SUPERIORITY OF AMERICAN WOMEN

By M. LAZARE
WEILLER, French Statesman

In France, under pain of being considered a member of the Academy of Moral Sciences, one would not dare to discuss with a woman anything other than dress, the theater, novels, gossip or love. IN THAT PREFERENCE FOR FRIVOLOUS SUBJECTS THERE ARE AT ONCE WISDOM AND CONTEMPT. —wisdom, because any one who attempts to please the women must speak of things which they understand; contempt, because the man acknowledges that the women cannot comprehend the subjects which interest himself.

In America it is entirely different. In most cases there IT IS THE WOMAN WHO ABSTAINS FROM APPROACHING CERTAIN SUBJECTS BECAUSE SHE FINDS THEM TOO HEAVY FOR THE MEN. There it is not rare for a mature man to be forced to defend himself, foot by foot, against a young woman. In these conversations she employs many new words and original expressions, proving the intensity of the reflections and the depth of the thought in her pretty little head.

THE REAL GENTLEMEN

By Senator CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW

GENTLEMAN is, above all things, honest and honorable. The term applies to no particular station in life. THE PRINCIPAL CHARACTERISTIC OF A GENTLEMAN IS CONSIDERATION FOR THE RIGHTS AND FEELINGS OF OTHERS. Clothes and clubs do not make a gentleman. A man must, however, be clean inside and out. He must interpret life sincerely. His instincts must be refined.

THE FIRST SIGN OF A GENTLEMAN IS HIS ATTITUDE TOWARD WOMEN.

Big Timber Deal

Aims at Control of the World's Market.

Harriman and Hill Unite.

San Francisco, July 25.—The Bulletin says that E. H. Harriman and James J. Hill are negotiating the great timber deal, whereby they, with a number of associates, will control the lumber market of the world. They are securing large tracts of forest land in Northern California and Oregon through their agents, who have been for some time quietly buying property on the coast. Among the associates of the two railroad magnates are Frederick Weyerhaeuser, of Minneapolis; J. B. Walker, of Minneapolis; Jacob H. Bogert, of Grand Rapids; and a number of other members of influence in the various lumber sections of the Western States.

E. W. Eberlin, of New York, has been in California for several months. He is Harriman's agent in this state, and has made frequent trips to the northern part of the state, where he has been buying up available timber lands. Eberlin has also been working toward securing options on timber land held by various Eastern people who purchased in since the boom in California timber began about three years ago.

With the many minor holdings which Harriman and his associates may count on, it is said that the plan is to merge the more valuable lands controlled by the Hill roads and the Southern Pacific into a trust. The Southern Pacific's principal holdings are represented in the grant of ten miles on each side of its road, lying between the Southern boundary line of Oregon and a point south of Portland, and consists of about 1,000,000 acres of fir and sugar pine. In his plan to place these lands in a pool, Harriman does so conditionally, with provisions for the protection of the company's creditors, to whom all the lands of the company are pledged in security for its indebtedness.

With the lands of the Hill and the Harriman roads and those of Walker, Weyerhaeuser and others in Washington, Oregon, Idaho and California under control, Harriman and his associates would be in a position to control the lumber market of the world.

UNCOMMON WISDOM.

Some Oregon City People Profit by Neighbors' Experience.

It's a wise man who profits by the experience of his friends and neighbors. Here is a chance to do it, and every man, woman or child in Oregon City who knows the misery of a bad back, the nervousness and restlessness caused by kidney complaint or the annoyance of urinary disorders, will show uncommon wisdom to profit by this advice.

G. A. Parrish, the well-known Portland musician, who lives at 33 1/2 Grand Ave., says: "My first attack of kidney complaint consisted principally of dull aching pains across the loins. I paid little attention to it at first and it gradually grew worse. When I did anything which required exertion, or if I caught cold, I was sure to have backache in an acute form. I was feeling quite miserable some time ago one evening while looking over the paper I noticed a convincing 'ad' relating to Doan's Kidney Pills, which persuaded me to purchase a box. The results I obtained from their use were satisfactory in every way."

Plenty more proof like this from Oregon City people. Call at C. G. Huntley's drug store and ask what his customers report.

Sold by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name DOAN'S and take no substitute.

Puts an End to All.

But thanks to Dr. King's New Life Pills they put an end to it all. They are gentle but thorough. Try them. Only 25c. Guaranteed by Chamberlain & Co.'s Drug Store.

Try for Health

222 South Peoria St., CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 7, 1902.

Eight months ago I was so ill that I was compelled to lie or sit down nearly all the time. My stomach was so weak and upset that I could keep nothing on it and I vomited frequently. I could not urinate without great pain and I coughed so much that my throat and lungs were raw and sore. The doctors pronounced it Bright's disease and others said it was consumption. It mattered little to me what they called it and I had no desire to live. A sister visited me from St. Louis and asked me if I had ever tried Wine of Cardui. I told her I had not and she bought a bottle. I believe that it saved my life. I believe many women could save much suffering if they but knew of its value.

