Spring Allments.

There is an aching and tired feeling; the liver, bowels and kidneys become sluggish and inactive, the digestion impaired, with little or no appetite, no ambition for anything and a feeling that the whole body and mind need toning up. The trouble is, that during winter, there has been an accumulation of waste matter in the system. Herbine will remove it, secure to the secretions a right exit, and by its tonic effect, fully restore the wasted tissues and give strength in place of weakness. 50c at Charman & Co.

Youthful Burglars

Rob the Store of Merchant G. Beebe of Woodburn.

Arrested in Oregon City by Chief Burns on Last Sunday.

Sunday afternoon about 1 o'clock, Chief of Police Burns arrested four young boys who were stealing a ride on a freight train and placed them in the city jail for safe keeping. Burns received word from Woodburn that four boys were wanted there for burglarizing the store of G. Beebe, of Woodburn, and for him to be on the lookout for them.

All of the boys were mere youths, the oldest being only sixteen. When captured they carried with them the stolen goods amounting to about $75. The goods were carried in gunny sacks. Monday morning Mr. Beebe and a Woodburn constable arrived in Oregon City, identified the stolen property and took the boys back with them to Woodburn, where they were remanded for trial.

The names of the youthful criminals are Oliver Scott, Charles Sandt, George Frazer and C. C. Dillenbeck, and they all hail from Portland. They left their homes at Portland Monday afternoon and boarded the overland train and got off at Woodburn. Some time during the night they entered Mrs. Beebe's store and purloined the goods. They were seen to board the freight train Sunday morning and their actions excited suspicion and Chief Burns was telegraphed to look out for them.

Constipated Bowels

To have good health, the body should be kept in a laxative condition, and the bowels moved at least once a day, so that all the poisonous wastes are expelled daily. Mr. G. L. Edwards, 122 N. Hanged Herself

Mrs. Godfried Boese Commits the Rash Act.

Husband Suicided Less Than Two Months Previous.

Mrs. Godfried Boese committed suicide by hanging herself last Thursday morning. She went to a room in the upper story of her home, tied a rope to a nail in the ceiling and the other end around her neck, stepped off a chair and choked to death.

Mrs. Boese is the widow of the late Godfried Boese who recently hanged himself a fence near his home. It is said that she had been in bad health and mentally deranged for some time and that she had frequently threatened to kill herself.

Conner R. L. Holman was summoned Thursday morning and immediately went to the scene and held an inquest. The coroner's jury returned a verdict in accordance with the above facts. Deceased was 59 years of age.

The Boeses were well-to-do German citizens. The family consisted of three members, Godfried Sr., Mrs. Boese and Godfried Jr. The son is the only remaining member of the family and will inherit all the property. The estate consists of several hundred acres of good land in the Damascus and Borings neighborhood.

GRAND BENEFIT.

For Benefit of Heppner Sufferers.

A concert will be given at Shively's Opera House two nights, Tuesday, June 30, and Wednesday, July 1. This entertainment should appeal to every loyal citizen as the entire profits from both evenings will go to the Heppner sufferers. The entertainments will both be given under the direction of the Juanita Concert Company of Chicago, assisted by a large number of our talented young ladies. One of the most interesting features of the program will be a Japanese wedding, given in its original form in full costume. This alone is well worth the price of admission. Another number in which sixteen girls of Oregon City will take part is a fancy drill which has been given many times under the direction of the Juanitas most successfully. In addition to the local talent will be several selections by the Juanitas. The artistic club singing by Miss Phelps given in subdued light has a very pretty effect and is particularly worthy of mention. Little Louise Conkey will render a cornet solo with much satisfaction to all. Miss Conkey was formerly cornet soloist of the California Brownies in Fairland. The singing will consist of trios, duets and solos, all being of a high standard and executed by experienced artists. To sum up the whole entertainment for both evenings we can safely say that you will laugh, you will cry and you will go away satisfied. Among those who will take part are the following: Jessie Bidie, Helen Bollerger, Nellie Kruse, April Miller, Beatrice Carlisle, Lucile Bacon, Grace Beaven, Nellie Swafford, Millie Kruse, Angie Williams, Miss Koerner, Winnie Young, Gertrude Hamilton, Ethel Jackson, Ona Renner, Maggie Williams, Ella Semper, Louise Walker, Lulu Badi, Elna Schuebel, Genevieve Caon, Carrie Warner, Moresia Hickman, Myrtle Cross, Maud Woodward, May Egge, Veta Bae-n, Olga McIlure, Ray Jackson, Ida Roppel, Myrtle Welch, Beth Cooper, Ethel Blanchard, Hazel Davidson, Leta Edmondston, Ida Straight.

Died at Salem

Mrs. R. A. Miller, Wife of Colonel Miller of Th's City.

