CORRESPONDENCE.

Colton.

There wasn't any school here the latter part of last week, the teacher being called away to attend the funeral of his father-in-law.

W. E. Bonney and wife and Mrs. Ferah Bonney returned home last Thursday after a short sojourn at Graceme.

Rev. Dunlap held services here last Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. Henderson, of Elwood, was visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Guitberg, during the latter part of the week.

Frank Countryman had the misfortune to come in contact with a piece of falling bark which considerably disabled him for a few days.

B. C. Palmer made a flying business trip to Portland this week. Did you see her, Bert? "You bet your life I did."

Miss Lottie Freeman went to Oregon City on business last week.

Walter Gorbett was in the county seat trading horses during the week.

John Scott, of Highland, was a caller in Colton last Wednesday.

We are pleased to note that Otis Dix, who has had a long serious stage of fever, is now able to be up part of the time.

Will Jay and Oscar Dix, of Dix Bros.' sawmill Co., went to Washington last week to take charge of a large sawmill there for an indefinite time. They were accompanied by Dick Johnson, who will work in their employ.

Coltonites are loudly groaning about the deplorable condition of a portion of the Oregon City road between here and Clark. The commissioner certainly can not realize one half the inconvenience to the taxpayer of this part of the country to be obliged to wallow through such a place, or they would certainly give some assistance in fixing it as it is not much more than three-fourths of a mile of road, and it is so bad that it is impossible for an empty wagon.

Maple Lane.

Wish it would come often. Best of all I say, is this November Thursday. Folks call Thanksgiving Day.

John Gaffney is plowing for wheat. The Gibbs brothers were digging potatoes last week and harvested the finest crop of the season—Potatoes weighing from two to three pounds.

Mrs. Jackson's cousin, from Klondike, and daughter, from Portland, paid her a very pleasant visit last week.

PANBY BLOSSOM.

Elliott Prairie.

Many changes are quietly, though surely, taking place on the prairie. A great many are moving from one house to another, though all the old residents are remaining firm at present.

N. R. Graham has built a snug little cottage for himself and family, and they expect to move into it this week.

Mr. Chammes has offered up a special and fervent thanksgiving on removing from I. Hinkle's old house into John Graham's, which is so pleasantly situated on Church street, and as he has purchased the property no doubt there will be great improvements made. We give you our best wishes, sir, and may you and your good wife live long and die happy.

We are sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Marvin, who have gone to reside at Woodburn, in the house lately occupied by Mrs. W. Durant. Mr. Marvin has let his farm to Mr. Clark, our worthy and respected school teacher, who hopes to remove his family from Woodburn to the place this week. We extend the hand of welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Clark, and wish them happiness and prosperity in our midst.

Mr. Hostetler and family are on their way back to old Missouri. Oregon has no charms for them.

Mrs. Todd must feel rather lonesome now, with four of her family in Portland. Miss Eva is studying at the business college, and Miss Eva is keeping house for her brothers.

Mrs. Tyke is still at her mother's. She expects her husband shortly.

A pleasant party was given at the home of Oscar Mahler, last Friday. There was music and dancing and a good time generally.

Grandma Graham has carried off lots of turkeys to the needy.

Marmot.

As nothing has appeared from Marmot for a long time, I will take the liberty of letting people know that we are still alive.

Miss Eda Helms, who has been working in Portland, has returned.

A Christian Endeavor society was organized Sunday, November 16, at the school-house. There was a good attendance at the last meeting. A magic lantern show was also enjoyed.

Mr. Thompson will spend Thanksgiving with his daughter at Albany.

Jack Baldwin, of Portland, is working for Mr. Minsinger, this winter.
