OREGON CITY, MAY 8, 1908.

THE SUN SHINES BRIGHT IN OREGON.

During the last week the sun has kissed the hills and valleys and mountain tops of Oregon and turned them one and all into a blaze of glory. The valleys are rich with the promise of the harvest, the hills and woodlands are covered with bloom and Spring-time casts its aroma into the atmosphere with prodigal hands; the mountain tops are pinnaled peaks of virgin snow, pointing their crests into the eternal blue. No where in all the earth does the sun shine brighter or the world look fairer than here in Oregon.

From all over Clackamas county comes good news anent the political situation. The Democrats where ever they be are up and in line for Mr. Reams. That the Democratic party will poll a much larger per cent of its vote than will Mr. Hermann is a fore gone conclusion. The time for a man to succeed is when the opportunity presents itself. The time for a party to succeed is when the opportunity is before it. The congressional election this June is but a preliminary to the big fight that is to be pulled off next year. The eyes of the nation are now on the First Oregon district. Let every democrat stand by his convictions and his party and a victory for right over wrong, for honest government over corruption and rottenness, is sure to follow.

Brother W. W. Myres, of socialistic proclivities, has broken out in a new spot this week and intimates that the Courier has criticised the socialists and him for desiring to apply the Referendum to the Lewis and Clark fair. The Courier has done nothing of the kind. Any man or set of men have a right under the laws of the state of Oregon to invoke the referendum upon any question that has been enacted into law, provided they secure a proper number of signatures and put up a sufficient amount of money. While we know that Oregon is badly governed and hopelessly tax ridden we believe the people will make a mistake and one that it will take years to correct if they defeat the proposed Fair either by the referendum or in any other manner. This is only a belief on our part. The more people you have in Oregon the lower will your tax rate be and the better your roads, schools and churches. The Lewis and Clark Fair will advertise the resources of this state in a single season more and to a better advantage than they have been advertised in all the years that Oregon has been a state. The trouble with Oregon is that her people do not pull together. Labor is suspicious of capital, and would strike at capital by defeating the Fair. At the same time the moneyed men of the state and the corporations and the city of Portland will put up the big end of the money to pay for the Fair and they are not so heartily incoated with the Fair idea but what they would willingly call the entire matter off. One section of Oregon is jealous of every other section. The country is making eyes at Portland and calling that city a hog. The town is possibly not doing so much for the remote parts of the state as it might. One section of the state is decrying and belittling every other part of the state. There has been an order issued in the City of Oregon City by the fire department that every resident must scrape the moss off his house top. If this order could be made general and of universal application and every Oregonian be required to scrape the moss off of his back, this great state would take a long step in the right direction. Many Oregonians believe in the old maxim "That all things come to him who waits." That being true, the lap of Oregon ought to be full of all this world affords. But Oregon has been waiting now for about half a century for her ship to come in "from sea." The wind is now in the right direction and many things are coming our way. Shall we take advantage of our opportunities or shall we let the tide of emigration flow around and about us while and the car of human progress passes on into other states. We hope not.

HE SLEEPS.

BENEATH A WILDERNESS OF FLOWERS AND FRIENDS' GOOD WISHES.

Joe Fromong, Who Lived and Worked, Has Paid Nature's Last Debt.

Joe Fromong is dead. The jolly, good natured, honest workman has paid Nature's last debt. Strong of body and loving all the world he has laid his burden down and will sleep until that great day "When the dead shall rise and walk." He was an honest man and loved all men with whom he came in contact. He laughed in the face of all the world because in his heart there was nothing of which he was ashamed. He was a laboring man, an honest son of toil, and earned his right to live by the sweat of his face. The burden he carried in life he has laid down and will await the "Sweet bye and bye" to meet the good wife and loved ones.

Less than two weeks ago that most dread of all diseases, typhoid fever, laid its hands upon him, its ravages the strong man could not withstand and Tuesday morning he passed away.

