PERSONALS

Hon. J. B. Dimick, of Hubbard, was in Oregon City for a short time Tuesday evening.

W. R. Garrett, of Meadowbrook, was in Oregon City on Tuesday and paid the Courier office a very pleasant call. Mr. Garrett is a "Democrat died in the wool."

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Newkirkner, who went to California about a year ago for their health, returned the middle of the week and are now the guests of friends in the Redland neighborhood.

W. H. Moore, of Williamstown, Kentucky who has been in Oregon City taking a look at the country, left on the overland on Wednesday for Southern California. He may or may not return to Oregon. All will depend upon the impression that country makes upon him and the business opportunities that are in prospect.

George Knight, Canby's potato broker, and one of her best citizens, was in Oregon City Tuesday on business. Mr. Knight says he still has on hand a large part of the last year's crop. The crop at the present time is not selling at as good figures as it ought but will probably look up a little when the planting season begins.

A. B. Kammerer, one of the prominent and influential farmers from the Molalla bottoms, was in Oregon City Tuesday and paid the Courier a pleasant visit. Mr. Kammerer leaves this week for LaGrande, in Eastern Oregon with his family where he will make his future home. His son has been living in that part of the world for several months.

A. T. Cochran, of Hubbard, who has been visiting his brother in Pennsylvania for the last two months, returned to his Oregon home some few days ago. Mr. Cochran says that everything in the older parts of the East are prosperous and that business is good; but that the winter has been exceedingly severe and that there has been much suffering among the poor people of that part of the country. Mr. Cochran is better pleased with Oregon than ever before since his return from the East.

John Eckerson, one of the prominent citizens of Canby, was in Oregon City Monday attending to some important business matters. Mr. Eckerson is an old citizen of Clackamas county. He says that he has been here long enough to see the tax rate rise from 14 mills to 32 and the end is not yet. He has also been a Republican all of his life, but has recently come to the conclusion that there is "Something rotten in Denmark" and is going to see what is the matter with the G. O. P. He is a delegate to the Brownell convention next Saturday and of course will vote for IT.

John Stamp formerly of Withoit, this county more recently of Lewisville, Washington where he has been engaged as an engineer, was in Oregon City on business and pleasure on Thursday. Mr. Stamp lately has been cruising timber in Western Washington right out on the coast. He has cruised out some very valuable claims mostly of red cedar and spruce, running in cedar alone three million feet to the claim. When he returns to Washington he will go to work for Larabee, Terrell & Co., in their big saw mill.

Hot Stuff.

The hottest thing that has been in Oregon City since the "Woods burnt" was the meeting of the Firemen at their annual banquet on Wednesday evening. It is the first time the firemen have ever gotten together when no water was used.

New line of shirt waists at the Red Front.

Beauty and Strength.

Are desirable. You are strong and vigorous, when your blood is pure. Many—nay, most—women, fail to properly digest their food, and so become pale, sickly, thin and weak, while the brightness, freshness and beauty of the skin and complexion, depart. Remedy this unpleasant evil, by eating non-heating food, and taking a small dose of Herbine after each meal, to digest what you have eaten. 50c at Chasman & Co.

Team for Sale.

I have for sale a good team of young horses, also an excellent farm wagon that has been used but little and an Empire binder as good as new. Here is a chance to get bargains at once.

E. AUSTIN, Liberal, Ore.

Good for Rheumatism.

Last fall I was taken with a very severe attack of muscular rheumatism which caused me great pain and annoyance. After trying several prescriptions and rheumatic cures, I decided to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I had seen advertised in the South Jerseyman. After two applications of this Remedy I was much better, and after using one bottle, was completely cured.—Salhe Harris, Salem, N. J. For sale by G. A. Harding.

J. H. LaPearl's Reaping the Harvest was played at the opera house in Oregon City Tuesday evening. There were so many other attractions on the bills that night that the show drew but a slim audience, but those who did go were well repaid for their trouble, as the show was without doubt one of the best that has appeared on the local stage for a good long time. The characters were well cast, and, notwithstanding the fact that a show company plays under many difficulties when playing to empty benches, those connected with the show went through with their respective parts in a manner that was highly creditable. The show is filling a week's engagement at Cordray's playhouse in Portland.

Are You Using Cotton Seed Oil?

There are so many so called "Olive Oils" on the market now—days sold in Italian and French cans with Italy and France stamped thereon, that it is likely to cause a prospective customer to hesitate when he is offered a whole gallon of for say $1.25 to $1.50. One who has had occasion to study this oil business more or less, well knows that it is utterly impossible to get OLIVE OIL at such prices. It is true, cotton seed is not at all bad in salads; but if we MUST use it instead of the real Olive, why not call it by its own name and give for it about what it is worth—We sell that kind at $1.00 per gallon.

There is so much humbug and jibbery about olive oils that we have recently added to our stock of bulk oil a supply of the

in gallon cans,

Maltese Cross Olive Oil at 4.00 gal.
The same thing in qt. bottles 1.26

The same thing in quart bottles at $1.25 per gal.

A second grade, and it is only second to Maltese Cross at $2.75 gal. Pint bottles at 50c.

We will be glad to supply any of our customers with a sample of any of our Olive Oils and take chances on future orders.

While on this subject we might mention many household drugs which you are probably unknowingly paying too much for the quality obtained. For instance, Cream Tartar, Bicarbonate of Soda, Borax, Saltpetre and Spice. Why not buy them of us and know you are getting chemically pure articles.
