weakens the body and degrades the mind. It saps the nervous strength that is the source of all health, and perverts the functions of every organ. Because of its stubborn nature, it is often called incurable. This is not true. There is one medicine that never fails to check the nervous spasms and give new strength to the entire system.

"My little girl had epilepsy so bad that in one day she suffered seventy-one fits. The doctors gave her up to die, but I began giving her Dr. Miles' Nervine and now she is perfectly well. It took five bottles to effect a cure."

Surfus-Williams.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was the marriage of John E. Surfus, of this city, to Miss Eva Williams, of Maple Lane, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Williams, in the presence of friends and relatives. The house was beautifully decorated with myrtle, evergreens and flowers. The ceremony was performed under an arch of evergreens. Rev. E. S. Bollinger was the officiating clergyman. The bride's gown was a beautiful brown silk trimmed with white silk and applique, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss Mamie Evans, of Oregon City, wore a gray skirt and white organdie waist, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Guy E. MacElhany, of Oregon City, acted as best man. After the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining room, where a delicious luncheon was served. The dining room decorations were of roses and carnations very artistically arranged. A large number of beautiful and costly presents were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Surfus will make their future home in Oregon City. They have a host of friends who wish them joy and happiness through life.

Stricken With Paralysis.

Henderson Grime't, of this place, was stricken with partial paralysis and completely lost the use of one arm and side. After being treated by an eminent physician for quite a while without relief my wife recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and after using two bottles of it he is almost entirely cured.—Joz. R. McDonald, Man Logan county, W. Va. Several other very remarkable cures of partial paralysis have been effected by the use of this liniment. It is most widely known, however, as a cure for rheumatism, sprains and bruises. Sold by Geo. A. Harding.
