SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Clackamas county.
Ethel J. Tobin, plaintiff vs. Edmund D. Tobin, defendant.
To Edmund D. Tobin, defendant.
In the name of the state of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled cause within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons; service of said summons having been ordered served upon you by publication, by order of T. E. Ryan, Judge of the county court of the state of Oregon, for the county of Clackamas, dated Feb. 23, 1903.

The said action is brought to obtain a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and the defendant, and for such other relief as the court may seem equitable. And you are hereby notified, that if you fail to appear and answer the said complaint as above required, the said plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded therein.

SUMMONS

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the county of Clackamas.

William A. Grisel, Plaintiff, vs. William Ratcliff, Defendant.

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit, on or before Tuesday, April 14, 1903, that being the day set for the trial of this case, following six weeks publication of this summons, and you will take notice that if you fail to so appear and answer said amended complaint, for want thereof, said plaintiff herein will apply to said court for the relief prayed for in said amended complaint, which is in brief as follows: For a decree against said defendant, decreeing the plaintiff to be the owner in fee simple of the following described premises and the whole thereof, to-wit:

Lot 4 of Section 22 and the West half of the East half of Section 27 in Township 3 South of Range 1 West, Willamette meridian, being situated in Clackamas county, State of Oregon; and decreeing that defendant has no right title, interest or estate in or to said premises, or any part thereof, and for such other and further relief as to his costs and disbursements.

This summons is served by publication for six weeks by order of Hon. Thomas F. Ryan, County Judge of Clackamas county, State of Oregon, bearing date February 25, 1903, said order being obtained from said judge because of the absence from the county of Hon. T. A. McBride, Judge of the judicial district.

Dated at Oregon City, Oregon, February 25th, 1903.

ROBERT A. MILLER,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

CONTEST NOTICE.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
United States Land Office,
Oregon City, Or., March 21st, 1903.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by A. B. Lindquist, contestant, against Homestead Entry No. 141, made October 1st, 1900, for 64 ac. of w. 1/2, section 17, township 2 south, range 7 east of John H. Ricker, Jr., co-surveyor, in which it is alleged that contestant knows the present condition of the same also that said entry man has never resided upon or cultivated or improved said claim in any manner since making entry or at all, and that said alleged absence from the said land was not due to his employment in the Army Navy or Marine Corps of the United States as private soldier or mercenary or mariner during the war with Spain, or during any other war in which the United States may be engaged.

Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on May 2nd, 1903, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Oregon City, Oregon.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed March 20th, 1903, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice could not be made, was ordered and directed that said notice be given by due and proper publication.

GEO. W. BAKER, Receiver.

SUPPER AND SALE.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist Church Will Hold Annual Sale of Useful Articles, Bountiful Repast Promised.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church on this evening will in the Sunday school room of the church give a supper. It will be a good bountiful spread and only a pittance of 15 cents will be charged. Everybody is invited and should go out and help the good cause along.

SALE OF USEFUL ARTICLES.

During the long winter nights the ladies of the Aid Society have been working on useful articles, aprons, dusting caps, collars, handkerchiefs and a thousand and one other useful things. After and during the supper this evening all of this handiwork of the good sisters will be offered at private sale to any and all who wish to buy. These articles are useful and will be well worth the money asked for them. They will not be auctioned off but sold at a regular marked sale price. All friends of the church and the good work are invited to come and inspect this fine line of useful work.

ICE CREAM AND CAKE.

Ice cream and cake will be served during the evening. The proceeds of the supper and the sale will all be used in purchasing a new carpet for the church.

STRAYED OR STOLEN.

An attempt was made Thursday night of last week to burglarize the residence of Mrs. Davenport, near Gladstone, but the burglars were frightened off before they secured any booty. They cut the screen off a side door and then proceeded to bore through a panel. The occupants of the house knew nothing of the attempted burglary until they saw the damaged door next morning.

Plans have been drawn for the new manse for the Presbyterian church. The building will be modern in all respects and will cost in the neighborhood of $1500. It will occupy a site in the same enclosure with the Presbyterian church, on Jefferson street, between Seventh and Eighth streets. There are ample funds on hand to complete the building, which will be colonial in its architecture.

The hail storm of last Friday was perhaps the heaviest that has visited this section in a number of years. Hail fell almost incessantly for more than two hours, and a part of the time came down in great quantities. In places the ice drifted several inches deep and remained on the ground all of Friday night. It is feared that fruit was somewhat damaged as a great deal of it was in bloom.

Last Saturday night the Minnehaha tribe of Red Men came up from Portland forty strong to visit the Wacheno Tribe. A special car brought the Portland boys down and took them home. The chief's degree was conferred and short talks made by several of the visitors and others present, after which the jolly redskins gathered round the feast board, upon which stacks of corn and venison were piled and each did ample duty to the feast. It was near midnight when the meeting broke up and all went to their homes in a good humor. The Wacheno Tribe has 120 members and is in a flourishing condition.

Thomas Howell, of Oregon City, who has been collecting the flowers of this coast for many years and probably knows more about the flora of this Northwest than any other man and who has been at work for some time publishing an exhaustive work on the flora, has been appointed field collector and curator of the herbarium of the University of Oregon for the coming year. He donates his herbarium to the University, containing specimens from Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Alaska to the number of ten thousand and more. Many of these are new species and are the specimens from which the original descriptions are taken. Hardwood cases are being made by Day & Henderson to receive these and the other specimens of the University herbarium.— Eugene Daily Guard.

Tuesday afternoon, Lewis Farr and his chum, Mr. Silvey, went to Wilsonville in a rowboat to begin their summer's outing, that of crawling for the Portland market—when they catch more than they can eat themselves. They will operate principally in the Tualatin and Yamhill rivers. The "walking bass" and other fresh eatables they need they will obtain from the farmers. The crawling will give them plenty of leisure while crawling into the nets and altogether the two bold fishermen will live in clover.

Arrangements are being made for a regular old-time Missouri camp meeting revival at Armory hall, in Oregon City, beginning Tuesday evening of next week. Rev. Glasco and wife, the colored evangelists of Grand Avenue, Portland, are to be here on the occasion and will be accompanied by a regular troupe of singers and exhortors from the metropolis. Landlord Montgomery, of a local boarding house, who is a Southerner by birth, has been quite taken by the manner in which these evangelists do their work, and so has made arrangements whereby Oregon City people will be favored with their presence. "I tell you, there must be some religious fire when 15 to 20 conversions are made at one afternoon's meeting by these colored people," he said today, "and although there is considerable expense atendant upon their coming here, we have been assured of hearty co-operation on the part of our citizens. I look for a number of conversions here before the revival comes to a close."

The Oregon City reader is asked to thoroughly investigate the following: This can readily be done, for the gentleman whose statement is published below will only be too pleased to answer any communications mailed to him if the writer really suffers from the annoying consequence which always attend inactive or weakened kidneys.

J. Jenkins, of 215 East Sixth St., Portland, now retired from active life, says: "I think very highly of Doan's Kidney Pills. I used them for an attack of acute backache which had annoyed me for some little time. Three days after I began their use I knew they had gone to the cause of the dull dragging pains across the small of my back and relief came sooner than I expected. I believe the cure is permanent for I have not felt any symptoms of a recurrence. Other members of my family have also used Doan's Kidney Pills with equally good results."
