

THE STORE NOTED FOR GOOD GOODS AT THE LOWEST PRICES.

GREAT SALE

TEARING THINGS TO PIECES

Housecleaning is a cipher in comparison to a condition that will greet you on entering the store. Contractors will be at work ripping out the dividing wall.

A VISIT TO OUR STORE

Will soon convince you that we are sincere in the statement, GOODS MUST BE SOLD REGARDLESS OF COST. We are active people. We prefer keeping the doors open and sell goods less than cost than lock the doors during alterations and pack the stock down in the basement.

THERE IS A MAGNETIC CHARM

About our goods and prices that appeals to the intelligent shoppers. Working as we are—handicapped—aggravated—we have decided to tear prices to pieces and give the public one grand bargain benefit.

A SOLAR PLEXUS STRUCK

The talent when we placed the celebrated Mount Hood Shirts on the market at the extraordinary price of 25c. It is a dress shirt, white body, fancy colored front.

IN JUSTICE TO YOURSELF

You cannot afford to be indifferent or tardy. This sale means a saving of money to you. Come for your blankets, quilts, comfortables, curtains, table linens, sheets and pillow-cases—get your gloves, corsets, hosiery and Winter underwear.

THE WHOLESALE ATMOSPHERE

That surrounds you on entering our store is the atmosphere of protection in price and quality of goods—this is worth something, more particularly to those with a slender purse.

OUT OF THE ORDINARY

We will place on sale Saturday a commercial traveler's sample line of high-grade tailors suits, with coat fitting and Louis XV coats, jackets and wraps from the leading ladies' tailor in America.

McALLEN & McDONNELL CORNER THIRD AND MORRISON

Just received new styles in hats, veils and caps at Miss Goldsmith's

Young Boy about 17, can secure permanent position as clerk. Inquire Great American Imp't Tea Co, city.

John Noble has been employed by Uncle Sam to carry the mail between Gresham and Sandy and will leave shortly for Gresham where he will reside.

How many suckers were speared by the gambling device of the brass "Russian arrow," during the carnival, said suckers will never report.

A young man named Gunther Schoening was badly injured in the Willamette P. & P. Company Saturday. He became entangled in some machinery and got his arm broken in two places.

Last week Lewis Kirchner and Mr. Foster finished the carpenter work on the alterations in the orange hall at Logan. The hall is 100 feet wide and 12 feet longer than it was formerly.

Heavy rains fell all through this section of the valley from Saturday until Tuesday, entailing considerable loss to the hop growers and damaging oats that were standing in the shock considerably.

With taxes aggregating $200,000 per annum Clackamas county ought to soon wipe out her public debt and be able to use a good deal more of the money for the making of good roads.

So bountiful has the crop of plums in this part of the Willamette Valley been in this good year of our Lord, 1903, that hundreds of trees have broken down with their load of fruit and tons of it has rotted on the trees.

At Thomson's Bargain Store: New Mercerized Petticoats, 95c, $1.12, $1.29. Caps and Tams, 25c, Shawls and Fascinators, 25c.

The dozen or more citizen of this town who have molybdenum claims in Alaska have been cheered with an offer from the great Krupp—un works of $500 a ton for all of that metal they can get out.

Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Cross and their two sons returned from their mines in the Cascade range on Thursday of last week. They are highly pleased with the results of their summer's work and certain the plan of engaging in still more effective development work next year.

The Clackamas County Teachers' Institute will meet in annual session Tuesday of next week and will be in session three days. There will be something over a hundred visiting teachers in Oregon City during the meeting and they will represent something like a hundred schools in different parts of the county.

What's the matter with a county fair for Clackamae? This is one of the most prosperous counties in the state and an old fashioned county fair located at Gladstone, or in that vicinity, would prove a great attraction.

Mort Latourrette, son of C. D. Latourrette, and assistant cashier of the Bank of Oregon City, was seized with a severe and sudden attack of appendicitis the first of the week.

W. W. Smith and Tom Pankey had a dispute over politics Monday and engaged in a general mix up a la Jeffries. The street was crowded with people at the time and there were many witnesses to the melee.

Last Friday afternoon the two-year-old son of Frank Cross was engaged with his sister in playing with some straw in the yard when one of the children ignited the straw. The flames caught the clothing of the boy and he was almost instantly enveloped in flames.

It is not often that a man gets married, has a fight, is arrested and fined the same day, but this is the fate that overtook E. G. Tracey, of Portland, Tuesday. Tracey came up from Portland and was married to Miss Della Fortune by Mayor Dimick.

PERSONALS

Miss Metta Finley returned Monday from an outing at Tioga.

