W. L. BLOCK THE HOME FURNISHER OREGON CITY, OREGON

CORRESPONDENCE.

Maple Lane.

Supervisor Gibbs is doing some excellent work on the road; something that will tell in years to come.

Miss Edith Jackson, of Orus, spent several days with her parents here.

A delightful party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shortledge, on Tuesday evening of last week, in honor of their daughter, Miss Annie. The evening was spent tripping the light fantastic until mid-night when a luncheon was served and the good-byes were said with some regret, that the evening was not longer. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Shortledge, Mr. and Mrs. John Goffney, Misses Annie Shortledge, Annie Mantz, Sarah and Mary Davies, Arta Kirk, Jessie and Letha Jackson, Messrs. J. B. Jackson, Tom and Lewis Davies, Albert and Lawrence Mantz, Delbert, Harry and Jim Shelly, Courlie and Tom Gibbs, Barns, Frank, Ben and Lambert Beard.

PANSY BLOSSOM.

wish him great success.

Miss Lizzie Bohlander, of Oregon City, formerly of this place, was visiting at the home of her brother, Valentine Bohlander.

Miss Eva Moehnke was the guest of Miss Tirzah Edwards last Wednesday evening.

Alpha Kirk and Guywlem Thomas are busy making rails for Bill Jones.

Miss Minnie Bohlander returned home Sunday from an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Smith, at Eugene.

Isaac Shortledge was seen riding through Beaver Creek last Sunday. What's the attraction, Isaac.

Henry Shannon has sold his wood saw to Henrici Bros.

A bell was purchased for the new school house and will be put up during holidays in order to have it ready when school takes up again.

Our school is progressing nicely under the management of Eva Moehnke.

Mr. Stevens and family are moving onto the Roberts' place opposite Mrs. Edwards.

ORANGE BLOSSOMS.

Union Hall.

Christmas has come and passed and all in this vicinity enjoyed it in their different ways.

L. P. Burns made a business trip to Portland last Tuesday.

Jack Webb and family spent Christmas with Mrs. Webb's parents. Mr. and Mrs. H. S. C. Phelps.

Miss Mollie Burns, of Portland, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Burns, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Thomas spent last Sunday at the residence of Peter McIntosh and family.

Misses Millie and Tillie Molzan, who have been working in Portland came home to spend the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Molzan.

E. Hilton, of Canby, visited his mother and brother one day last week.

Miss Mary Thomas visited relatives here last week.

Our school has closed for the holidays. The teacher, E. Snyder went home to spend the holidays with his mother.

Mrs. B. J. Helvey called on Mrs. J. H. Burns last Wednesday afternoon.

Johnnie McIntosh was the guest of Charlie Thomas one night last week.

John Thomas called on Joseph Peringer last Monday night.

John and George Helvey have contracted to furnish logs for the Sturgis Bros.' sawmill.

Frank Hilton took a load of poultry to Canby last Wednesday.

the same of J. F. Davidson.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore, of Molalla, made Mr. and Mrs. Wingfield a visit the past week.

The Christmas tree which was given at the South Methodist church was a grand success. One and many presents were received even if Santa did lose his reindeers.

Many young folks of Russelville attended the dance at Molalla Wednesday night.

We have had vacation this week which suited the pupils very much.

Mrs. E. Davidson is visiting at Quaker town this week.

People of this vicinity are having hard colds.

Maple Lane.

The Christmas tree at the Maple Lane school house was a grand success, about 150 people, old and young, participating. The program was excellent and reflects much credit on both teacher and pupils. Miss Rowen is an excellent manager, and the children one and all took an interest in making the event a success.

Mr. Henricks with his graphophone furnished some excellent music. William Beard made a few remarks appropriate for the occasion, and Mr. Gibbs acted the part of Old Santa Claus, I mean St. Nicholas, distributing candy and nuts, presents, gewgaws right and left. The tree also was finely trimmed and loaded with presents from parents, teacher and friends. There were over 200 presents, each one receiving a bag of candy and nuts. Jim Shelly received a bar of soap, which he mistook for tobacco, much to the chagrin and to the amusement of his friends. It was indeed a Merry, Merry Christmas. God bless the children. Amen.

Cordelia and Lulu Wiegand are spending the holidays with relatives at Salem.

Wm. Leeck is sick with Typhoid fever. Dr. B. Y. Giesy has charge of the case. Our saw mill is idle at present, owners are enjoying the holidays.

