

THE STORE NOTED FOR GOOD GOODS AT THE LOWEST PRICES.

Expansion Sale

DRAWING TO A CLOSE

HOUSEKEEPERS' WEEK

Before Winding Up Our

GREAT SALE

We wish to give the housekeepers one grand benefit that will remain green in their memory for years to come.

It will pay you to lay in a year's supply at least—in Table Linens—Towels—Napkins—Towelings—Lace—Curtains—Tapestry Portiers—Blankets—Quilts—Comforters—Draperies or Table Covers or Couch Covers.

Be sure and come some day this week, the sooner the better
Bazaar Patterns Reduced to 10 cents

McALLEN & McDONNELL
CORNER THIRD AND MORRISON

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

All trimmed hats reduced at Mrs. H. T. Sladen.

Wilson & Cooke will sell you a mower for $40.

We are closing out our stock of shoes at cost. Red Front.

Go to Wilson & Cooke if you want to buy a sickle grinder.

Cut rate prices at Moore's pharmacy on Seventh Street.

Children's day was generally observed by special program by all the churches last Sunday.

If you want to buy the best of tin and steel enameled ware, go to Wilson & Cooke.

Dr. J. B. Moore, office at the drug-store on Seventh street on the hill. Phone Main 1541.

The Forrester's will install officers July 3rd. As many members as can, are requested to be present.

The final eighth grade examination for the school year were held Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Tom Miller, who received a stroke of paralysis some time since, is still critically ill at her home on the hill.

Mrs. R. A. Miller continues quite ill at Salem. Colonel Miller has been at her bedside much of the time during the past week.

Girl wanted for general house work. Good wages paid for competent help. Inquire at Holman's cigar store or residence.

You make no mistake by taking recipes and prescriptions to Moore's Pharmacy. Accuracy, skill, pure drugs and right prices.

Company A., O. N. G., gave one of their famous smokers Monday evening. A large attendance was present and a general good time was enjoyed.

St. John's Catholic church held a lawn fete last Saturday evening. Refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream, cake and other delicacies. A large crowd was present.

The funeral of Miss Mary Russell will be held at Teasle Creek next Sunday morning.

If not the most elegant store it is a noted fact that they are selling goods, the cheapest at the Racket Store of any store in Oregon City. That's right, and it's no josh either.

A. T. Thomson's bargain store. Sleeveless summer vests, 10c, 12 1/2c. Elaborately lace trimmed 19c, 25c. Black Lawn 12 1/2c, Organzie 13 1/2c. Nun's Veiling 16c yd, Special Values.

Wilson & Cooke carry a complete line of all kind of farming implements, such as plows, harrows and cultivators. Also hay tools of all kinds, such as hay forks, carries and pulleys.

The Courier office desires to acknowledge the present last Sunday of a handsome basket of Ganby strawberries from W. B. Stafford. The berries were fine, weighing about fourteen to the pound. Oregon strawberries are world beaters.

The Young People's Society of the Presbyterian church will give an entertainment in pantomime at the opera house about the first of July. An excellent program has been arranged and a good entertainment will be given.

A delightful evening was spent by the Men's Dancing club at Capemah park last Friday. The club gave one of their famous dances and a large crowd of folks attended and tripped the fantastic till a late hour. A number of parties from Portland were down and participated in the festivities.

Phillip Wakeman died at the residence of Ed Andrews at Falls View Sunday morning at the age of 45 years. He leaves a wife and one daughter, who live at Helena, Mont. The funeral was held from the residence of Mr. Andrews Tuesday afternoon and the interment was in the Masonic cemetery.

Thunder reverberated over the Willamette valley on last Sunday afternoon and lightning played across the face of the black clouds which hung over the Cascade mountains. It was a lovely setting to the close of a beautiful summer day. To the native of the Willamette both thunder and lightning is more or less of a curiosity and brings with it coming and going terror and dread.

George Williams was found dead in his bed near Canby last Saturday night. Coroner Holman was summoned and held an inquest. The verdict of the coroner's jury was to the effect that deceased came to his death from natural causes. It was thought at first that suspicious circumstances surrounded the death. The deceased was about 70 years old.

