

Foreign Lands

We issue Drafts payable in other countries Whenever you have occasion to send money to Foreign Lands it will pay you to send it through this Bank

The Bank of Oregon City Oregon City, Ore.

Seth Austin, of Springwater, a highly respected resident of Clackamas county, was in the city Wednesday.

Thomas Warner returned this week from LaCamas, Wash., where he was on a hunting trip for a few days.

Chancey Ramsby, John Draper and Carl Calif returned Tuesday from a three days outing up the Clackamas.

Mrs. B. F. Hanegan, who has been absent in the Eastern states for a month, returned to this city last week.

J. Ogle, of Barlow, who has been keeping store at that place has sold out and was in Oregon City Thursday.

Silas Barber, of Canby, a well known young resident of that place, is in Oregon City working in the mills.

C. D. Latourette left Thursday evening for Seattle, where legal business demanded his urgent attention.

Frank Rogers, the tonsorialist who formerly resided in this city, but now of Portland, was in the city Tuesday.

J. P. Robertson, of Salem, was in Oregon City during the week on his way back from a trip to Eastern Oregon.

Dr. Welch, of Portland, who has been practicing for so long in this state, was on the streets of this city Thursday.

Ed Reckner, James Campbell, Wallace Cole and Lily Stipp composed a party who drove into the country Wednesday.

Dr. Sommer was laid up for a day the past week with some foot affliction, due probably to over work and excessive walking.

J. S. Dick, of Canby was in Oregon City Thursday.

Jacob Huber, of Logan, was in Oregon City Thursday.

Frank Perry, of Molalla, made a business trip to Oregon City.

Peter Wilson, a resident of Arthur Prairie, was in this city Thursday.

E. Newkirk and son, of Arthur Prairie, were in this city Thursday.

Ernest Rands has been surveying for the W. P. & P. Co on Grays River.

Thad Stipp, who is a farmer residing at Liberal, was in Oregon City Thursday.

Dan Beck, of Cottage Grove, a mining contractor, was in this city a day past week.

J. M. Mumpower, of Stone, was in this city Thursday transacting business.

Nance Allison, a barber at Cottage Grove, was the guest of G. E. Grimm this week.

Mrs. J. Doremus, who has been confined to her bed for the past two weeks, is somewhat improved.

William May, who will be remembered for his reputation as a short distance runner, is in this city from Washington, where he has been working at harvesting most of the summer.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Field Superintendent J. M. Wisner, Jr., leaves Saturday for Rogue River for a week's inspection of the hatcheries located there.

George L. Eyestone and wife, of Martinsburg, Iowa, arrived Sunday and will spend winter with his sister, Mrs. Geo. F. Horton.

A. J. Douglass, of Eagle Creek, who has been running a thresher in Eastern Oregon, Sherman county, was in the city Thursday.

Attorney Schuebel enjoyed a little relaxation from his duties of his profession one day the past week by hunting Oregon native pheasants.

C. C. Clower, of Portland, was in the city Wednesday enroute for Roseburg. Mr. Clower was doing law office business with John W. Draper.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Pierce, who own the green-house at Falls View, made a trip to Oak Grove Wednesday after a new supply of carnations.

Tom Hankins, who has been confined to his room for a few days with pneumonia, is able to be out and he will soon resume his work on the steam saw.

J. H. James, wife and child, left Thursday for their former home in Barnston, Neb. They have been residents of Colton for about eighteen months.

John Lewellen and Tom Killin, two members of the board of county commissioners made a trip to Powell's Valley Wednesday to look after some road work.

Mrs. Geo. A. Harding, department inspector of the Woman's Relief Corps, is in Eastern Oregon, in the interest of her official duties. She may remain away two weeks.

C. W. Peltz, who has been working at Lewisville, Wash., was in Oregon City Thursday on his way home to Molalla. He will hunt a week in the mountains before returning to his work.

Dr. Carril's buggy which was badly injured the week by the car running into it near Canemah, will be mended by the Electric Car company. It is pleasing to note this disposition on their part.

