DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE
MEETING.

LAYING PLANS FOR THE FUTURE AND MAKING
READY FOR THE
NEXT GREAT
FIGHT.

Democratic Harmony the Watch Word and the Outlook for the Future Glorious.

The Democratic County Central Committee met at the hall of the Fire Board on last Friday and were in session the biggest part of the day. About twenty committees representing as many districts were present. Speeches were made by Colonel R. A. Miller, Judge William Galloway, James P. Lovett, W.
H. Vaughan, Longstreet Vaughan, James H. Thompson and many other. A spirit of harmony prevailed. The general idea was to get together, forget past differences, "Let the past be dead and buried" and turn the face of the party to the future. Committees were appointed to manage finances, literature and other advertising matter and a general propaganda of education is to be begun at once to win back the place in Clackamas county lost in the years gone by by dissension and party differences. The "Gold bug" and "Free Silver" Democrat the "Populist" and the "Socialist" Democrats were each and all represented at the meeting, and it looks like there is a good "time coming" for the party in this part of the earth.
The Democratic party was promised heartily support in all things and its editor encouraged to go on with the good work.
It was the consensus of opinion that Clackamas county is a Democratic county and that a clean manly fight in 1904 with unity and confidence restored would demonstrate that fact. The committee adjourned to the call of the chairman and it is understood that another meeting will be called for the near future.

DEMOCRATIC LITERATURE.

THE PLATFORM TEXT BOOK AND THE CONSTITU-TION.

The Declaration of Independence and Party Platforms.

Through the kindness of Uncle "Billy" Vaughan, of Molalla, this office has been furnished with one hundred copies of the Platform text book. We desire to hand them out to parties who desire to inform themselves on the political issues of the day. The little book contains all the party platforms, past and present the Constitution of the United States, and the Declaration of Independence.
It is a veritable gold mine of information. It is Democratic and its reading will help one to be a better citizen as well as a better Democrat. The first persons who come will get these copies.
Good Democratic literature makes good Democrats. Much reading makes a full man as well as a wise man.

LEGISLATURE IS IN SESSION.

Brownell Wins For President of the Senate.

Democratic Governor Inaugurated and Legislation in Full Swing.

Many Matters of Importance to be Passed on During the Forty Days' Session of the Body.

SALEM, Jan. 14, 1903.

The Oregon Legislature convened last Monday. It was supposed by the two factions of the Republican party that the organizations of both houses, had been affected in Portland before the members reached here, but this proved to be a mistake when the caucus was held. The two factions in the Senate were so closely divided that it was anybody's fight until after some 19 ballots had been taken for President of the Senate. The vote all this time standing 11 for Brownell of Clackamas, and 11 for Smith of Multnomah. It was a plain line-up between the Fulton and anti-Fulton factions. After a recess Monday noon the Brownell faction won on the first ballot by one vote. After this contest, the remainder of the state was easily agreed upon. It is reported that Jonathan Bourne fixed matters. It is certain that Mr. Brownell was his choice, and he was his strong supporter from the first to the last. The result, while it defeated the anti-Fulton candidate, cannot be interpreted as victory for the gentlemen from Astoria in his senatorial aspirations, as it is well known that Bourne is in the field for other game.

In the House the contest was equally close and spirited, the caucus being in session from morning until 3 o'clock in the afternoon, the vote standing about equally divided between Davey, of Marion, Eddy of Tillamook, and Harris, of Lane. By a compromise between the Eddy supporters and Harris, the former withdrew finally, which withdrawal was followed by Davey, thus making Harris' election unanimous. On the convening of the Senate, Brownell received the entire republican vote, excepting Marsters, of Douglas, who did not vote. Harris received the entire republican vote in the House. The Democrats in the Senate cast their votes for Senator Wade, of Union, and in the House for Bilyeu of Linn. The list for the other officers in both houses must have been prepared in advance of its election of the presiding officers, as there was no further delay in the organization. Both Houses adjourned Monday, the senate until Tuesday morning and the House until Tuesday afternoon, out of respect to the death of Congressman Thomas H. Tongue.

On Tuesday a large number of resolutions, memorials and bills were introduced in both houses. The Portland charter bill was put through the house Tuesday afternoon and reached the senate this morning, and in less than 15 minutes was passed under suspension of the rules, and will be the first act to receive the signature of Gov. Geo. E.
Chamberlain. The other bill of importance which has reached a third reading, is the Centennial appropriation bill. It will have but slight opposition in the senate.

Both houses met in joint convention at 11 o'clock to-day and canvassed the vote cast at the last election for governor. The result gave Hon. Geo. E.
Chamberlain 246 plurality, and he was declared duly elected. This afternoon Governor Geer delivered his message.

The oath of office was administered to Mr. Chamberlain, who then read his inaugural address. It is a lengthy document, but full of sound and able arguments.

The first official act of the new governor was the signing of the commission of John Manning as his successor as prosecuting attorney of Multnomah county.

Governor Chamberlain's mother, over 83 years of age, was present at the inauguration, having come all the way from the East. She is a fine old type of mothers, and seems to take a justifiable pride and fully appreciates the high estimation in which her son is held in his adopted state.

W. A. Gatens, of Portland, will be the governor's private secretary. He is honest, competent, and a native son of Oregon, and a sound democrat.

Mrs. Shelton, who has for years been in the governor's law office, will be his stenographer. She is a very competent lady, and respected by a large circle of friends.

Speaker Harris will make a good presiding officer, and so will President rownell.

A Cure for Lumbago.

W. C. Williamson, of Amherst, Va., says: "For more than a year I suffered from lumbago. I finally tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me entire relief, which all other remedies had failed to do. Sold by Geo. A. Harding."

CIRCUIT COURT.

GRINDING OUT JUSTICE TO

EVIL DOERS.

Abundant Crop of Grass Widows and Grass Widowers for 1903.

The adjourned term of the Clackamas county circuit court, which convened at the court court house in this city on Monday of last week, with Judge Mc-Bride in the chair, is still in session and will likely continue in session for several days longer. Many small suits of a civil nature have come before the court and been settled. The chief work of the court during the present term has been in handing down divorce decrees, and about thirty have already been granted.
The crop of 1903 grass widows and grass widowers is unusually large and the market will be overstocked.

The commissioners' court, which adjourned last week on account of the illness of one of its members, resumed its sittings Wednesday, and the names of jurors for 1903 were drawn. The court then adjourned.
