

THE STORE NOTED FOR GOOD GOODS AT THE LOWEST PRICES.

GREAT SALE

TEARING THINGS TO PIECES

Housecleaning is a cipher in comparison to a condition that will greet you on entering the store. Contractors will be at work ripping out the dividing wall. But we have something to offer as a relief for any inconvenience you may be subjected to.

A VISIT TO OUR STORE

Will soon convince you that we are sincere in the statement, GOODS MUST BE SOLD REGARDLESS OF COST. We are active People. We prefer keeping the doors open and sell goods less than cost than lock the doors during alterations and pack the stock down in the basement.

THERE IS A MAGNETIC CHARM

About our goods and prices that appeals to the intelligent shoppers. Working as we are—handicapped—aggravated—we have decided to tear prices to pieces and give the public one grand bargain benefit. This will be appreciated by those competent to judge values.

A SOLAR PLEXUS STRUCK

The talent when we placed the celebrated Mount Hood Shirts on the market at the extraordinary price of 25c. It is a dress shirt, white body, fancy colored front. The shirts will be on sale every day till all are sold.

IN JUSTICE TO YOURSELF

You cannot afford to be indifferent or tardy. This sale means a saving of money to you. Come for your blankets, quilts, comfortables, curtains, table linens, sheets and pillow cases—get your gloves, corsets, hosiery and Winter underwear.

THE WHOLESOME ATMOSPHERE

That surrounds you on entering our store is the atmosphere of protection in price and quality of goods—this is worth something more particularly to those with a slender purse. But now—during our great alteration sale—a like opportunity may not occur again.

OUT OF THE ORDINARY

We will place on sale Saturday a commercial traveler's sample line of high-grade tailors suits, with corset fitting and Louis XV coats, jackets and wraps from the leading ladies' tailor in America. secured for 60c on the dollar. There is only one garment of each. Come early for first choice.

Dr. J. W. Norris has a cherry tree in his yard that is a curiosity in its way. After having born a large crop of cherries in June it is now in the middle of September in full bloom again and covered with small cherries which would no doubt ripen into luscious fruit were it not so late in the season.

An effort is now on foot to establish a free rural route known as number three from Oregon City, on the West Side, going out by way of Willamette to Stafford and back over the Oswego road to the Shipley place and from thence into town through West Oregon City. This would be one of the most desirable routes that could be established, would be over good roads and would serve quite a large population and would be a good thing not only for Oregon City but for the population so served.

The Mortar And the Pestle

Are a mighty combination, and together they have helped to down more diseases than all patent medicines in the market. It stands to reason, that a physician can only win the fight against death by using strong, virile drugs. Such drugs can only be found in a first-class pharmacy where prescriptions are carefully compounded. "Carefully compounded" means something here.

The large hop farmers were so busy in gathering their hops that those of them who had grain to harvest neglected it. Last week in the Champoeg neighborhood fields of grain were yet standing uncut, others stood in the shock, and these stacks were seen half completed. Each day of hop picking meant a few hundred dollars more into the hungry pocket of the ranchers and if they would not neglect the golden opportunity.

This week will witness the beginning of the picking of prunes in Clackamas county and the ending of the picking of hops. The hop crop, while not large, is fairly satisfactory and whatever the shortage in the crop may be will be more than amply made up by the magnificent prices which are being paid. The prune crop is a good one and with fair weather this week and next will be dried in great condition and bring to the prune growers a fine bunch of money.

Assessor Nelson says that in his opinion, in case the changes made by the last legislature in the assessment law are found to be invalid because unconstitutional, the only effect will be that the extra appropriations, such as $23,000 addition to the school funds in this county, will be knocked out. The assessment roll having been made in conformity both to the law as it stood before amendment and as it stands now, viz., assessment at cash value, cannot, Mr. Nelson believes, fall of unqualified validity.

Somebody was relating the other day about a farmer whose son was a Latin student. When the boy came home for his summer vacation he was too lazy to work on the farm. One day the old man showed him a pitchfork, a pile of hay and a cart. "What do you call them in Latin?" he asked. "Forkibus, hayibus et, cartibus," was the reply. "Well, now," said the farmer, "if you don't take that forkibus and pitch that hayibus into that cartibus I'll break your lazy backibus." The boy went to workibus at onceibus as one would easily guessibus.