A Good Woman Gone to Her Last Account.

The people of Oregon City were both shocked and grieved Saturday morning to learn of the death of Mrs. R. A. Miller at Salem. The death of Mrs. Miller followed an operation performed for a tumor. She went to Salem some weeks ago to visit with relatives and was immediately taken ill. While at first not much uneasiness was felt as to her recovery, her symptoms gradually grew worse until fears began to be entertained for her. Towards the end her husband was with her almost continually. At 11 o'clock Friday night she crossed the dark river.

Mrs. Miller was 44 years of age. She was a daughter of L. C. Griffith, a pioneer of the Waldo Hills, and one of the most prominent citizens of Marion county.

Mrs. Miller was for years one of the most prominent teachers in Oregon. She served as superintendent of the Salem city schools for a number of years. She was very highly cultured lady and was the ruling spirit of the Shakespeare club of this city, and frequently gave recitals which delighted all who knew her. Her name stood for all that was good in this life.

A husband, father, mother, three brothers and four sisters survive her. Her death is the first one in a family of eight children, all of whom have reached honorable manhood and womanhood.

Funeral services were held Sunday and the remains were laid to rest in the family burying grounds at Willard cemetery.

Grand Concert.

Considerable credit is due many people of this city as well as the Juanita Company for their donations. Mr. Shively, the presser and the religious organizations have generously donated the opera house, the advertising and the work connected with making this entertainment a success. Therefore, if the people of Oregon City will now be as generous or if they will turn out in a body there is no reason why we should not send to the people of Heppner at least $200, that is if you will attend the entertainment we promise that you will have your money's worth and we will as a committee acknowledge and send the proceeds to the needy ones at Heppner.

At Shively's Opera House one night, Tuesday, June 30

Attachment on Red Front Compels Store to Shut up Shop

Geo. T. Howard, the Manager, Missing Since Saturday Evening.

Geo. T. Howard, proprietor of the Red Front, has gone from Oregon City and there are many anxious creditors here who mourn his departure. Mr. Howard disappeared last Saturday and up to the present time his whereabouts are not known.

M. Michael, of Baker City, who a few months ago was in business here, came over Saturday. He held a note against Howard for goods sold him when he closed out his business here, for $190. He came to Oregon City with the purpose of seeing Mr. Howard and arranging about the note. He waited until Wednesday morning on being informed that Howard was out of town and would not be back for a day or two and then had an attachment issued on the store. The stock of goods was locked up by the sheriff pending some sort of an agreement with the creditors. The Latour-ettes were retained by Michaels and Portland creditors as attorneys.

It was only a short time until it became known that the $1900 note was but a small part of the liabilities of Mr. Howard. In Oregon City alone he owes creditors sums aggregating four or five thousand dollars, while wholesalers in Portland and San Francisco are said to be numerous. The total liabilities of the firm are variously estimated at between five and ten thousand dollars. Probably the latter figures would be nearer the correct ones.

After Howard left and up to the time of the enforced closing, Mr. Howard's wife had charge of the store.

Just what the assets of the firm are it is impossible at this hour to state. Some say that the stock of goods is worth four or five thousand dollars, but that under a forced sale it would not bring more than thirty per cent of its face value.

It is presumed that the reason Howard left was that he had obtained money from various parties by giving checks when he had no funds in the bank to meet them. Altogether these checks will not amount to quite $500. If the parties to whom these checks were given choose they could prosecute him for obtaining money under false pretenses. Nearly all the parties who hold these checks, however, have agreed that they will not prosecute but prefer to take their chances on getting the money if he should return.

Just where Mr. Howard is, is a mystery. He was reported to have gone down on the lower Columbia on a pleasure trip, but the consensus of opinion now is that he is in British Columbia.

Geo. T. Howard was for a number of years connected with the Red Front Trading company as a salesman. Later he purchased the stock of that company and began business for himself. His store was known as the Red Front, and is the farthest clothing store north on Main street. He has been liberal in this expenditures but his business ability has been questioned by some.

It is said that he frequently gave checks several days in advance, thus discounting the future. He is a notary public and did considerable business along that line.

An invoice of the store is being taken and until it is finished will the assets be known.

Benefit Dance.

The Heppner benefit dance given Wednesday evening at Canemah park, by Court Robin Hood, order of Foresters was attended by a very large crowd, notwithstanding the fact that rain fell during most of the evening. Fully two hundred persons must have been present of whom a majority were ladies. The receipts of the ball have not been footed up at the present time, but they will probably amount to something like $75.

Nash's band played for the merry-makers as also did the Parkplace band and Turney's orchestra. Nash's band looked particularly fine in their new uniforms, worn the first time for this occasion.
