What is the Remedy For Existing Evils of Assessment.

In your last issue your picket lines open fire on the assessors office. We have had some experience in the matter the farmer especially.

We have been taking the Oregonian's advice, letting statesmen attend to those duties while we raise hogs, hops, wool, wheat, hell, etc. Election times now, officers we we know the elect take the oath to support the constitution, etc.; the assessor to assess all property at its actual cash value. But do they do it? Well the exhibit shows for itself. We had the pleasure, or rather displeasure, of being deputy assessor. We took the oath and faithfully tried to carry it out, regardless of friends or foe, even carrying out our pledge to the people in the canvass that elected our entire county ticket. My blanke show an increase in valuation of over $500,000 on railroads, manu-OREGON facturers, etc., also money, notes and accounts. What followed? Even my friends in office turned me down. The board of equalization of which two were members of my own political party and the other one that administered the oath cut my assessment in twain, reducing the assessment about $500,000 There is to this day some people who say Bill Myers disrupted the populist by that act, although you will hear few say I did not do my duty. Did the farmer stay with me? Well, the subsequent

There was another duty imposed upon me (thinking probably was the best piece of political machinery to be laid on the shelf) that was the listing of the mortgage notes, which most Christian people thought should not be assessed. After this the board did not force those OREGON to pay that did not want to. The agreement was if one paid all should. My duties ceased after the notes were listed. But, lo and behold, Bill Myers was to blame for the whole business.

Notes and accounts you did not notice in your article the greatest fraud rest here. The exhibit shows only $7195, notes and accounts. If you will examine of this amount there are very few morrgage notes included.

Now, why doesn't this good man that holds that note, money, bank stock, etc., under oath give it into the assessor not profitable to do so. Don't blame the assessor the good Christian people, but the system, usury, rent and