Charles Bitzer, who has been located at Wilhoit, was in the city this week.

Miss Effie Dury arrived in Oregon City last week, where she will reside.

Miss Julia Ramond, of Salem, was visiting friends in Oregon City Tuesday.

Misses Marjorie and Ethel Caulfield are spending the week in The Dalles.

"Railroad" Kelly is in Portland. He intends to take a run over to Liverpool.

Miss Lucia Cochran, of Salem, was the guest of her brother, J. W. Cochran Sunday.

W. R. Logus, formerly operator for the Postal Telegraph Co., was in town Monday.

Miss Annie McMonagle, of Portland visited relatives in Oregon City Monday.

Mr. Goodhue, of Walla Walla, Wash., was visiting friends in Oregon City Wednesday.

Howard Brownell and H. Hart have returned from the upper hatchery on the Clackamas.

Miss Mamie Gleason returned home Sunday in a three week's stay at Wallace, Idaho.

Mrs. Marion Phillips was returned from Albany, where she spent several weeks with relatives.

C. C. Babcock returned in the beginning of the week from a pleasure trip up the Clackamas river.

Miss Minnie Grace will leave for Warren this week where she has been employed as a teacher.

State Senator George Hurley, of Republic, Wash., was in Oregon City Sunday, the guest of his cousin, Mrs. Chas. Babcock.

Miss May Wishart left Wednesday for Portland, where she will spend a week with her sister, Mrs. Herbert J. Thorne.

Mrs. P. Foley and daughter, Geraldine, of Sellwood, spent Labor Day in Oregon City the guests of Mrs. John Gleason and daughters.

Mrs. Fred Hahn, of Portland, was an Oregon City visitor Saturday last. Mr. and Mrs. Hahn were former residents of New Era and still own a farm there.

Ed Shaw, the efficient nightwatchman, has been suffering from a badly swollen eye for some time past but the swollen organ is somewhat improved at present.

Mr. Charles A. Parker, the barber, wife and family spent a very pleasant week at the Dalles last week. They went up the Columbia on the boat and were delighted with the trip.

Mrs. Loraine J. Pitken, General Grand Secretary of the order of the Eastern Star of the United States, visited Mrs. Miller of Gladstone last Sunday. Mrs. Miller is Third Grand Matron of the Grand Council of Oregon.

Fred Terry and wife leave this week for Republic, Wash., where they will make their future home. Mr. Terry has been engaged as a millwright in the paper mills at this place for the past 15 years and voluntarily gave up his situation. He will run a large ranch in the vicinity of Republic.

Mrs. Frank Stout and two children, of St. Joseph, Missouri, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Babcock the past week, returned to their home Wednesday morning. Mrs. Stout is a niece of Mrs. Mary McCarter, of this city, and this is her first visit here. She was very much impressed with the state.

Mr. Charles Catta and his good wife, the smiling hosts of the Brunswick hostelry, returned to Oregon City on Monday last, after an absence of two weeks at Hot Lake, Oregon. Mr. Catta and his wife are loud in their praise of Hot Lake and believe it to be one of the most remarkable resorts in the state of Oregon. They took the hot baths and drank the hot water and felt the beneficial effects of both.

Ed Fields, the popular, clever and affable agent of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, is off for a two weeks' vacation. He will spend his outing in the delightful city of Oregon City, the best summer resort in the world and has employed two or three good fellows to help him. Mr. Fields is one of the "sweet singers" of the Maccabee Quartette, and is a fine fellow generally. Here is hoping that his outing may prove to be an entire success.

Oscar La Forest, of Los Angeles, Cal., son of Mrs. Mary LaForest, and brother of Mrs. Henry Meldrum, arrived in Oregon City Sunday, where he visited until Wednesday evening, when he left for his home in the Golden State. Mr. LaForest has many friends here, whom he had not seen for several years. He has been with the Southern Pacific Company for a number of years, and has been rapidly promoted, being now passenger conductor on the Salt Lake division.

Mr. J. J. Green, of Aberdeen, Washington, a former resident of this city has been visiting his father's family, Harmon Green, since last Tuesday. He came over primarily to see his mother who has been very ill for the past several months. Mr. Green is employed as cook in a logging camp at Aberdeen and is making very good wages. He cooks for a camp of forty men and likes his work and is saving his money. Mr. Green is accompanied by his wife and one of his boys and will remain in Oregon City for two or three weeks.

