

SAFER AND BETTER

Never send money by mail. A bank draft is always safer; it is also better in other ways. We sell the drafts; they are good throughout the U. S. and Canada. Our charges are very low.

The Bank of Oregon City - Oregon City, Oregon

Correspondence

Maple Lane.

Three more farms in our burg have changed hands. Mr. Shortridge and John Dixon sold their ranches to two families from Gresham. Mr. Shortridge thinks of locating here again. Mrs. Burkhardt has purchased the place recently vacated by Horace Williams, who has moved to Ely.

Easter flowers are in bloom, and fall grain is looking better after these few days of warm weather.

Miss Mattie Nos. of Oregon City, visited her uncle, G. F. Gibbs and family Sunday.

Miss Jessie Jackson is working in town.

Mr. Irvin has moved his family to a farm on the other side of the creek.

PANSY BLOSSOM.

Stafford.

The weather is magnificent—balmy and springlike with an occasional flurry of snow.

Grain is spreading its green mantle over the fall-sown fields.

Spuds that have not been dug are sprouting, and it looks as though spuds would "come up" yet.

Boards are better than usual for this season of the year.

The wood camps are on the boom.

Hay is in good demand at a reasonable figure.

Grass on the range is more backward than it has been for many years.

Spring flowers are commencing to bloom.

Most of the stock has wintered in an exceptionally good condition.

Mr. Pomparein left Sunday for the Dakotas, where he will be absent a fortnight. Financial matters called him there.

J. Q. Gage and family will leave in a few days for St. Helens. Mr. Gage will go into the sawmill business there.

Mr. and Mrs. Page and son, Henry, are visiting with Mrs. Gage. They hail from Macleay.

George Cline is employed by Fred Baker for five months at $40 per month.

The English services at the Baptist church have been well attended. That feature is one of the best drawing cards that has been turned for many months.

May the good work go on.

Reutter and sons have the post holes dug along the east side of their showy little farm, and in a few days a new board fence will take the place of the old rails that were put there in the early 60s.

The high winds of last week leveled some fences and demolished a few old buildings. The south end of the Weed barn was blown away, and the south end of the Miles barn on the Hayes farm was blown in. Several head of cattle were in the barn at the time, but by dint of good fortune none were injured.

George, brother of John Hohlswath, arrived from Dakota last week. He reports the snow six feet deep when he left there.

New paint has put G. Moser's residence and windmill tower to the front.

Hon. E. A. Moses, of Portland, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. M. A. Gage.

Wedding bells—harken! They sound the near offing so sweet and clear. Tune up your buzz, boys, for the second event in a lifetime will soon come to pass.

School grinds merrily on with it's two scores and ten pupils in daily attendance.

Henry Sebata has again gone into onion raising. He will eventually pay the mortgage on his farm with his onion crops.

Another two weeks, then away to the woods with hook and line to angle for the speckled beauties.

New Era.

John Weismandle went to Portland Sunday and returned Monday.

Miss Maggie Maloy visited Miss A. Keif of Oregon City over Sunday.

August Bremer and Joe Reif are grading the street, south from the school house.

Mark Syster of Oregon City visited his parents at this place Sunday.

Fred Burgoyne and Miss Obrock, of Portland, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Burgoyne.

Mike Maloy is laid up with a lame knee.

Mr. Shockley and friend of Canby was in town Sunday afternoon.

Wm Irvin, of Aurora, passed through our street Saturday with a band of Angora goats.

Edd Bradth returned Sunday morning from Jackson county, where he has taken a fine timber claim.

Blaine White, of Canby, has a claim joining Mr. Bradth's.

Geo. Randall Jr. returned to Salem Sunday to resume his studies at the University.

Al Gregory, of Hog Hollow, was seen on our streets Sunday evening.

Misses Katie and Laura Newbury spent Saturday and Sunday in Portland.

Mr. McArthur is getting along first-rate under the care of his daughter, Mrs. Geo. Brown. He is able to sit up part of the time. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Syster accompanied grandma, Reynolds to Montague California.

Calvin Koehler spent Monday night with Wilbur Newbury.

