ON SCHEDULE TIME

THE BROWNELL CONVENTION COMPLETES ITS DELIBERATIONS.

The Seventeen Republicans Delegate Directed to Vote For the Senator From Start to Finish.

The Republican convention held in Oregon City on last Saturday to name seventeen delegates to the first Republican district convention at Eugene on the Thursday, April 9th., to nominate a successor to ex-congressman Tongue, was a live-up-to-date affair. In some senses of the word it was a Brownell convention, in others it was not. While the convention endorsed the candidacy of the Senator from the county of Clackamas they did it in a half hearted, not care manner that indicated that at heart the delegates cared little for the manipulator of the Republican politics of the county. In fact the endorsement of Brownell at all was understood to mean nothing, that he had no show to get the nomination and the delegates would not agree to go with him for any other man and in the event that he can't get the nomination reserved the right to vote for whom they pleased.

Lord Brownell's speech to the convention was a flat failure. The delegates did not want to hear and fired questions of a nature that were cutting into him so fast that for a few minutes he lost his bearing and drifted helplessly with the noise and the crowd.

In fact it is the general belief of all those present that the convention on Saturday was the beginning of the setting of Brownell's sun.

The convention was called to order by J. U. Campbell the secretary of the County Central Committee and by him its purpose and intentions were stated. Charles Miller of Willamette was elected chairman of the meeting and presided with all of the dignity he could summon. He could have presided with equal dignity over a disturbed bunch of bumble bees.

The tide for a time came in pretty wild and the waves ran high but Miller sat impassible through it all, trying his best to keep in the middle of the road.

Tom P. Randall was the secretary of the meeting. He looked entirely too respectable for the high position he was occupying. He appeared to an outsider like a Sunday school teacher doing a little missionary work with the heathen.

The delegates to the Eugene convention were elected by ballot each individual member of the convention casting his vote as he saw fit as Mayor Dimick said. A printed ticket had been prepared, not "fixed" as was explained by the Mayor. The printed ticket carried about 50 names and it was agreed that it should be used as an official ballot. After the wheels of the machinery had been properly greased the delegates got down to their knitting and began to vote. It took nearly two hours to cast the vote and count it. The seventeen delegates receiving the highest number of votes were declared elected. The following is the complete list: James Dickey, Wm. Sheahan, J. L. Kruse, G. B. Dimick, C. U. Barlow, W. W. Smith, M. Johnson, C. G. Huntley, Adam Knight, Frank Jagger, Dr. C. B. Smith, J. U. Campbell, Joseph Bramhall, Judge T. F. Ryan, Sam Dillman, D. W. Kinriard and Hans Paulsen.

The delegates have gone to Eugene, some as early as the evening of Monday and others during the week at their business and professional duties would permit. The convention at Eugene promises to be a hot one and the outcome at the time of going to press is not entirely determined.

The indications are that Binger Herman will get the nomination and if he does, the Democrats, if they name their best men will find a good chance to "skin" him.

A WELL EARNED VACATION.

Dr. E. A. Sommer, who for several years has been one of the leading physicians of Oregon City, will leave for the East with his wife between the 15th and 20th of this month for a three months' vacation. They will go direct from Oregon City to Buffalo. At the latter city Mrs. Sommer will remain during the summer with friends of her childhood. Dr. Sommer will go on to Baltimore, where he will put in two months in the John Hopkins' hospital, one of the most noted hospitals in the East. Later, the Dr. will visit Philadelphia, New York and Boston and drink deep from the fountain of medical lore in the hospitals and schools of these Eastern cities. Already one of the foremost physicians on the coast he will come back to his life work in mid-summer or early fall better equipped than ever for his work. All of his friends wish him a pleasant journey and return. During his absence in the East his office in this city will be in charge of Hugh M. Mount, of Portland, a physician of some note in that city.

Notice.

I will not be responsible for any debts contracted by my wife, Jennie Kyler. W. S. KYLER.

THE KING HAS RISEN

SUNDAY WILL CELEBRATE THE DAY OF RESURRECTION OF OUR SAVIOR.

Celebrated in Song and Story for 2,000 Years All Over the Christian World. Program of the Churches.

On next Sunday the various churches of Oregon City will fittingly celebrate Easter Sunday. It is a great Christian festival inaugurated 65 years after the resurrection of Christ. Easter Sunday is the first Sunday after the full of the moon after the 21st day of March. It may come as early as March 22d, and as late as April 21st. The day is celebrated in every land where the light of the church has penetrated. The following is the program for the various churches in Oregon City for next Sunday:

EASTER DAY AT THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

The auditorium of the Congregational church has been beautifully decorated, a new carpet has been laid and the wood re-varnished during the month. So on next Sunday morning the congregation will meet in its usual place instead of the lecture room where the services were held for a number of Sundays. All the friends of the church are cordially invited to the services of the day. There will be no special solicitation for funds as all the expenditures for the improvements are being provided for privately. The following will be the services: The pastor will preach the sermon at seven o'clock in the morning taking the theme "Victory Over Death and the Grave." At 10:30 new members will be received and the Lord's Death commemorated. The special musical numbers will be given; an anthem, "Now is Christ Risen," by Gabriel; a vocal solo, Mrs. Kate Ward Pope, "The Risen King," Loud; a violin solo, Miss Anna English "The Holy City."