Mr. Van Dusan, fish commissioner for the state of Oregon, and William Smith, of Parkplace, have just come down from the upper Clackamas, where they spent a few days inspecting the work in progress there.

Miss Aneta Gleason has commenced teaching her school at Jones' mill. She has already taught near Clackamas station. Her school numbers 35 pupils and work is progressing nicely.

Clarence Young, brother of liverman W. H. Young, spent a day this week on his claim at Grass Valley Eastern Oregon.

Anyone wanting rock for foundations can have same for the hauling away by inquiring at Courier-Herald office.

Adolph C. Hooper has filed a divorce complaint against his wife, Rhea M. Hooper. The ground for divorce is desertion.

There is no probability that the paper mills can get started for a few days, as the river still falls, notwithstanding the rain of Tuesday night.

Mary Barton, of Portland, on Thursday filed a divorce in the clerk's office in this city for a divorce from her husband, J. J. Burton. The plea is abandonment.

The vestry of St. Paul's church, which met on Tuesday evening, decided to put a new sidewalk from Main street to the rectory gate. The other improvements will be made in the near future.

The Saturday Club of the Congregational church has decided to hold another one of its popular Thanksgiving Markets on Wednesday before Thanksgiving Day. The place will be announced later.

Lowe's Madison Square Theatrical Company, which is playing a week's engagement at Shively's opera house, is giving good satisfaction to fair houses. The company is above the average and all its members seem to be artists.

The W. O. W. will give an entertainment at Shively's opera house Tuesday evening October 21. A very lengthy programme has been prepared, consisting of numbers by the best local talent, and it will prove interesting to all who attend.

The Congregationalists will worship in a church free from debt next Sunday. The morning theme will be "God's Goodness Leading to Repentance." The young people are kindly asked to notice the evening theme "Habits—Are They Our Helpers or Masters?" All are welcome.

Charles Babcock, the Bolton light-house keeper, and another angler started on Wednesday morning in a buggy for the upper Clackamas bridge. They carried, to delude and elude the trout about a peck of salmon eggs. The appetite to catch a big catch they cultivated on the road.

A. J. Douglass, of Eagle Creek, who was recently arrested by Sheriff McGinnis, of Sherman county, on a charge of obtaining money under false pretense, was discharged of the crime on Thursday by the non-appearance of the complaining witness.

If you want the most effective styles and lowest prices, call on Miss C. Goldsmith.

James Kocher, son of Andy Kocher is reported very ill with rheumatism at his home in Canby. The trouble seems to be very serious and it has been necessary to keep him somewhat under the influence of an opiate to deaden the intense pain. His many friends in this city anxiously await his permanent recovery.

The actual work of raising the M. E. church is now under way. The men will be thus engaged most of the present week and perhaps 30 days will elapse before the new room is completed and ready for use. The room will be very desirable for a store room when every innovation is made.

E. A. France waived examination in the justice court Tuesday and is placed under $100 bonds to appear in the circuit court at its regular term next November. He is charged with shooting a valuable dog belonging to C. G. Miller, a clerk in the P. G. E. Co. The complaint is sworn to by John F. Clark. The defendant denies the charge and will fight the case.

A new Royal and a new Queen dr head sewing machines will be given away to customers of Parkplace Cash Store on Christmas.

On Saturday evening there will be given a grand ball at Clackamas under auspices of Clackamas Lodge No. 145, I. O. O. F. at its new hall. This promises to be an enjoyable affair, and great pains have been used to make it such. The management is under the control of responsible men and orderly conduct will be enforced. The floor is unusually good and fine dancing will be the order of the evening.

On Monday night a meeting of the board of school directors was held. One rule was adopted which was that no severe corporal punishment would be administered to a pupil before the whole school. Hereafter when the pupils' conduct merits such severe punishment the teacher is required to keep the pupil till after work hours, and administer the punishment in the office of the principal.

The work of taking eggs on the Columbia river by the United States fish commissioner has closed for the season. At the lower stations over 20,000,000 eggs will be taken. At Clackamas Station over 3,000,000 eggs have been taken and at Rogue River nearly the same amount was taken. The total number of eggs taken in Oregon and Washington by the commission is over 26,000,000.