Mrs. Spulak and Mrs. Mead attended Kirk Rebecca Lodge of Canby Tuesday evening.

Redland.

At road meeting Wednesday night, ten residents raised $520 toward improving the Abernethy and Viola road.

A. Kershem, Jas Fullam, Wm Stone and W. H. Bonney heading the list at $100 each. The committee has at this time $1280 signed. It is up to Oregon City people now as to whether this road shall be completed or not. With a good road to the city and free rural delivery and the best and cheapest farming land in the state, Redland will make its influence felt in the near future. "Keep your eye on Redland."

Rev. Hatch will preach his farewell sermon at Bethel Presbyterian church 29 inst.

There is a scarce of small pox in this place, as several have been exposed. Several children have been kept out of school from Viola on that account.

Wm. Stone is getting out timbers for a large barn. Mr. Stone is one of Redlands pillars' always taking a lead in anything that is for building up of the community.

Ed Morgan has gone to California to work in the mines until harvest time.

Mr. Evans is thinking of going to California in the near future.

Mrs. Lash has decided to stay on the place while Mr. Lash works in Portland.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Fisher is very sick with pneumonia.

Mr. Editor, if the editor of the Astoria Herald is the same man that managed the Enterprise five years ago, you will do well to consider the source it comes from and let it go at that. I think your readers will agree with me, that at that time the Enterprise conducted the dirtiest campaign in the history of the county. "Curtis" of Brownell fame is possibly one and the same.

The fall wheat has suffered considerably owing to freezing. It is estimated at about 60 per cent of the crop at present.

Mr. Storm's sister-in-law arrived from the East last week.

A gentleman from Oregon City is cruising the timber along Clear Creek with a view of organizing a company to float logs or build a line up the creek.

Frank Sprague is doing some breaking for O. A. Hollisworth.

L. F.

Canby.

George Koehler made a business trip to Oregon City Wednesday.

Mr. Melvin, of Barlow, was in town Friday.

Mr. Mundorff and Mrs. Boroughs went to Oregon City Friday.

Mr. Lehman, of Milwaukie, was calling on old friends and acquaintances in school district No. 18 Friday.

B. H. White and Ed Bradth returned from Southern Oregon Saturday.

Mrs. Eva Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Terry, of Canby, was buried in Portland last Wednesday. Mrs. Henry's death resulted from a burn received by falling on a lighted lamp during a fainting spell caused, it is said by gas taken for painless extraction of teeth. Mr. and Mrs. Terry have the sincere sympathy of all their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Rogers, of Portland, were in Canby Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Evans visited Mr. and Mrs. George Knight Sunday.

Claude Hampton was shaking hands with old friends Sunday.

Miss Kate Hampton returned from Portland Saturday night.

Grant White visited relatives in Canby last week.

Mrs. Klinger visited friends at Mackeburg last week.

Messrs. Jack Howard, Bates, Charles Boroughs, A. Koehler, Adam Knight, Cal Koehler, Pruner, Frede, Otto Evans, McIntosh, Dr. Dedman went to Needy to assist in the initiation of candidates into the I. O. O. F. All report a good time.

Edith Hobart, of Marquam, Mrs. Phil Tucker and John Daly, of Mackeburg, were in town Saturday.

School commenced again Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Winches as teachers.

Miss Ethel Terry and Mr. Henry, of Portland, visited Mr. Terry Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Will, of Aurora, were in Canby Monday.

Miss Emma Evans is very sick with tonsillitis, but at last report she is improving.

John Clausson died Sunday at his residence near Canby. The cause of his death was cancer. Mr. Clausson leaves a widow and a large family.

Mr. Gilbertson has returned from a visit to the East.

Mr. Bradth won the gold ring raffled off at the drug store.

Mr. Bair was a Portland visitor Monday.

Thomas Blanchard, Sr., and wife visited Canby Tuesday.

Change is at a premium in Canby just after the pay car comes in. Everybody has 20's to change. Why doesn't some capitalist start a bank here. This is the second largest city in Clackamas county and can easily make enough banking to do a good business.

Mr. St. Patrick was in town celebrating Tuesday. The jolly patron saint is well represented by his chosen nationality here.

Beaver Lake.

