WILLIAM BARLOW.

A PIONEER CITIZEN OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY.

Well Known, Better Liked, a Splendid Man.

William Barlow, of Barlow, this county, is one of the oldest citizens of the Willamette valley. He was born in Indiana on the 29th day of October, 1822, and at his last anniversary in October he was 80 years of age. Notwithstanding his extreme age he is yet hale and hearty and as active as many men of much fewer years. Mr. Barlow's father and family migrated to the Willamette valley in 1845, leaving Illinois on the 30th day of March of that year and arriving in Oregon City on the 25th day of December of that year. They crossed the plains with the old-fashioned ox team and caravan and braved the dangers of the Indians and the privations by the way. From that day until now Mr. Barlow has been a resident of Clackamas county.

Mr. Barlow says that the pleasantest summer he remembers to have spent in his entire life was the summer that he crossed the plains with the old ox team. The summer was long and beautiful, game was abundant and near at hand. They had plenty of good things to eat by the way. It was a long, delightful picnic from the time they left the prairies of Illinois until they reached the timbered country of the Willamette.

Mr. Barlow was united in marriage to Mrs. Martha Ann Allen on the 25th day of March, 1852. To this union three children were born, two of whom are now living, Cassius U. Barlow, a farmer living in this county, and Mary S. Barlow, who lives at home with her father. All of the years of his life Mr. Barlow has been a very active and energetic citizen. When he set up for himself in Clackamas county he had no property. He has been a farmer, storekeeper, trader, and has been remarkably successful in all of his undertakings and pursuits. A few years ago Mr. Barlow was one of the largest land owners in the county and was reckoned one of the county's wealthiest and most substantial citizens. In more recent years he has distributed his property among his children, so at his death the property will become theirs absolutely, and there will be nothing left behind for the lawyers to fight over.

Mr. Barlow in days gone by has taken an active interest in politics. One time years ago he was elected assessor of the county, and it took him just thirty days to make for the county one of the best assessments it has ever had. Later he was a county commissioner. It goes without saying that he made a good one. In the olden days he was a Whig, a Henry Clay Whig in politics. During and after the war of the rebellion Mr. Barlow was a Lincoln Republican and supported that party. Later he became and is now a staunch Democrat of the Bryan school. He is highly regarded by all who know him, loved by his children, appreciated by his friends, and is a hale "fellow well met" everywhere.

Mr. Barlow is in love with the Willamette valley. He has seen many countries, and says that this the best of all. The best country in which to make an easy, honest living. He has seen the valley peopled from the first; says there is no better people on earth than the people of Clackamas county, and no better spot on earth for a man to live and die.

The Grim Reaper.

Miss Oda Randall, niece of Tom P. Randall and well-known in this city, died Saturday morning at the St. Vincent hospital in Portland after having undergone a serious surgical operation. Miss Randall was born and raised in this city but had recently resided in Toledo, Oregon. She had been visiting friends in Oregon City just prior to going to the hospital in Portland. She had a wide circle of friends here. She was an accomplished musician and only 18 years old. The funeral was held Sunday at Toledo and the remains laid to rest in the cemetery at that place.

MANY THOUSANDS CURED OF CATARRH.

Remarkable Cures Made by Pe-ru-na North and South.

MISS BLANCHE MYERS

Miss Blanche Myers, 8120 Penn street, Kansas City, Mo., a society belle of that city writes:

"During each of the past four seasons I have caught a severe cold when suddenly chilled after an evening party, and a most unpleasant catarrh lasting for several weeks would be the result.

"Last winter my brother advised me to try Peruna, as one of his club friends had been cured of a bad case of catarrh by using it. He procured me a bottle and I was much pleased to find that one bottle cured me. I shall not dread colds any more so long as I can procure Peruna."—MISS BLANCHE MYERS.

Peruna cures catarrh wherever located, with the same surety and promptness. There are no substitutes for Peruna.

Miss Hattie Becker, secretary of the Goethe Club, of Racine, Wis., writes:

"A short time ago I got my feet wet, and a cold settled on my lungs which nothing seemed to remove. Our family physician tried extracts, powders and pills, but I kept getting worse until my brother advised me to try Peruna and purchased a bottle for me.

"It acted like a charm and in a week I was like my old self once more; in fact I felt stronger and had a better appetite than I have ever had before. Peruna will have a welcome place in our medicine chest, as the whole family believes in it."—Hattie Becker.

Peruna is an internal remedy—a scientific remedy for catarrh. It cures catarrh wherever located. Its cures last. Peruna gives strength by stopping waste.

Modern Instances.

When the summertime is over and the leaves have quit the trees. Then a melancholy hits you as you listen to the breeze,

For the goose-flesh then is present and you find its no joke

When the frost is on the windows and your overcoat's in soak.

And 'tis then your Summer wages you regretfully recall.

And the fun you had in blowing them is not comforting at all

When you shiver, blue and chilly, and you know you're dead, flat broke.

And the frost is on the windows and your overcoat's in soak.

Where are now the days of swelter and the nights so full of heat?

Where the underwear all gauzy and the Panama so neat?

Where are now the socks of openwork?—alas, it is no joke!

When the frost is on the windows and your overcoat's in soak.

You remember now with sorrow how you squandered all your dough,

When you have to dig up money for more coal each day or so,

And your heart is filled with sadness and your woe is hard to cloak

When the frost is on the windows and your overcoat's in soak.

Oh, there's nothing half so mournful as the wintry Wintertime,

When the ice gets on your whiskers and your hair is white rime,

When your pockets they are empty and your breath pours out like smoke,

And the frost is on the windows and your overcoat's in soak.

Mrs. Mary Cook, Pittsford, N. Y., also says:

"I was not very well for six years, paid many doctor bills, but never improved very much. Two years ago I was attacked with the grippe, which left me with a severe liver trouble. I gave up hope of ever recovering. Peruna cured me. I feel young again, and am gaining in flesh, as I was very emaciated. My own children are surprised in the great change in me when they come to visit me. We have made your Peruna our household remedy."—Mrs. Mary Cook.

Mrs. Mary Cook.

Congressman H. Henry Powers of Vermont, writes from Morrisville, Vt.: "Peruna I have used in my family with success. I can recommend it as an excellent family remedy, and very good for coughs, colds and catarrhal affections."—H. Henry Powers.

Hon. John H. Gear, United States Senator from Iowa, writes:

"Peruna I can recommend to all as a very good tonic, and particularly good as a remedy for catarrh."—John H. Gear. Senator Gear's home address is Burlington, Iowa.

Mr. O. Fisher, 1861 Lexington avenue, New York City, writes:

"I had catarrh and was troubled with a constant dropping from the back part of the nose into the throat, and a horrible breath. Also severe hoarseness and yellow discharge from the nose; but I haven't the slightest trouble now of those complaints, and I honestly and conscientiously state that I am cured of catarrh of the nose and throat.

"If there is anyway I can state it more positively I am only too glad to do so, and I am willing, very willing, to lend any aid in my power in helping you to induce sufferers to give Peruna a trial.

"My wife is also taking Peruna, and it is helping her wonderfully. She has improved considerably since taking Peruna. She feels fifty per cent better than she has in years, for all of which I am very thankful, as she was extremely nervous, had systemic catarrh, and thin blood."—O. Fisher.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

G. A. Ferrin, Helena, Mont. I wish to thank you for my relief. I was suffering agonies from piles and was taking morphine to relieve me, when, on the advice of a friend, I procured a bottle of your Ferrin's Pile Specific and took a table-spoonful at night and another in the morning.