Hats and flowers greatly reduced at Mrs. Sladen's.

Go to Wilson & Cooke for garden tools, such as hoes, rakes, etc.

Do you want to buy wire fencing? If so go to Wilson & Cooke.

Furnished housekeeping rooms for rent. Apply to John Schram.

Cups and mirrors free at Charman & Co.'s Drug Store. See their adv.

Money to loan at six per cent. J. J. Cooke, Oregon City, Oregon.

Beatie & Beatie, Dentists, Weisard, building, rooms 16, 17 and 18.

Select your hats while the stock is large. Everything reduced at Mrs. Sladen's.

Children's day will be observed at the Baptist church next Sabbath evening. The public is invited.

Contracts are putting in bids on the new work on Jackson street. The bids will be opened next Monday.

If you want to buy a mower or hay rake, get prices at Wilson & Cooke before you buy; you will save money.

Rev. William Kraxberger, of Marion Springs, Mich., is at Macksburg, on a visit to his parents and brothers. He will preach a sermon at German church Sunday June 21, at 10 a. m.

On account of the absence of Rev. Craig, who is at tending the camp meeting at Teasle Creek there will be no services at the Methodist church South at Elyville on next Sunday.

A Sunday school picnic will be held at Liberal at the Wright's springs picnic grounds June 27, at 10 a. m. A program will be rendered consisting of songs, speaking, recitations and dialogues. All are invited to attend and bring baskets.

Fred Hoyle was given five days in the city jail for begging on the streets Wednesday. Wm. Johnson and G. Lash were arraigned charged with disorderly conduct, before city Recorder Curry. Johnson was released on $10 bail which he promptly jumped and Lash was fined $10.

John Kraxberger, of Macksburg, lost a valuable horse recently. On examination by the veterinary surgeon it was discovered that the animal had been given a dose of strychnine. Mr. Kraxberger has offered a reward of $25 for information leading to the detection of the guilty parties.

Superintendent J. C. Zinser delivered an address to the people of Eagle Creek last Friday evening on the subject of school consolidation. A large crowd was out and listened attentively to the address. A committee was appointed to meet with the Currinville school the following Saturday evening.

Last Sunday morning a team belonging to S. J. Vaughan got entangled in their harness while making a turn at the corner of Main street and railroad avenue and both horses fell in such a manner they could not arise. A crowd soon collected which offered all kinds of advice but the harness had to be cut before the team could be released. Save some small breakages in the rig and the cutting of the harness there was no damage done.

At the home of Mrs. Chas Canfield in Oregon City, there was a delightful party last Friday evening when Mrs. J. E. Beard's boy's class of Sunday school children and Mrs. Canfield's girl's class were entertained. A guessing contest assisted the youngsters in passing the evening pleasantly. Gilbert Charters won first prize for boys and May Strange first prize for girls. Various innocent games were indulged in and lunch was served.

Mrs. W. H. Foerner was killed in Tacoma last Saturday by being struck by a train. She was sitting on the railroad track when the engine struck her, instantly killing her. Mrs. Foerner was formerly Miss Hester Robb, of this city, and was a sister to Mrs. Frederick Painter, of Canemah. The remains were shipped here for burial Tuesday and the funeral services were conducted at the home of the sister. The remains were interred in the Canemah cemetery.

The Allen Stock Company, which is making a week's stand in this city, is from almost every standpoint the best show that has appeared here for many months. The characters are well cast, being very evenly balanced. Notwithstanding the fact that the opening nights were very stormy, good crowds attended which have increased with the week. The music furnished by the orchestra is much better than is generally furnished. Tonight "A Fair Rebel" will be played. This is a stirring war drama and one of the best plays on the program. Saturday night "A Black Heifer" will be the attraction. Saturday afternoon there will be a matinee for ladies and children. Admission to the matinee 15 and 25 cents.

John J. Cooke sold the Dan Williams place last Wednesday to Mr. Kaufman for the sum of $3200. The place is on the Highland road three and one half miles from Oregon City and consists of 34 acres.

