NOT TILL MAY 1.

Will Mill Workers Make Demands for Better Pay.

The Federal Labor Union was in session last Monday evening. The meeting was called for the purpose of discussing the proposed demand for a raise in wages and shorter hours for the workers in the paper mills. Nothing was given out for publication regarding the meeting, save that no steps will be taken toward securing the proposed increase of wages before May 1. Just what demand will be made by the men at that time is mere speculation, but from the best information it is believed that the men will ask for a straight ten hour day, and that the night workers shall receive so much per hour for their work. As the situation now is, night laborers who work from half past five or six o'clock in the evening until seven o'clock in the morning, receive the same compensation that they do for working from seven in the morning till half past five or six in the afternoon. It is generally conceded that the mill workers will not make any exorbitant demands, and it is generally believed that their demands will be granted without a strike.

One reason for the postponement of the demand for the changed condition of affairs is that Superintendent Leng is away on a vacation and nothing could be done until he returns towards making a change. Not all of the paper mill workers are members of any union, not even the Federal Union, and it is considered doubtful if a general strike was ordered if any great number would walk out. It is conceded on all sides, however, that nothing could be fairer than that the men should be paid so much per hour, and that they are entitled to more wages for working fourteen hours than they are for working ten. All business men in town are extremely anxious that the matter of wages should be adjusted without any trouble, as a strike would injure business greatly.

Entertainment at Mount Pleasant.

At the Mount Pleasant school house on next Saturday evening, April 18, the April committee on entertainment for the Mount Pleasant sidewalk, will present an excellent literary and musical program. Those present at the February entertainment will be pleased to hear that Miss Holmes has very kindly consented to pre-ent another tableau. A very prominent feature will be an empire fan exercise by eight girls in dainty empire costume. Following is the program which is incomplete:
Recitation.....Lesta Dixon
Fun Drill.....Eight Girls
Miss Maud Moran, Accompanist.
Instrumental Music.....Selected
Farce in Two Acts....."A Suit of Livery"
CHARACTERS,
Miss Isabel Farrington.....Young Lady of 18
Mrs. Edward Farrington.....Aunt to Isabel
Herbert Douglas.....A Wealthy Young Man
Clarence Sharpe.....Detective
Jeans "Emory" Haddins.....Butler
Greches.....The Throbian Lady
Tableau.....Under Direction of Miss Holmes and Mrs. D. O'Neil.
The former entertainments have met with gratifying success socially and financially and this one bids fair to rival all others. The sidewalk is begun and the time of its completion rests entirely with the people. It has been badly needed for a long time and will be a great help to the people in town and Mount Pleasant, and there could surely be no more pleasant walk for a Sunday afternoon. Come to the entertainment on Saturday night, April 19. Walk on the new sidewalk and make your best w. h. It is sure to come true.

A brief has been prepared in the case of Oregon City vs. Oregon & California Railroad Company, by the attorneys, A. S. Dreiser and Hedges & Griffith, to be presented to the supreme court. The suit was brought originally by Oregon City to define what rights the railroad company had in the right of way passing through the city at the bluff. Judge McBride decided in favor of the city, which is now respondent in the appeal. The case has not yet been set for argument and the general opinion is that the plaintiff has a pretty good show of winning.

HONORABLE A. E. REAMS
Democratic Nominee for Congress, First District.

HON. A. E. REAMS

The Brilliant Young Democrat of Jackson County.

NOMINATED FOR CONGRESS BY THE DEMOCRATS OF THE 1st DISTRICT.

Will Make a Great Race and a Greater Congressman if Elected.

ALBANY, April 11, 1903.
The watchword of the untutored hosts of democracy which assembled in this city to-day was harmony. There was good feeling on every side and not a word was said to mar the love feast among all of the democrats of the district or to stir up strife or feeling. The predominating idea was to get together and name a candidate and write a platform so broad and generous that all honest men could stand upon it. To one who has been through the bitter internecine party fights of the last half dozen years, who has seen democrat fight democrats and the party wrecked and torn asunder it was good to see all democrats, old and young, once more getting together and all pulling in the same direction. There were old men in the gathering who have been fighting for the faith for more than fifty years and boys who have cast but a single vote all animated with only one purpose and seeking one end.

The convention itself was of brief duration. It was called to order by Chairman White who explained its purpose in a neat and able speech. J. K. Weatherford was made chairman. C. V. Galoway was made secretary, and the good work went on. It took the platform committee but a little while to formulate a short and to the point platform and credential and organization committees performed their work in short order. Hon. A. E. Reams, of Jackson county, was placed in nomination and after a very brief scrap with two other aspirants won with easy and was made the unanimous choice of the convention. He accepted the nomination in a magnificent speech and pledged himself to make an active and vigorous canvass of the district between now and the first of June.

The delegation from Clackamas county were all present and were well taken care of in the appointments. The following is the list of delegates from this county: W. H. Vaughan, from Molalla; J. P. Lovett, Oregon City; C. W. Gannon, Canemah; J. K. Gribble, Mackburg; C. N. Waite, Canby; Ernest Mass, Willamette; C. M. Kirchem, Logan; T. L. Turner, of Stafford. C. N. Waite was made a member of the committee on credentials.

A permanent congressional committee from this district was appointed of which C. N. Waite, of Canby, was made a member from this county.

The nomination of Mr. Reams was a very fortunate one and was exceedingly well accepted by the delegates present, and they were all present with two exceptions.

Mr. Reams is a young man, and a man of splendid ability. He is very popular wherever known and his acquaintance is very extensive especially in the Southern part of the state. He is a son-in-law of the late Congressman Tongue. He is a fine speaker, a man of good address and impresses one as an honest fellow. He is a native Oregonian and loves his state and its people.

While the district is Republican by more than two thousand majority on a strict party vote, Herman's venerable record and the dissatisfaction of Republicans in general, and the exceptional ability of Reams and his clean manly record will no doubt bring him under the wire a winner. The delegates to the convention went their several ways promising to make the fight of their lives to elect a congressman from the first Oregon district in the person of Hon. A. E. Reams.

Dr. Glasco, the Great Colored Preacher Coming.

Dr. John F. Glasco, leader of St. John's Pentecost Holiness Union Gospel Mission, 171 1-2 Second street, corner Yamhill, will open a week's revival meetings at the Armory on the evening of Tuesday, April 21st to begin at 7:30. He will be accompanied by his wife and a host of helpers. Dr. Glasco is abundantly blessed with that spiritual eloquence which is often a spontaneous endowment of the colored man. His zeal in the great work of salvation is unbounded. In a letter to his friend, J. F. Montgomery, of this city, he writes:

"We will be there on the 21st if the Lord will Bless his holy name, I don't know how many that will come now. I will Pray for a good time. Meetings here are good. I am your all for the Master."

M. F. McCown and wife, of Medford, have been visiting friends in Oregon City during the past week. Mr. McCown is not only an old Oregonian but a native of Oregon City. Mr. McCown is in the timber business in the southern part of the state and a part of his business in Oregon City this week was closing up a timber scrap deal with eastern parties for $30,000. Mr. McCown has been in many parts of Oregon and thinks it is all good, but there are few better places in the world than old Clackamas. While Southern Oregon has a great reputation as a fruit country he believes that the Willamette valley in the vicinity of Oregon City can raise better fruit than they can in the Southern part of the state if they will take the same care of their trees and give the fruit industry the attention that it deserves.