At the present writing Beaver Lake is nearly white washed with two inches of snow.

George Slaughter lost a valuable mule one day last week.

Miss Tessa Larkins, of Marquam, our ex-school mistress was visiting in this section a few days ago.

W. E. Grim a well known and highly respected young man of this section who has been attending school at Forest Grove is now home visiting his parents by request. He delivered a lecture on temperance at the Beaver Lake school house Sunday last to a score of old schoolmates and friends. He is an able speaker and made many hitting remarks.

Francis Mann has a new hunting dog the Hooters will have to set high and the bucks run fast now.

John Greshong is the oldest pioneer in this section. He has spent over a half a century in Oregon.

Ralph Slaughter a well know young man of this burg was out looking for work a few days ago but returned with out a job.

BERT.

Mulino.

Wm Casedy is not very well at present.

Miss Kate Lyons is working for Mrs. Barclay.

Robert Shubel was in our midst last week.

Bertie Lyons who went to Cathlamet a few week ago has returned.

F. M. Manning left here some time ago and has started a store on the Columbia river. He is progressing nicely. Mrs. Manning is attending the store here.

Chas. Boynton made a horse trade with Bob Snodgrass a few days ago.

Wm Buckner was in our burg last week hunting his horses which had strayed away. He found them Thursday.

Mr. Carlson is visiting his daughter and family, Mrs. F. Erickson.

Mrs. Geo. Force is at Vancouver at present. Mr. Force intends to make his future home there as they have sold their property here.

Chas. and Ida Boynton were visiting at Woodburne last week.

Frank Manning is at home suffering with what he thought to be a felon on his hand.

We are glad to see Tommy's pleasant smile back home again.

Perhaps we should have spoken last week, but better late than never. So lengthy we were greatly honored by your presence at the grand affair of the season the entertainment. We didn't exactly mean to give you the mitten, but the glove was what took the cake. How about it? Has not your girl got her new spring hat yet? Well come again.

Mr. Erickson is on the sick list.

Cage the woodchuck Dodge the lion, Pen up the lamb; For the baby elephants is loose. And I've got 'em back to Dixie.

SNIDER.

Micksburg.

We are having Webfoot weather again and farmers are taking another rest after doing some plowing and sowing.

The seven Hepler sisters took dinner at the Scramlin home Saturday. Their names are as follows: Mrs. Kate Law and Mrs. Ester Harris, of Iowa; Mrs. Maggie Riggs and daughter, of Portland; Mrs. May Johnson, of Washington; Mrs. Maud Sutherland, of Hood River; Mrs. Rebecca Morris, of this place. A sumptuous dinner was served, and a rejuvenating time was enjoyed by all present.

Several farmers of this place went to Oregon City last week to pay their taxes, taking advantage of the three per cent discount.

A very pretty wedding took place on the 11th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brusck, the contracting parties being Frank Brusck and Miss Anna Walch. Rev. Schoenberg performed the marriage ceremony. A large number of invited guests were present. Numerous and valuable gifts were received by the young couple. The bride is one of the most popular and highly esteemed young ladies of this place, while the groom is one of our most enterprising young farmers, who can boast of a host of friends and no enemies. May their joys be many.

Boys who make Money after School Hours

Over 3000 Boys in various parts of the country are making money in their spare time selling The Saturday Evening Post. Some make as much as $10.00 and $15.00 a week. Any boy who reads this can do the same.

IN A DAINTY little booklet, which we will send to any boy free, the most successful of our boy agents tell in their own way just how they have made a success of selling

The Saturday Evening Post

There are many stories of real business tact. Pictures of the boys are given. Send for this booklet and we will forward with it full information how you can begin this work. No money required to start. We will send Ten Copies of the magazine the first week free. Write to-day.

The Curtis Publishing Company
469 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Fred Walsh is boarding over in Russia and all indications show that he will soon inherit the throne.

Fred Lamour is talking of going to Eastern Oregon soon.

L. Heinz, who has been working up near Heper, has returned home. He is now on the sick list, and is talking of going to Arizona accompanied by his brother, Will.

HECTOR.