Frank Walsh, who made his first appearance here last season, as one of the stars of Sweeney and Alvid's minstrels, is the premier specialty artist of the Allen, Coy and his songs were well received at every performance.

The Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church will give a chicken pie supper at the Y. M. C. A. hall on the evening of Friday, June 26th, from 5 till 9. All are invited to attend. 2t.

In the school election at the Brown school house, district No. 63, near New Era, Monday evening, Gilbert Randall was chosen as the new director. By a vote of 13 to 14 (one vote being thrown out) the resignation of Richard Dundas was demanded. This was the result of fractional fight in the district, and is evidence that the district is pretty nearly evenly divided, over the lead question.

In the death notice of Mrs. Elizabeth Rowe, published in a recent issue of the Courier, was stated that Mrs. Rowe was born in Philadelphia. This is a mistake. Mrs. Rowe first saw the light of day on ship board coming over from England. It was further stated that Mrs. Rowe had lived with her daughter in Oregon City for the past ten years, when she had only with her for ten months.

The Oregon City Toilet Soap Manufacturing company is a new firm doing business on the West Side. The promoters are Messrs O'Malley and Wurster. Mr. Wurster has been in the soap business for many years, having worked at the business through Australia and New Zealand. They propose to enlarge their establishment on the West Side as necessity demands. The soap they are making is of a high quality, free from any impurities. The Courier wishes them abundant success in their undertaking.

At the home of the bride in Oregon City Thursday morning at 11 o'clock, Miss Betta Fouts and Mr. A. B. Lamont were united in matrimony. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. P. K. Hammond, of the Episcopal church. The bride-maid was Miss Clara Warner, and Mr. Robert Bonnett of Milwaukie, was best man. The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Fouts, of this city, who has a host of admiring friends here. The groom is a prominent young business man of Portland. The newly mated couple will make their future home in that city.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned administrator of the estate of Elizabeth Shandy, deceased, has filed his final report in the county court of Clatsop county, Oregon, and the said court has set Monday, July 25th, 1903, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m. of said day at the court house in Oregon City, Oregon, as the time and place for hearing any and all objections to said final report, and to his final discharge as administrator of said estate. O. S. DAY, Adm.

ROBERT A. MILLER & O. B. EBY, Attorneys for Administrator. First Publication, June 19. Last Publication, July 17.

You will find it at Huntley's and both The QUALITY AND PRICE will be Right

When it comes to Drugs we are always certain to have it, if it is to be had. If there should be more than one kind of it, you will find these various kinds here, and each kind is sold for what it is and at the right price. Our business has grown to its present volume by selling the BEST GOODS at a little lower price than other stores. Our constant aim in all our buying and selling is to maintain the quality and lower the prices.

Sudden Summer Sickness

At this season there is always the danger from sudden attacks of stomach and bowel troubles. It is best to be well prepared to prevent serious results by having always at hand a bottle of

Squibb's Cholera Mixture

It is the best remedy we have found in our many years of drug store experience for the quick relief and cure of colic, cramps, cholera morbus, dysentery and ordinary diarrhoea. It is pleasant and may be taken by young or old. Your money back if it fails to give satisfaction.

25 Cents

Get your boy a Brownie Camera Two Sizes, $1.00 and $2.00 We teach boys and girls to take pictures without charge. Come in and talk it over.

Trusses of To-Day

A truss is an important appliance and it is obvious that constant effort will be made for its improvement.

Every year does bring some improvements, and wearers of trusses should have the benefit of them.

In our stock we endeavor to provide all that is practical as well as new.

Our long experience in fitting trusses enables us to judge the value of new ideas and our stock is therefore an ideal one.

We guarantee our trusses to fit and to stay fitted.

Never too hot or too busy or too tired to try to please every Customer

Huntley Brothers PRESCRIPTION DRUGGISTS

We take Canadian money at par. 8-page Fashion Sheet for July free for asking

RECRUIT

5c CIGAR

Head and Shoulders over all other 5c cigars

A cigar that has the same face value as a nickel, and pays you full interest in solid satisfaction and real enjoyment.

Save the Bands.

Every dealer sells it.