuesday afternoon. The funeral was conducted by Rev Koppelman. The deceased left a husband, from whom she had parted, and a son residing in Portland. A dance will be given at Sandy Saturday night by Caspar Junker.

Meeting of Pomona Grange.

Pomona Grange met with Warner Grange at New Era on Wednesday with an attendance of about 125. A resolution was adopted to invite the State Grange to meet at Oregon City next summer. If that body accepts, the subordinate granges of this county will do their best to give it a royal welcome. An amended resolution was adopted in favor of precinct assessors and that they constitute the county board of equalization: in order to promote honesty in assessment. This resolution is in line with the action of the State Grange. A resolution was adopted to amend U. S. constitution to the effect that U. S. senators be elected by popular suffrage. A resolution favoring woman's suffrage was also adopted. Resolutions of condolence were read in memory of late Brother Alfred Nichols. Dr. Casto read a resolution requiring school directors to fence the school grounds, and plant no less than five trees annually, a special tax, if necessary, to be levied for the purpose. Carried. Mr. Shibley, of Springwater, read a resolution in favor of a local option law. He said that a five-gallon jug of political whisky came into his precinct at the last election—Bro. Spence said the same was true in his precinct—and he wanted to do away with that evil. Resolution lost, because impractical. Eagle Creek Grange reported that the ground was cleared and the lumber hauled for a grange hall. Harding Grange reports a new kitchen stove, and will give an entertainment for the benefit of the Springwater fire sufferers. Molalla Grange has built an $850 hall and is now building a horse shed. This brand-new Grange has 139 members. Tualatin Grange will repaint its hall. Mr. Bates, of Springwater, was re-elected master of Pomona Grange for 1903. Mr. Greenhew, of Beaver Creek, overseer; Miss Anna Holmes, of Milwaukie, lecturer; Mr. Beard, of Oregon City, steward; Mr. Lazelle, assistant steward; Father Eaton, of Oswego, re-elected chaplain; treasurer, T. L. Turner, of Clafford; Mr. Spence, of Carus, secretary; gatekeeper, Bayne Howard, of Mulino; Sister Breitholt, of Damascus, Pomona; Sister Street, of Clackamas, Flora; Ceres, Sister Thomas, of Molalla; Sister Waldron, of Warner Grange, lady assistant steward. A resolution was passed to contribute $8 from funds of Pomona to Springwater Grange, on account of the destructive fire in its vicinity. Mr Sellwood took the chair as master in the middle of the afternoon during the absence of Mr. Bates. A rising vote of thanks was given Warner Grange for its liberal hospitality. Lewis Kirchem invited Pomona to meet with Harding Grange in January. The invitation was accepted. After supper a class of 27 took the fifth degree, a solemn ceremony which always winds up with plenty of cake. A literary and musical entertainment followed. At the end of this the old folks went home and the seats were cleared away for the dance.

Softening the Blow. The cashier of a certain firm had absconded, and the staff of clerks were deciding on a fit and proper person to acquaint the head of the firm of the fact on his arrival. Ultimately the matter was left in the hands of the head clerk, possibly because none of the others cared to undertake the responsibility. There had been a dogfight in the street, and a small crowd was just dispersing as the chief's carriage dashed up. "What's that crowd after, Jorkins?" demanded the head of the firm. The chief clerk thought he recognized a chance of breaking the news gently and seized it. "The vacancy, sir," he replied. "Vacancy? What vacancy?" "Cashier, sir." "But we want no cashier, Jorkins." "Beg pardon, sir; but we've a vacancy for one!" "Jorkins, are you mad?" "No, sir. That is, sir, I don't know, sir. Fact is, sir—all the cash is gone and—"

"Well?" "The cashier's gone with it, sir." From the way the old man took it the clerk thought he might just as well have blurted it out at the start. Foiled by Humidity. Noiselessly, but with all his might, the burglar tugged at the bureau drawer. In vain. He refused to open. He tugged again. "Give it another jerk," said a voice behind him. The burglar turned. The owner of the house was sitting up in bed and looking at him with an expression of the deepest interest on his face. "Jerk it again. There's a lot of valuable property in that drawer, but we haven't been able to open it since the damp weather began. If you can pull it out, I'll give you a handsome royalty on everything that's—"

But the burglar had jumped out through the window, taking a part of the sash with him.—Chicago Tribune. Regarded in Different Ways. That one can obtain more favors by "jollyng" than by being brusque is just as true as "one can catch more flies with molasses than with vinegar." Two young men have lived in a boarding house in West Twenty-third street for some time, and one has the reputation of being a "jollier" while the other is quick spoken and of a bearish disposition. The young men are friends and usually breakfast together. Their respective standings in the estimation of the dining room maid may be judged from the way in which that damsel shouted their order—both had requested steaks—down the dumb waiter shaft recently: "A nice beefsteak, a trifle rare, for Mr. Wood; some meat for Baldwin."—New York Tribune.

Very Simple. A rather simple looking lad halted before a blacksmith's shop on his way home from school and eyed the doings of the proprietor with much interest. The brawny smith, dissatisfied with the boy's curiosity, held a piece of red-hot iron suddenly under the youngster's nose, hoping to make him beat a hasty retreat. "If you'll give me half a dollar, I'll lick it," said the lad. The smith took from his pocket half a dollar and held it out. The simple looking youngster took the coin, licked it and slowly walked away whistling.—Chums. The Dissyllable Scot. The difficulty of rhyming to "girl" is mainly due to the varieties of its pronunciation. It is never pronounced, as it is so often conventionally written, "gall," but one often hears "gell," with a hard "g." Moreover, in Scotland, though it is as well not to mention the fact to a Scotsman, it consists of two syllables—"gurel." The other day it was pointed out to a Scotsman that the name of his national poet was a dissyllable in Ayrshire. "Hoot awa!" he said, or words to that effect. "Burns two syllables! Absurrud!"—London Chronicle.

A Curious Custom. In some parts of Brittany a curious marriage custom prevails. On certain fete days the marriageable girls appear in red petticoats, with white or yellow borders round them. The number of borders denote the portion the father is willing to give his daughter. Each white band denotes $20 per annum; each yellow band represents $200 a year.