Sergius Dumber

Don't you want freedom from pain? Take Wine of Cardui and make one supreme effort to be well. You do not need to be a weak, helpless sufferer. You can have a woman's health and do a woman's work in life. Why not secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today?

WINE-CARDUI

Wealthy Farmer Lynched.

The body of Mabel Richards, the 13-year-old daughter of Sheriff Richards, of Asotin county, Washington, was found in a thicket near Asatone Monday by a party of searchers. The girl had taken a short cut through the brush on her way to Sunday school. When she did not appear the alarm was given. The girl had been outraged, most of her clothing torn from her body and her skull had been crushed by a club. William Hamilton, a wealthy young rancher, was arrested charged with having committed the crime. He afterwards confessed. Wednesday morning just after midnight a mob of armed men took the prisoner from the jail tied a rope around his neck, led him a short distance to a guy wire which crossed the street and swung him up. The mob then quietly dispersed.

Died From Pain.

E. W. Hammond, a well known citizen of Highland, died Saturday morning from the result of a fall several days previous. He was engaged in working on a barn when he fell to the ground sustaining injuries that rendered him unconscious and died Saturday. He had been a resident of Clarkamas county for a number of years and at the time of his death was 64 years of age. Funeral and burial took place at Highland Sunday.

Suicide Prevented.

The startling announcement that a preventive of suicide had been discovered will interest many. A run down system, or dependency invariably precede suicide and something has been found that will prevent that condition which makes suicide likely. At the first thought of self destruction take Electric Bitters. It being a great tonic and nerve tonic will strengthen the nerves and build up the system. It's also a great Stomach, Liver and Kidney regulator. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Chamberlain & Co., Druggist.

A NURSERY IN TIBET.

Rock-a-by-babyism in the Forests of This Obscure Country.

Our first meeting with the Sifians presented many ludicrous features. We were plunging through the gloom of the forest when our ears were assailed with a concourse of yells which echoed through the supernatural silence with ghostly weirdness. In this forbidding wilderness we had not looked for signs of human habitation, so, hastily arranging ourselves in position, we prepared ourselves for what seemed an inevitable hostile attack. Long and anxiously we awaited the onslaught of our supposed hidden assailants, when again the peace disturbing sound echoed at most, it seemed, over our very heads. Glancing upward, the mystery was soon explained, for in the lower branches of the tree we could descry numerous small bundles, each too large for an eye and too small for a windfall.

Both my Kling and Ghariknese escort, with their superstitious natures roused by these ghostlike sounds, visibly paled beneath their dusky skins and gazed furtively round in order to seek means of escape from this enchanted spot. Even I was not little puzzled and awed until, peering more closely, I became aware of the fact that the disturbing elements which had caused us so much concern arose from the fact that we had unwittingly stumbled upon an aboriginal nursery and that the wailed and ghostlike sounds emanated from several hungry and lusty infant. Then the solemn stillness was broken by our hearty laughter, the Sifians and Ghariknese, as if to make amends for their credulous fears, making the woods ring with their forced guffaws. The Sifian Tibetans, as we subsequently learned, place their children in skin cradles and hang these from the trees in the forests, the first from a belief that they will be protected by the deities, the second that their full existence may not be endangered by the abominable fith and squab of the settled regions. Several times in the day they are visited by their mothers, who provide them with food and remain with them during the night, and in the forest home the child remains until it is two or three years old and has grown strong and healthy enough to stand the rigors of hardship and disease.—W. C. Jameson Reid in Collier's Weekly.

FRUITS AND FLOWERS.

High and gravelly soil is the best for fruit trees.

Mildew is the worst enemy of the gooseberry. Pruning is the best remedy.

Rosin and tallow in equal parts is an excellent covering for wounds in fruit and other trees.

To cultivate among trees use a whitewash as short as the horse can walk with. Turn the hocks in.

The weeds must be kept down around the small fruit trees and vines if the fruit is to mature and ripen right.

Look over the orchard occasionally to see that no suckers are growing from the roots of the trees to sap the strength from the main tree.

Plants in windows should be turned once or twice a week. A fine form, which is half the beauty of a plant, cannot be attained without this.

Wood ashes not only help to keep borers from the roots of trees, but the trees make a healthier and more vigorous growth and bear much sounder fruit when they are used.

The Same Old Story.

J. A. Kelly relates an experience similar to that which has happened in almost every neighborhood in the United States and has been told and retold by thousands of others. He says: "Last summer I had an attack of dysentery and purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used according to the directions and with entirely satisfactory results. The trouble was controlled much quicker than former attacks when I used other remedies. My Kelly is a well known citizen of Henderson, N. C. For sale by G. A. Harding.