Blankets

Good Weight Cotton Blankets

10-4.....75

11-4.....1.00

12-4.....1.75

Fine Selected Wool Blankets, 10-4...5.00

ADAMS BROS.

GOLDEN RULE BAZAAR

OREGON CITY'S BIG CASH STORE

Corsets

We are agents for the celebrated "W. B." Corsets. Guaranteed to fit, or money refunded.

Cable Linen

Silver Bleached, all linen, heavy weight, able damask, 68-inch wide, yard.....$1.25 and 1 60

Irish Bleached Damask, 54-inch wide..... 39

All Linen Fringed Napkins, 18x 18, per dozen.....1 70

14x14, per dozen.....1 20

20x20 per dozen.....2 00

All Linen Doilies, 9x9, each... 5

Lamps & Jardinieres

Student Lamps, heavily nickel plated.....5 00

Rochester Lamps heavily nickel plated.....

Glass Stand Lamps, No. 1 burner " " " No. 2 " "

Glass Hand Lamps..... 25

Glass Night Lamps..... 25

Jardiniers—new designs, beautiful blended in two and three tone effects.

Skirts

A full line of the Sorosis Under-skirts in black and colored Sateen, $1.20 to $6.50.

Celebrated "Banner" brand perfect fitting Walking Skirts in blue, brown and gray, waterproof meltons, $4.50 to $12.00.

Shirt Waists

Just received a line of the celebrated "Banner" brand waists in flannels and silks, latest fall styles, 95c to $7.50 each.

Silks

Extra Quality China Wash Silk all colors.....35 and 50

Black Taffeta Dress Silk..... 75

Heavy Black Dress Silk, 36-inch wide, guaranteed to wear....1 50

Crockery & Glassware

Dinner Sets of American Porcelain, 54 pieces, decorated with pink and blue blossoms... 5 60

Dinner Sets of English Porcelain, 44 pieces, blue and pink decorations..... 8 80

Tea Sets, English Porcelain, decorated, per set..... 83

Breakfast Plates, English Porcelain, per set..... 95

Dinner Plates, English Porcelain, per set.....1 15

Oatmeal Sets, elegant decorations, 3 pieces..... 55

Cups and Saucers, Imported China, per set.....1 20

Salt and Pepper Shakers, per set 10

Call at Adams Bros. Tuesday afternoon and arrange to join the class in free embroidery lessons.

The popular Les Papillon Club will give a ball at the armory on Friday night, October 17th.

Adams Bros. have made arrangements to start a class of twenty in free embroidery lessons. Call at their store on Tuesday and join the class.

Street Commissioner John Green is covering the bridge over the Abernethy with new planks. The very much dilapidated sidewalk at the south end of the bridge ought also to be fixed up.

Old newspapers for sale at Courier-Herald office.

At St. Paul's Episcopal church next Sunday at 10 o'clock, the rector, Rev. P. K. Hammond, will preach on "Speaking in Parable," and at the evening service at 8 o'clock on "An Important Question."

On Tuesday a representative of the Carlson Currier Silk Co. will be at Adams Bros. to arrange for the formation of a class in embroidery lessons. This is an opportunity for those interested in art work to receive tuition free of charge.

A horse belonging to G. W. Martin came home Monday night from running at large on the West Side with a bullet hole in its leg. Who the culprit is, and the reason for his unseemly conduct is a mystery. It is thought that the same gun that shot the horse may have been the one that shot C. G. Miller's dog, as the bullet hole was the same size.

The finest creation in skirts ever seen in Oregon City; some with circular flounce, real beauties. Racket Store.

There is a squabble over letting the contract on the Garde new building to S. S. Mohler, a non-union painter, who was formerly a member of the union. Johnson & Andrews, who let the contract for the painting, and who have the contract for the construction, are officers in the Carpenters' Union. The members of the Painters' Union have preferred charges against Johnson & Andrews.