Hon. Charles J. Schnable one of the prominent lawyers of Oregon, with his office in Portland was in Oregon City on business Tuesday. Mr. Schnable is one of the most prominent Elks in Portland, was on the ill fated train which was wrecked on its way to the Olam bake at Olympia recently. He was not hurt but had a narrow call for his life. Mr. Schnable is one of the best story tellers in the state and for two hours on Wednesday evening entertained a bunch of his friends in Oregon City with his laughable and side splitting jokes.

STILL AT LARGE.

Horsethief Makes Good His Escape.

No trace has been discovered of the horsethief who left two stolen horses at Dimick's livery stable in this city last week. The horse stolen from Dixon has been purchased by Wm. Trimble, the blacksmith. The other animal yet remains in the stable as also does the buggy and camping outfit.

Thursday morning Jones came down from Medford and immediately identified the bay mare as his property. He says she was stolen from him at Medford four months ago. The night after the mare was stolen the other horse was stolen from Dixon at Grants Pass. The two towns are 35 miles apart and the thief must have ridden a distance of 35 miles on the day intervening between the robberies.

Wagon Stolen

Wednesday afternoon W. A. Hayes, of Portland, came to Oregon City in search of a wagon which had been stolen from him a few days previous. He thinks the wagon was stolen by gypsies. A neck yoke had been stolen from the stable of A. Robertson a day or two previous, and this circumstance taken with the fact that the wagon was minus a neck yoke leads to the belief that both wagon and neck yoke were stolen by the same parties.

Letter List

Following is the list of letters remaining in the Oregon City postoffice on Sept. 10, 1903:

Women's List—Mrs Mahala, Mrs N J Clemons, Mrs Andy Eters, Mrs Lottie Jones, Miss Edna Mahony, Miss Olive Maxson, Mrs Fannie Neppack, Mrs Bridget Duffy, package.

Men's List—Charles Beeler, Alfred W Beggs, J H Bradley, J J Bradley, C W Frik, J C Evans, Martin Everett, John W A Guild, S Howard, J Kuzes, Hon H B Plummer, C G Rose, Wm Wohr, M V Everett, package.

TOM P. RANDALL, P. M.

THE OLD RELIABLE

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure

THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

"Poor Bickars has a very hard hearted wife," said Tripvat. "What's the trouble now?" asked Dicer. "She not only broke the broomstick over his head, but made him go to the store and buy another."

Well Worn. Wigg—That was a pretty old joke Borem cracked at dinner. Wagg—Borem didn't crack it. That joke has been cracked for years.—Philadelphia Record.

Proof Absolute. Peters—What proof did the doctors have for declaring Black insane? Farr—He refused to take their medicine.—Baltimore American.

Classified Advertisements.

Wanted—Fifteen men and teams for hauling ties. Address Rodlum Bros, Gresham, Oregon.

Fruit Trees, Roses—Berryplants, ornamentals. Inquire C. W. Swallow, Oregon City 18 2m.

Wanted—Bright, honest, hustling boy of neat appearance, capable of earning $10 per week to work in home town. Address Carroll's Chocolate Chip Co., Portland, Or.

Found—On the streets of Oregon City, package of laundry containing suit of mens underwear and black working shirt. Owner can get same by calling at this office and paying for this ad. Cost 25 cents

Money to Loan—7 per cent interest allowed on money left with me to loan. Principal with accrued interest returned upon demand. Abstracts furnished. G. B. Dimick, Attorney-at-law, Oregon City, Ore.

A Word About School Supplies

We have made a specialty of these goods for 12 years. It is to be supposed that we have learned something about them in that time.

We know the shapes, sizes and styles the teachers want—if you buy here there will be no complaint that the children haven't the proper supplies.

We have learned when to buy the best values—all stores have 5c tablets but compare the quantity and quality in our tablets with others of equal price. It's the same all through the line.

We know the right books for the different grades—can save you useless changes.

We will take your old books in exchange if in usable condition.

We have second-hand books for sale at 1/2 to 3/4 regular prices.

HUNTLEY BROTHERS DRUGGISTS AND BOOKSELLERS

Brunswick House and Restaurant

Newly Furnished Rooms, Meals at All Hours, Open Day and Night, Prices Reasonable.

...Only First-Class Restaurant in the City...

Opposite Suspension Bridge, Oregon City, Ore.

The Mortar And the Pestle

Are a mighty combination, and together they have helped to down more diseases than all patent medicines in the market. It stands to reason, that a physician can only win the fight against death by using strong, virile drugs.

Your Doctor Sends You Here

Because he knows you will get your medicine made up just as he prescribes it. He also knows that our drugs are fresh. We like to have you call even if you only want a postage stamp.

HOWELL & JONES THE RELIABLE DRUGGISTS

CHAMBERS HOWELL LINN E. JONES