McALLEN & McDONNELL

THIRD AND MORRISON STS. PORTLAND, OREGON

The annual dance of the Columbia Hook and Ladder Co. will be given this year on the 21st, as Washington's birthday falls on Sunday. The committee has secured Evers's full orchestra of Portland, which will furnish the music for the occasion.

The topics at the Congregational church next Sunday will be "Harmonious Increase," in the morning, and "Some Improper Positions from which Men View Jesus Christ," in the evening. Special musical features will be added to the usual program.

Rev. Craig, of the Southern Methodist church, will not hold his usual Sunday service at the Ely Methodist church on next Sunday. At the present time he is detained in the country on account of serious illness, and his regular appointments will be suspended until his recovery.

The Saturday Club of the Congregational church hereby announces that they have secured Dr. House to give three of his illustrated lectures at the church on the 3rd, 10th and 17th of February. These are the best of a longer series that are being given in Portland with such great success.

H. E. Cross, manager of the Willamette Valley Chautauque Association, which is held at Gladstone, left Monday evening for San Francisco, to meet the manager of the Pacific Coast Chautauque, for the purpose of agreeing on talent for this year's assembly. He will be gone about a week.

There was a false alarm of fire Monday morning about 7 o'clock. The fire department was called out to put out a fire at the home of W. H. H. Sampson, across the street from the court house, but their services were not needed. The fire was in a chimney and no damage was done.

A pleasant surprise party was given to Mrs. January by Mrs. Oglesby and a number of friends last Monday evening, being the anniversary of Mrs. January's twenty-second birthday. The evening was spent in music and games, ending with refreshments. All present expressed the wish that Mrs. January may live to enjoy many such anniversaries.

Two juries were drawn Thursday morning by the circuit court. The names of the first are: Jas. Shelley, J. A. Bradley, A. N. Munsey, J. A. Tuft, W. H. Young, W. J. Rauch, O. F. Jones, E. C. Maddock, N. W. Robbins, Wheeler Church, John Button and Pat Harris. The second jury is a special venire and composed of the following citizens: T. P. Randall, S. G. Buford, S. B. Cardiff, O. C. Babcock, E. Parker, E. H. Cooper, Frank Redner, John Gleason, E. L. Johnson, John Noble and H. W. Trembath.

W. I. Rowan and Miss Emma Davis were quietly married at the home of the bride in this city Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. J. H. Beaven of the Baptist church. Only a few of the most intimate friends of the contracting parties were present to witness the ceremony. The groom is a well-known young business man of this city, having made his home here for the past eight years and having but recently engaged in the restaurant business. The bride is a very charming young lady, and is quite well and favorably known. They are at home to their friends at Billy Rowan's restaurant on Main street.

Hon. Chas. D. Latourette has returned home from a month's trip through the Eastern States, where he has been seeking to interest capital in his new electric railway. Mr. Latourette gives it out that the road will certainly be built the coming summer. Mr. Latourette's visit to the East was a very pleasant one. On Christmas day he was the guest of old kinsfolk at Fenton, Michigan, and while East he visited kinspeople in New York and Boston. Mr. Latourette expresses himself as being very glad to get back to the Willamette valley. All over the East he found snow and sleet, trains delayed and commerce tied up by the vigorous condition of winter. Returning to his home in the valley he finds spring-like weather prevailing and balmy breezes blowing. He says there is no place in the world like Oregon, and no place in Oregon like the Willamette valley and Oregon City. Mr. Latourette is loyal to his own city.

CLAIMS ANOTHER PROMINENT CITIZEN.

William K. Roberts, of Beaver Creek, Called to His Last Account—An Old Pioneer and an Excellent Man.

There is an Angel, whose name is Death,
And with his sickle keen,
He reaps the bearded grain at a breath,
And the flowers that grow between.

As the result of a fall received several months ago, William K. Roberts, of Beaver creek, died at his home last Thursday, the 8th inst. The deceased was an old pioneer of Clackamas county, having come here in his early youth and located at Beaver creek in 1850. He has lived there ever since and followed farming as a vocation. He has prospered and leaves a comfortable estate to his wife and children.

At the time of his death he was 68 years old. He was a native of Wales, and possessed all the sterling qualities of that hardy race in the North of England. He was a member of the Welsh branch of the Presbyterian church and lived up to its creed.

A wife and five children are left to mourn his demise. Sunday the funeral services were conducted at the Presbyterian church at Beaver creek in the presence of a very large crowd of sorrowing friends and relatives by the Rev. Jones, of Oswego, after which the remains were laid to rest in the church yard cemetery to await the coming of the resurrection morn.

If Unwell,

Try a 50c bottle of Herrine, notice the improvement speedily effected in your appetite, energy, strength and vigor. Watch how it brightens the spirits, gives freedom from indigestion and debility! Isaac Story, Avo, Mo., writes, Sept. 10, 1900: "I was in bad health, I had stomach trouble for 12 months, also dumb chills. Dr. J. W. Mory prescribed HERRINE, it cured me in two weeks. I cannot recommend it too highly; it will do all you claim for it. Sold by Charman & Co., City Drug Store, Oregon City, Oregon."

School Meeting.

The legal voters of school district, No. 62, Oregon City, will bear in mind that, in accordance with notices duly posted, there will be a school meeting held on Monday, the 19th day of January, 1903, at the hour 7:30 o'clock, p. m., in the county court room, for the purpose of levying a tax to raise a fund for paying the expenses of the district for the ensuing year, and considering the question of building an addition to the Eastham school building.
