At the session of the county court which adjourned last Friday, the contract for the improvement to be made in the court house was let to Johnson & Andrews. The price at which the job was let is $3400. A new vault will be constructed in the rear of the sheriff's office now used by the sheriff. The sheriff will be given the front portion of the quarters now occupied by the county clerk. The county school superintendent will move into the present room of the recorder.

Lodge Notes.

Falls City Lodge, O. U. W., held its semi-annual election of officers last Saturday night. The following officers were elected: C. Shabel, master workman; R. B. Kimmell, foreman; Joseph Beaulieu, overseer; Horace Williams, guide; O. H. Dye, receiver; H. J. Harding, recorder; C. O. T. Williams, financier; Sam J. Roake, inside watchman; James Edmonds, outside watchman. The newly elected officers will be installed at the first meeting in July.

Willamette Falls Camp, W. O. W., held its annual decoration day services Sunday afternoon. Owing to the intense heat the members of the camp did not turn out in force. About 20 Woodmen however, met at the hall and marched to Mountain View cemetery and decorated the graves of members who are buried there. Many beautiful flowers were placed on the graves.

Delegates from Milwaukee lodge No. 1, A. F. & A. M., to the grand lodge which meets in Portland this week are: Worshipful Master, R. C. (Lang); senior warden, Joseph Lynch; and junior warden, John P. Keating. Delegates from Clackamas county No. 2, Royal Arch Masons, are: High Priest, John H. Walker; King, J. O. Zinser; and scribe, Rev. P. K. Hammond.

The following officers were elected by Myrtle lodge, D. of H., at their meeting last Friday evening: Miss Dona Doty, chief of honor; Mrs. Stella Weed, lady of honor; Mrs. Robinson, chief of ceremonies; Mrs. A. Beaulieu, usher; Mrs. E. H. Cooper, recorder; Mrs. Frank T. Harlow, financier; Mrs. R. J. Goodfellow, receiver; Mrs. Emma Veilus, inside watch; Mrs. M. Goodfellow, outside watch; Mrs. T. E. Beard, musician. The installation of officers will be conducted by the grand recorder the first Friday in June. The grand chief of honor, of the jurisdiction of Oregon will visit the lodge on the afternoon of June the 23rd.

Court Robin Hood, Forerunners of America, elected the following officers to serve for ensuing term at their meeting last Friday evening: M. M. Sugarman, chief ranger; G. W. Kertson, sub-chief; W. E. Marshall, recording secretary; F. W. Humphries, private secretary; John A. Moore, treasurer; S. O. Dillman, M. Munch, G. S. Freeman, trustees. Installation will take place the first Friday in July and will be conducted by the deputy grand chief ranger.

Why Many Young Men Fall.

It is the fault and the cause of the failure of so many bright, capable young men that, being put into a certain workday rut, they make no effort to climb or even crawl out of it. They do not seek the work that is not routine and go beyond the terms of the bond in search of additional labor in order to attract the approving notice of their employers; they do not go to their posts before or remain at them after the fixed hour; they are content to do enough, and no more than enough, to earn their hire. The life of the average clerk is generally genteel, easy, cleanly. He need not soil his hands or his clothes, and his ambition is satisfied with these pleasant conditions.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Sad State of Poetry.

For some time the use of poetry has for some time been abandoned, and words, any sort of words, have been employed instead. With patriotic songs any suggestion of poetry is held to be fatal to success. It is probable that in another ten years some member of parliament will introduce a short bill making the production of any other sort of poem a criminal offense, and it is not impossible that the member of parliament will be a publisher.—Macmillan's Magazine.

Men Repeat, but Do Not Copy.

Grant — It is easier to say a good thing than to do a good thing. Henderson — Very true. But when you say a good thing you are flattered by persons right and left making use of it as if it were their own, but you have few copyists when you do a good deed.—Boston Transcript.

Advantage of Position.

"Hold on!" exclaimed the boy who was under. "Let's arbitrate this thing!" "There ain't nothin' to arbitrate!" panted the boy on top, pummeling him vigorously.—Chicago Tribune.

What Would You Do?

People are fond of telling what they would do if they had $1,000,000. It's safe to bet that nine men out of ten if they had $1,000,000 would do nothing.—Kansas City Independent.

Quite a number of men have mistaken Wall street for Easy street.—Puck.

Constipated Bowels

To have good health, the body should be kept in a laxative condition, and the bowels moved at least once a day, so that all the poisonous wastes are expelled daily. Mr. G. L. Edwards, 342 S. Main St., Wichita, writes: "I have used Beriberi to regulate the liver and bowels for the past ten years, and found it a reliable remedy." See at Chamberlain & Co.

The Limit.

Mr. Cribbs—Mrs. C., I have dinner with resignation—nay, even cheerfulness—antique chairs that wobbled, antique clocks that were always thirteen hours behind time, antique rugs that some prehistoric Turks wove, antique china, antique bowls, pans and kettles. All this I have smiled at, but when you give me antique eggs for breakfast I draw the line, madam—I draw the line.

Troubles and Joys.

The trouble with most of us is that our joys seem to sink out of sight like some inner quagmire, and our pains seem to take root on the thinnest soil and flourish like the proverbial green bay tree. What is the matter with us that a little irritation today can wipe out in a moment all the recollection of yesterday's glory?

"Practical" Arithmetic.

A teacher who was trying to instruct her class about the mysteries of addition and subtraction explained that addition could not subtract or add unless the numbers were of the same denomination when a little girl said: "Teacher, can't you take six peaches from four trees?"—Little Chronicle.

In a Minor Key.

Hearty Friend (meeting operatic composer)—Hello, old man! How are you? Haven't seen you for an age! What's your latest composition? Impeccuous Musician (gloomily)—With my creditors.—Punch.

Usually the Way.

Mamie—She is trying to keep her marriage a secret. Maud—How do you know? "She told me so."—Baltimore Worker.

Maccabees' Picnic.

The ladies of the Maccabees of Mackaburg will give a picnic at Smith's picnic grounds, Mackaburg, the 20th inst. There will be a grand parade at 10 o'clock to the 7 units, a drill by cadets. Saved From an Awful Fate.

"Everybody said I had consumption," writes Mrs. A. M. Shields, of Chambersburg, Pa. "I was so low after six months of severe sickness caused by hay fever and asthma, that few things I could get up, but I heard of the marvellous merit of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and I used it and was completely cured." "Respiratory Throat and Lung Diseases It is the safest cure in the world, and is infallible for Croup, Colds and Bronchial affections. Unsurpassed bottles 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at Geo. A.
