Clackamas County Teachers Met at Aurora.

The Clacksmas county terchers association had a very enjoyable and instructive meeting at Aurora last Saturday. Though few in number the ones who attended were of the live energetic class who believe in the advancing of their professional interests.

The meeting was called to order at 10:30 by Superintendent Zinser, Miss Fannie Porter the secretary read the in session nearly two weeks. The docket minutes of previous meeting which were is being pretty well cleaned up. The approved as read. The committee on "constitution and strike out classes refering to fee of 25 until Tuesday morning. cents to join the Association and the fee of 25 cents per quarter and to abolish system of fines imposed on absent members. By unaminous vote the resolutions were adopted. The next in order was school law conducted by our Superintendent, Zinser. It is safe to say that no part of the program was more appropriate and in- in suit of Catherine Gibbons vs Laura structive than this, many teachers express their thanks to Mr. Zinser for having these courses of school laws in our institute and hope that at our next county institute more, time will be given to this subject. Following this was a talk concerning the prizes to be offered for the best display of school work for the current year.

Next followed a very instructive address by Prof. Prentiss, of West Oregon count of insufficient proof. Hall and City school, on "The Art of Question-

Mr. Prentiss said the questions should be "brief, pointed grammatically construc'ed and school contain no hint concerning the answer." He said never ask a question that can be answered by yes or no. All questions should be those that have in mind the subject matter and Riley. ask questions in series so to bring out the intended thoughts.

The institute then adjourned until 1:30