NOT A RELIEF BUT A CURE

Price now $1.00

There has never been a remedy that actually cured piles—until this one was discovered by Dr. Perrin. There is not a person who suffers from this distressing disease who is not willing to pay $1.00 to have the cause removed permanently. Immediate results—and you take it, that's all.

PERRIN'S PILE SPECIFIC

A Grouchy Husband

Will recover his Sweet disposition if these are on the breakfast table:

Our justly celebrated New York Self-Raising Buckwheat Flour.
Our Guaranteed Strictly Pure Maple Syrup.
Our Celebrated White House Coffee in 1 and 2 pound cans.

Then for Dinner
Take a full line of "Preferred Stock" canned Vegetables and Fruits.

But Why Enumerate
Let us take the contract of keeping your family in good humor with our dainty viands.

A. Robertson,
The 7th Street Grocer.

WILLAMETTE GROCERY

MILES & MCGLASHAN, PROPS.
OREGON CITY, OREGON

- 5 Cents
- Can Griffin Baked Beans
- 25 Cents
- 3 Cans Fine Pink Salmon
- 75 Cents
- 20 Bars Good Soap
- 95 Cents
- 2 Cans Best Table Syrup
- 25 Cents
- 2 Pounds Good Coffee
- 10 Cents
- 5 Pound Pkg. Perfection Salt
- 10 Cents
- Jar Eddy's Mustard, very fine
- 25 Cents
- 3 Packages Seeded Raisins

Palmistry Clairvoyance

MRS. GRIFFITH

The Celebrated Palmist and Clairvoyant

Has arrived in Oregon it y and is now located at the

Electric Hotel Parlors, 3 and 4

Where she can be consulted on all affairs of life. No matter what your trouble is she can help you. Every one is invited to call on this gifted Medium and test for themselves. Her fee is within the reach of all. Palmistry taught in the most scientific way, Hypnotism taught and Medministic persons developed.

J. W. COLE, Fine Whiskies and Cigars

All goods bought in bond. Purity and quality guaranteed

SOME FAMOUS OLD BRANDS

James E. Pepper, Kentucky Bourbon
Old Sam Harris Kentucky Bourbon
Old Roxbury Rye

Cor. Railroad Ave. and Main St.

Bernard's O.K. Tent Show

This is not not a bad big show, but a good little one. Not the largest show on earth, but some of the best performers

OUR STAR—ETHELE—OUR STAR

The greatest living Exponent of her art. After seeing her the most skeptical are satisfied. The Phenomenon of the 20th Century

SYD and HARRY

Midget Performers

One of the Principal Attractions at Woodward's Pavilion, San Francisco

BERNARD FAMILY

2 - Juvenile Acrobats - 4

Bernard's Troupe of trained canines, 4 in number.

The New Zealand Trained Horses, Tapau and Gypsey, acknowledged by press and public to be second to none.

The Fairy Ponies Emerald and Molly, the children's delight

Monday, March 23rd

At Top of Seventh Street Steps

Doors open at 7:30 Performance at 8:15

POPULAR PRICES

READ THIS

- Good Laundry Soap, 8 bars, 25 cents
- Good Table Syrup 1-2 gallon can, 25 cents
- Washing Powder 1 pound, 5 cents
- Good Roast Coffee 2 pounds, 25 cents
- Good Green Coffee 2 pounds, 25 cents
- Yosemite Coffee per package, 11 cents
- Soperla, same as Sapolio 6 bars, 25 cents
- English Breakfast Tea 1 pound, 30 cents
- Lemon and Vanilla Extracts, bring bot., 1 ounce, 5 cents
- Rex Lye 3 cans, 25 cents
- Ground Spices, bulk 1 pound, 25 cents
- Liquid Blueing 1 bottle, 5 cents
- Wheat Flakes 7 1-2 pounds, 25 cents
- Good Maple Syrup 1 quart, 25 cents

We trade for Farm Produce and Shingles.

THE RED FRONT

GEO. T. HOWARD, Prop.
Court House Block, Oregon City, Oregon

Tompson's Bargain Store

Just opened, with a brand new stock of dry goods, notions, furnishings, shoes, and kitchen ware

At Very Close Prices

Located next door to Huntley's