His funeral was conducted by the A. O. U. W. of which he was a member, and the Knights of Pythias to which he belonged. The ceremony at which he was buried was under the auspices of the A. O. U. W. and the services at the grave was conducted by the Knights. Many friends of the dead were present at the hall and marched with the funeral cortege to the grave at Mountain View cemetery, where the body was laid to rest. The services were impressive to all of those who knew and loved the good, honest man, whose life had gone out and who awaits the great awakening. Mr. Fromong leaves a wife and family to mourn his loss and many, many friends who will miss his smiling face and cheery greeting.

ICE WORKS

MACHINERY STARTS ON SUNDAY AND ICE IS BEING TURNED OUT.

Twenty Five Tons Is the Capacity of the New Plant.

The Oregon City Ice Works, the property of J. P. Lovett, with brand new machinery in every department, started up for the summer's run on Sunday last. While not a large plant it is a first-class one in every particular. The machinery and equipment is new. The plant has been reconstructed from the ground up and everything about the plant is in fine condition. The capacity of the works is 25 tons of ice per day. Only the purest of filtered water is used in manufacturing this ice, and the product is as fine as can be turned out artificially or naturally any where in the land. Mr. Lovett will not only supply the local trade but he will also ship considerable of the product to nearby points. To one who has not inspected the inside of an ice plant its workings are somewhat of a mystery and a curiosity. The plant at Oregon City, however, will do credit to any small town on the coast.

A. Baumann with his wife and family left Oregon City on Thursday for San Jose, Cal., where he expects to make his future home. Mr. Baumann has been a resident of Clackamas county for the past ten years. He has been a good farmer and a good Democrat and for both reasons we are loth to lose him. He has sold his 17 1/2 acres of land near Ely to George Avery, a newcomer in these parts. Mr. Baumann says that reason why he is leaving Oregon is the high rate of taxation in these parts. He likes the country and the people, but he says he will not stand for the tax rate. It is too bad that Clackamas county should lose so good a man as Mr. Baumann, but we can't expect all of the good people to live in Oregon, and we hope that the new man from the East who has taken his place will be as good a citizen and make as fair a name as has Mr. Baumann. Mr. Baumann expects to take up a homestead in Southern California, where the sun shines 365 days, 6 hours and 24 minutes a year.

T. E. Beard, of Ely, sustained painful injuries from a fall on Tuesday. While painting his trees the leg of the stool on which he was standing slipped into a gopher hole, and he was cast headlong against the tree, striking on his side and badly bruising himself. While able to be about he is quite a cripple.

The Oregon City High school baseball team crossed bats with the B. S. A.'s of Portland, last Saturday afternoon. The home boys had very little practice and went down to defeat by a lop-sided score. They will meet the same team on the local diamond on the afternoon of the sixteenth inst.

The raffia tea given by the ladies of St. Paul's Guild last Friday afternoon at the resi ence of Mrs. G. A. Harding was a successful affair. Many pretty hats and baskets were on exhibition and were admired by all attending. The house was tastily decorated with raffia, ferns and flowers.

Mr. Jones, the Oklahoma man who bought Ed Payne's 52-acre farm on the Molalla road at $50 an acre, has a snap. There are 16 acres bearing hops on the place and plenty of good buildings, and he had paid $1000 more it would still have been a good bargain for him.

The Carpenters' Union, which has formerly met Wednesday of every week, will in the future meet the second and fourth Monday of each month. The place of meeting will be at Willamette hall.

David McLoughlin, one of the earliest pioneer residents of Oregon City, and a son of the illustrious Dr. John McLoughlin, died at Point Hill, Idaho, last week, at the age of 82 years.

Charles Grider is sacking his potatoes. Though sprouted along the top of the piles, they are, on the whole, coming out of the pits in pretty good shape.

WILL SEND $4.00 FREE.

Franklin Miles, M. D., LL. D., the Celebrated Chicago Specialist, Will Send $4.00 Worth of his New Special Treatment Free to Each of Our Readers

When an experienced physician offers to give away $40,000 worth of a New Treatment for diseases of the heart, nerves, stomach or dropsy, it is conclusive evidence that he has great faith in it. And when hundreds of prominent people freely certify to his unusual skill and the superiority of his New Special Treatment, his liberality is certainly worthy of serious consideration.