There is a very small amount of fall wheat sown.

Wheat is very scarce here.

T. A. Campan will build a large barn in the near future.

F. O. Seaton is assisting the Postmaster at Aurora.

Our telephone line is doing a good business. Two more wires will soon be put up.

Several of our residents are complaining of bad colds.

John has his sled ready for the first snow. Look out girls, that the sled is a "corker."

Geo. Hickerson, of Waitsburg, is visiting his old home at Needy this week.

Wilhoit.

News is scarce but mud is plentiful. Christmas was well celebrated here.

B. Wade and son are busy sawing wood.

A light snow fell in this section one day last week.

The dinner at G. W. Wylands was well attended Sunday last.

I wish to say to the Missouri town correspondent, that I have no desire to hide anything I do or say, and when I write an article, I am not ashamed to put my name to it, as he kept quiet through the busy season. We have not heard from him for nearly a year. I thought he had gone into a trance as did the hound and passed quietly to the happy hunting grounds. If he would attend more strictly to the business interests of Missouri town, and leave that of Wilhoit for Slim Jim. The two sections would wag with great harmony and we sincerely hope they will do so in the near future.

F. W. McLearn has a line of teamsters on the road between Oregon City and Wilhoit.

Molla was seen in this section one day last week.

Bert still lives on the mountain overlooking Rock, and says he is there to stay if he is cut out of the social circle.

William Grimm, who has been attending school at Forest Grove is home spending the holidays.

Ralph Slaughter has a new saddle horse.

Coon signs seems to be scarce, Clarence, but wildcats seems to be more plentiful and there is a bounty on their scalps.

James Russell, the bachelor blacksmith, of Russellville, was in this section one day last week looking for windows. I guess he found one as he was seen tripping the light fantastic toe at the dance a few days ago.

Consumption

Salt pork is a famous old-fashioned remedy for consumption. "Eat plenty of pork," was the advice to the consumptive 50 and 100 years ago.

Salt pork is good if a man can stomach it. The idea behind it is that fat is the food the consumptive needs most.

Scott's Emulsion is the modern method of feeding fat to the consumptive. Pork is too rough for sensitive stomachs. Scott's Emulsion is the most refined of fats, especially prepared for easy digestion.

Feeding him fat in this way, which is often the only way, is half the battle, but Scott's Emulsion does more than that. There is something about the combination of cod liver oil and hypophosphites in Scott's Emulsion that puts new life into the weak parts and has a special action on the diseased lungs.

A sample will be sent free upon request.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

The school in District No. 88 closed last Friday.

Ballard Looney, who went to Virginia a little over two years ago to get married, has returned to Oregon. After getting married he went to Texas, where he lived for several months, he said, "Oregon is good enough for him."

Henry Palmateer has nearly completed his barn, that he has been building for the past several weeks.

Mrs. W. H. Holden our worthy Sunday school Superintendent, who has run the Sunday school for the past two years, seems to continue to make it interesting for the young folks. Her heart is in her work, and she cannot be given too much praise for the good she has done here.

Stafford.

A light flurry of snow on the 24th.

John Wendt was taken to Oregon City Monday, from there he will go to the hospital to be treated.

Mrs. Mike Gross, of Oregon City is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. T. L. Turner.

John Turner drove a nail into his leg and is now unable to work.

Tunalatin Grange elected officers Saturday last.

Mrs. Barbara Moser is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Meolffe, of Portland.

Christmas was celebrated, many small Christmas trees and a large one at the Baptist church, with a very nice program.

Aurora.

All hail the New Year.

Christmas was very quiet here.

Geo. Ogleby and sons, Frank and Charles spent Christmas with relatives at Milwaukie.

BACKWOODS.

Wilhoit.

I once more write a few lines to let the readers of the Courier hear from this section.

Rain is present with us most all of the time.

Farmers have not sown much grain on account of the rain.

The rain is just the thing for the loggers.

Several companies are getting saw logs and some piling all of which is to be floated, so the more water the better.

Christmas is now a thing of the past. Mrs. Scott Carter gave a good dinner, and some of the oldest people in the neighborhood were present and had a good time eating good things and talking.

There will be a debate between Elder J. Moore of the church and Elder Starbuck of Portland, of the Seventh Day Adventist.

Debate to be held at the town of Molalla, commencing the 5th of January.