A serious accident was narrowly averted Tuesday afternoon on the hill. While Mrs. G. W. Grace was driving in a buggy the horse shied and started to run, but Mrs. Grace managed to stop the animal before any damage had been done. When she tried to hitch the horse to a post it started again and succeeded in tearing the harness to pieces, but as Mrs. Grace was on the ground she escaped uninjured. The horse is ordinarily a gentle creature, but it had not been used for several days.

At a meeting of the students of the Oregon City Academy held last Friday night, Marcus Sugarman was elected president of the newly organized debating society. The meetings will be held every week on Friday evenings, and some live subject will be discussed. It is also the plan now to have someone of the West Side make a short address to the class. At the coming meeting Howard M. Brownell has been invited to address the society, which invitation he has accepted. The public is invited to the meeting.

At the organization of the Academy debating association held last Friday evening the following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing winter: Marcus Sugarman, president; Virgil Clark, vice-president; Effie Grace, secretary; Edward Willey, treasurer; Aurora Dickey, recording secretary. This Friday night occurs the first debate of the year. The subject is: Resolved, That "Immigration is a Benefit to the United States." There are to be two speakers on a side and three judges. The public is invited.

Twenty five or thirty bankers from the East arrived here last Friday at the invitation of Messrs Morris and Whitehead, on a tour of inspection of the existing and contemplated railroad lines of the Oregon Water Power and Railroad Co., of which they are the bond holders. These gentlemen went from this city to Springwater, where they inspected the construction work now in progress. They expressed themselves as highly pleased with the resources of the Northwest country and shows a willingness to expend a great amount of money in the development and upbuilding of this section.

Do you trading at the Parkplace Cash Store and get a chance on the two sewing machines to be given away Christmas.

The Woodmen of the World have been making great preparations for their entertainment to be given at Shively's hall Tuesday, October 21. Following is the program to be rendered: Overture, W. O. W. Band; remarks, G. B. Dinick; selection, Mandolin Club; recitation, Charles Robinson; solo, Miss Mary Conyers; recitation, Mrs. J. R. Hickman; solo, G. T. Howard; recitation, W. W. Lumsden, of Portland; selection, Women of Woodcraft Quartet; recitation, Mrs. Florence Vaughn; selection, W. O. W. Brass Quartet; club singing, R. Warner; solo, Charles Blumh; recitation, George Bowlerlin, of Portland; solo, Frank Aldrich; recitation, Miss Carrie Seely; overture, band; vocal selection, Conifer brothers; solo, Walter Little; log-sawing contest between Oregon City and Portland camps; box-nailing contest, members Oregon City and Portland circles; selection by the W. O. W. band.

The Parkplace Cash Store will give away two sewing machines on Christmas. See Holmes, Parkplace, Oregon.

On Monday, the house of Grant Creitzer, on the railroad this side of New Era, burned down nearly all the household effects being consumed. As the flames were good, the cause of the fire is hard to explain.

THE OLD RELIABLE

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure.

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

Rubber Goods

Direct From the Factory (No Middleman's Profit)

We have had years of experience with Rubber Goods—Fountain Syringes, Bulb Syringes, Atomizers, Hot Water Bottles, Cushions, &c., &c.

We know the kinds which give satisfaction and we know where and how to get them at the right price. We buy them direct from the factory, at bedrock prices, so that quality-for-quality we know that our prices can not be duplicated. Come and compare the quality. It is to your decided interest.

- Rapid Flow Fountain Syringe.....$1.00 (As good as the average $1.25 and $1.50 Syringe.)
- Alpha & Omega Bulb Syringe from 50c to $2.00 (The Continuous Flow Kind.)
- Dr. Fuller's safety Syringe.....$2.50
- Marvel Whirling Spray.....$2.98
- Goodyear Safety.....$1.25
- Hot Water Bottles.....$1.00 to $1.50 (New stock just received.)

C. G. Huntley W. A. Huntley

POPULAR PRICE

DRUGGIST BOOKSELLER

A fresh shipment of Lowney's candies just in—5 cents to $1.00.

Boston Chocolate Chips fresh every week; 50c per pound.