At 12 o'clock the Sunday school will render Easter exercises.

At 7:30 the choir will give an Easter praise service, the numbers will be announced later. Among the items of this program will be vocal solos by Miss Maysie Foster and Mrs. W. B. Wiggins.

SPECIAL SERVICE AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

The services at the Baptist church on next Sunday will be especially interesting and will be appropriate to the celebration of the Easter Festival. In the morning Rev. J. H. Beaven will preach from the subject, "The Risen King." Some excellent music will be rendered. At night the services will be in charge of the Sunday school and choir. The exercises will consist of solos, recitations and readings.

At St. Paul's Episcopal church, the Rev. P. K. Hammond, rector, the great festival of Easter will be appropriately kept, beginning with a celebration of the Holy Communion at 8 a. m., followed by the Sunday school at 9:45. The regular morning service will begin at 10:30 instead of the usual hour of 11 o'clock. New electors are being put in and the church will be beautifully decorated. At the five o'clock service Miss Foster will sing the offertory solo. An offering will be taken at both services for the purpose of painting the church and rectory.

SPRING ELECTIONS.

DEMOCRATS CARRY THE CITY OF CLEVELAND, OHIO, AND CHICAGO, ILL.

Many Other Cities Are in the Republican Column.

The Spring elections for the year 1903 have come and gone. The great city of Cleveland, Ohio, and of Chicago, Ill., remain in the Democratic fold. Mayor Tom Johnson has won in Cleveland again after a bitter and determined fight had been made upon him. He wins this time by over 7,000 plurality. The last time, two years ago he won by less than 2,500. In the city of Cincinnati the Republicans carry the day by a majority of about 9,700. Two years ago it was 15,000. In Chicago Carter H. Harrison wins by more than 10,000 votes and this makes his fourth term. In Toledo Samuel L. Jones has again been elected mayor this time by 2,500. This makes four terms for Jones and every time he has been elected over the combined opposition of the two old parties. Columbus, Ohio, elects a Republican mayor.

The state of Michigan elects Republican officials and many towns swing into the Republican column.

One of the most surprising results of Monday election is the great increase of the Socialist vote. In one town in Michigan they elect an entire town ticket. At Anaconda, Mont., they sweep the city.

Rev. Newhall, of Colfax, Washington, has opened a sewing machine depot on Main street opposite Huntley's.

CLACKAMAS POMONA MEETS WITH MAPLE LANE GRANGE AND RESOLVES THAT THE L. & C. FAIR APPROPRIATION BE SUBMITTED TO REFERENDUM.

The Clackamas Pomona Grange met with Maple Lane Grange on Wednesday, and, notwithstanding the muddy roads and the drizzle, circa 130 were present. In the reports from the different granges read by the lecturer, Anna Holm, very near all, if not all, were represented. Clackamas Grange reported the innovation of two meetings a month, the second and fourth Saturdays. Logan has appointed a committee on enlarging the meeting hall, attendance have outgrown its capacity. Molalla No. 2 has, since its organization 13 months ago, acquired hall property costing $1150 on which $200 is due. When it comes to art Milwaukee is ahead of 'em all with a band of 24 pieces, two thirds being members of the grange.

Dr. J. S. Casto reported, as member of a committee, that the Woodmen hall was engaged for the meeting of the State Grange, to begin May 26th, at a cost of $15 for the three days. As committee to raise funds from the different granges in the county for defraying this expense and that of the banquet at the end of the session, worthy Master Bates, appointed: W. Grisenthwaite, Mrs. Holm, Mr. Chitwood, Mrs. Wallron and Mr. Borland. They fixed it at five cents per capita, which will bring $54. As committee on decorating the hall and getting it in readiness were appointed: Mrs. Waldron, Mrs. Kruse, Mrs. Linn.

The committee on resolutions, J. D. Chitwood, W. W. Myers and H. B. Eit haupt, reported as follows: Whereas, The legislature of Oregon in its last session appropriated $500,000 to aid the Lewis and Clark Exposition; and Whereas, The farmers and laboring men pay a large share of the taxes and will receive but little benefit, therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Pomona Grange of Clackamas County, that the said appropriation should be submitted to a referendum vote, and

Resolved, That a copy hereof be furnished the Oregonian and the papers of this county.

The resolution provoked discussion not a little of it rather heated. It passed by a vote of 48 against 21 in the negative.

A resolution was also passed that the saloon system of the liquor traffic be supplanted by the South Carolina dispensary system, and another against the sale of cigarettes.

The resolution introduced by Brother Lazelle that hereafter those attending Pomona brine baskets of provisions was passed.

The movement to divide the county into two Pomona districts was frustrated by Brother Casto, who proved by reading from the manual that a county in this state can have but one Pomona.

A discussion of school matters lead to the passage of a resolution in favor of the consolidation of rural schools wherever practicable.

Maple Lane Grange had made ample preparations for entertaining its guests and every honey-handed son and daughter of toil had a glorious good time.