That Dr. Miles is one of the world's most successful physicians is proven by hundreds of testimonials from well known people. One patient cured after failure of eleven Grand Rapids physicians, two after being given up by six and seven Chicago physicians, another after nine leading doctors in New York City, Philadelphia and Chicago failed. 1000 testimonials sent upon request.

The eminent Rev. W. Bell, D. D., of Dayton, O., Gen. Sec'y of Foreign Missions, writes editorially in the State Sunday School Union: "I desire to state that, from personal acquaintance we know Dr. Miles to be a most skillful specialist a man who has spared neither labor nor money to keep himself abreast of the great advancement in medical sciences."

The late Prof. J. S. Jewell, M. D., said: "by all means publish your surprising results." Prof. J. P. Rose, M. D., Ex. Pres. of Rush Medical College, wrote in 1874: "Dr. Miles has taken two courses of my private instruction in diseases of the heart and lungs." Mr. Truman DeWiese, editor of Chicago Times-Herald, states: "Dr. Miles cured me of inherited headache and dizziness." The well-known manufacturer of Freepress, Ill., J. C. Scott, says: "I had fruitlessy spent thousands of dollars on physicians until I consulted Dr. Miles." Mrs. Frank Smith, of Chicago, writes: "Dr. Miles cured me of dropsy after five leading physicians had given me up."

This new system of Special Treatment is thoroughly scientific and immensely superior to the ordinary methods.

As all afflicted readers may have $4.00 worth of treatment free, we would advise them to send for it at once.

Address, Dr. Franklin Miles, 203 to 205 State street, Chicago, Ill.

JUST IN TIME.

Some Oregon City People May Wait Till It's Too Late.

Don't wait until too late. Be sure and be in time. Just in time with kidney pills Means curing the back Before backache becomes chronic; Before serious urinary troubles set in. Doan's Kidney Pills will do this. Here is testimony to prove it.

G. H. Springmeyer, expressman, residing at 1016 First St., Portland, says: "Exposure to rough weather and the constant jarring of the wagon while I was riding brought on kidney trouble. My back ached almost constantly and the muscles controlling the bladder appeared weak and their action far too frequent. Doan's Kidney Pills came to my notice and I got a box. The pain in my back was relieved and the kidney secretions became normal. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills brought about this result and it is with pleasure that I recommend this effective preparation to others."

Plenty more proof like this from Oregon City people. Call at the drug store of C. G. Huntley and ask what his customers report.

Molalla.

Farmers in this locality are principally all through seedling.

Prospect so far is promising for a good harvest of both grain and fruit.

All the fruit trees here are loaded with blossoms.

Nearly all of the stock men on the Molalla have taken their cattle to the mountains. They report that the fields have started in good shape.

Ernest Russell took a bear hunt on the upper Molalla a few days ago. He returned in a short time with a bear and two coyote cubs, they were captured in a rock cliff. The cavity in the rock was some ten or twelve feet in length.

In order to reach the young coyotes Ernest had to take his shoes off and enter the den.

P. M. Boyles and wife have gone to Polk county to visit Mrs. Boyles' father.

Mr. Vernon the old gentleman is very sick and not expected to live.

F. O. Perry has gone to the mountains to get a photo of some falls on Fall Creek a tributary of Butte Creek.

Mr. Perry has the finest collection of negatives of falls scenery of any one in this section if not in the county he has a picture of all the falls of any consequence in this part of the mountains. He has spent several years in getting his collection.

The Russell Bros have over ten thousand ties banked on the Molalla. They expect to commence putting them in the river next Wednesday the 6th. They have an eight hundred foot boom in the Molalla near Canby and are ready to commence the drive.

O. S. Boyles has returned from Southern Oregon where he has been engaged in timber cruising. He will return in a few days.
