OREGON CITY, NOV. 7, 1902.

THE AFTERMATH.

For a minority party which had been practically routed and driven from the field in 1896 and 1900, the democracy of the Nation made a very satisfactory showing on last Tuesday. In every state in the Union they made a decent manly fight for their ticket and their platform of principles.

AND WHAT OF THE FUTURE?

If the lesson to be learned from the election of last Tuesday mean anything it means for the next ten years at least there are to be but two great political parties in this country, the Democratic and Republican.

CLACKAMAS COUNTY.

The county of Clackamas is as big as the state of Rhode Island in acres and territory. Rhode Island has nearly one half a million of people, Clackamas county has twenty five thousand. The land of Clackamas county is as rich as the valley of the Nile, as productive as any of God's acres on this American continent. God Almighty never put any soil on the barren rocks of which the surface of Rhode Island is made. The state has become rich and great in spite of her inhospitable climate, bleak and barren soil, and storm swept coasts.

LEWIS AND CLARK EXPOSITION.

No matter of Legislation that is before the state of Oregon to day is of more vital interest to all of the people of the state than the proposed appropriation of $500,000 in aid of the Lewis and Clark Exposition to be held at Portland in 1905.

AN ABRAHAM LINCOLN REPUBLICAN.

James Tracy one of the best known and one of the most substantial farmers of this county was in to see the editor of the Courier last week. He volunteered the fact that he was a Republican, an Abraham Lincoln Republican and not a Mar. Hannah Republican.

ing the battles of the common people with the Democracy of the country. The Mar. Hannah Republican will go to his grave deluded and beguiled, the nameless tool of an Iron master who would wreck the Republic in an hour for a pot of gold.

THREE CITIES' LUMBER BUSINESS.

While Seattle has 14 sawmills and Tacoma 12, to Portland's 11, and while the capital invested in Tacoma mills is reported as more than twice that invested in Portland, the cost of material used in the Portland mills is nearly 800,000 a year more than that used in either of the Sound cities.

We noticed in the Roseburg Review of last week a slighting allusion to the fact that Hon. W. J. Bryan was enjoying Republican prosperity, that he had put in two manlets at his home near Lincoln that had cost him $2,500.

Senator Turner, of Washington, showed his strength in his home county, Spokane, where, though it went republican otherwise by over 2000 majority, more than half the democratic candidates for the legislature were elected.

The native Oregonian is happy. It has been raining incessantly for the last week. The streams are full of water and the rivers are rising and the mills have gone to work and the "Web-foot smiles" and is glad. The Oregonian "To the Manor born" is never as happy as when it is raining and the harder it rains the broader his smile.

President Roosevelt's home town and precinct went democratic yesterday; his vote counted no more than that of Mike or Hans.—Telegram.

"The country is governed best that is governed least," is an old democratic doctrine. It was never truer in the past than it is today.
