OREGON CITY, OREGON

PERSONALS

—Mrs. A. Farr left Monday for a two weeks' visit at Salem and Mehama.

—Miss Anna Penman, of New Era, was transacting business in Oregon City Tuesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Evans, of Mulino, were transacting business in Oregon City Wednesday.

—Mrs. Henton entertained a few of her friends at tea last Friday afternoon. A very enjoyable time was passed.

—D. F. Warner, of Currinsville, notified us to send his paper to Silvertown, as he is now a resident of that place.

—Mrs. George W. Bibee and Miss Ethel Graves left Saturday for Sheridan where they remained over Sunday.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ringo and family, of Clarke, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Grace last Saturday and Sunday.

—Mrs. John Hendricks, of Carlton, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. William Galloway, Sunday. She returned home Monday.

—Dr. C. S. Seaman has permanently located in the Willamette building, opposite the post office, where he can be found at all times.

—Mrs. J. G. Pillsbury, of Portland, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Mary Barlow, for several days past, returned to her home Tuesday.

—Mrs. L. P. Green, of Lincoln, Marion county, was the guest of her uncle, J. S. Furdum, last week. Mrs. Green went from here to Whitcomb, Wash., to visit friends.

—Max Telford, an employee of the Snoqualmie Falls electric power plant, is the guest of friends in this city. Mr. Telford is taking a hunt in the valley while here.

—Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Clark left Monday for North Bend. Mr. Clark is superintendent of the woolen mills there. Mrs. Clark will remain with her husband during the winter.

—Ira Dickey and his nephew, Victor Dickey, of Dickey's Parfries, passed through Oregon City last Friday on their way to Grant county, where they will remain two or three weeks on pleasure bent. They went up the Columbia by boat as far as Celilo where they took passage on the train to Shaniko. From Shaniko the remainder of the journey was made by wagon. The elder Mr. Dickey has been a resident of Clackamas county for the past 49 years, and though living within ten miles of Barlow station says he has never seen Barlow. In all that time he has been to Canby but once, though Canby is his nearest place of business. He had never seen the Columbia river until he made his trip, though living within thirty miles of it. The Dickeyes are prominent democrats of the Molalla precinct.

Rev. W. S. Grimm Goes to Astoria While Rev. Wood Comes Here.

The district conference in session last week at Salem has assigned Rev. W. S. Grimm, who has for the past two years presided over the destinies of the Methodist flock in this city, to Astoria and Rev. Henry Wood has been assigned to this charge. The following ministers have been assigned to the Salem district, several of the churches of which are in Clackamas county:

Salem district—Beaverton, S. F. Clemons; Brooks, J. M. Seavey; Canby, J. L. Stratford; Clackamas and Oswego, A. O. Brackenbury; Cornelius, R. B. Wilkins; Dayton, R. F. Dunlap; Dilley and Lafayette, J. G. Alford; Forest Grove, L. F. Bakken; Hillsboro, E. F. Zimmerman; Highland and Clark, supply; Lincoln, D. H. Leach; Margum, C. A. Stock; McMinnville, C. L. Hamilton; Nehalem and Bay City, Wilford Smith; Newberg, Hiram Gould; North Yamhill, W. B. Moore; Oregon City, J. Henry Wood; Salem, First church, W. H. Epps; Salem, Leslie, W. S. Gordon; Sellwood, O. A. Lewis; Silvertown, E. B. Lockhart; Tillamook, A. J. Hollingsworth; Viola, supply; Woodburn, S. H. Greenleaf; D. A. Waters, presiding elder.

Rev. Grimm is a young man who has done a good work in the religious field in Oregon City and there are many people, both in and out of his congregation who are loth to see him leave and hope that he will be equally successful in his new field of labor. Rev. Wood comes highly recommended, having formerly presided over the Methodist church at North Yakima, Washington.

BAPTIST MEETINGS NEXT WEEK

Oregon Baptists will meet in Oregon City next Monday and will continue in session five days. The meetings which will be held here are, The Oregon Baptist Ministers' Conference, the Oregon Baptist State Convention, the Oregon Baptist Young People's Union, the Women's Baptist Foreign Missionary Society and The Women's Baptist Home Missionary Society. The program was outlined in these columns last week. Leading Baptist divines from all over the state will be present as will many members of the church from outside counties, and altogether a very large number is expected to attend.

GETS RAISE OF SALARY.

The Rev. Dr. Gibbons, of Spokane, Washington, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church of Oregon City, recently received a call to a Presbyterian church in Indiana and tendered his resignation to his Spokane congregation, who, by a vote of 120 to 18, refused to accept his resignation and unanimously agreed to raise his salary from $2000 to $2400.

CONGREGATIONALIST MEETING CLOSURE.

The Congregationalist convention which was in session as we went to press last week, adjourned Thursday evening. The large number of ministers and delegates who were in attendance departed for their several homes. Resolutions were adopted thanking the people of Oregon City for hospitality during the meeting. The next convention will be held in Portland.

Mountain View.

Wedding bells are reported as in the near future.

Sickness has again entered this peaceful burg.

Mrs. Craig and Miss Hattie Ringo are both seriously ill.

Frank Ringo has gone to Eastern Oregon for a two weeks' visit.

Next Sunday, Oct. 11, the Mount View Sunday school will have a rally day for the beginning of a New Year.

Evan Williams has gone to the Hot Springs for his health and his wife, Mrs. Clara Williams and daughter, are staying with her mother, Mrs. F. A. Ely, during Mr. Williams' absence.

Mr. Dixon has sold his farm and they have possession last week and are now living with their son, Elmer, who has built a new barn and will keep a horse and buggy.

J. W. Craig and family will move into E. Story's house near the United Brethren church, as soon as Mrs. Craig is able.

Mr. Vanover and family, of Maple Lane, have moved into the Glither house.

Mrs. Clara Williams is on the sick list this week.

John T. Francis, who went to Klondike or Dawson, last March, returned home this week well pleased with his trip. Frank Sager, who went with him, expects to remain in Alaska all winter. Elwood Frost is at home again having returned home Tuesday evening.

Miss Reta Pierce is attending school in Portland. She is taking a course in stenography.

Improvements are still going on in this little burg.

F. A. Ely is having his new wood shed painted and new walks made.

J. W. Corrin is building a new sidewalk on the Heckart property. He will also give his barn a coat of paint next week.

Hunting birds seem to be the order of the day.

Mr. Sager, of Clarke, was the guest of J. M. Gillett Wednesday morning.

Do You Want to Yawn?

Food cold, aching in the bones, lack of energy, headache and great depression? These symptoms may be followed by violent headaches, high fever, extreme nervousness, a condition known as malaria. Herbine cures it. Take it before the disease gets a fair hold, though it will work a cure in any stage. J. A. Hopkins, Manchester, Kas., writes: "I have used your great medicine, Herbine, for several years. There is nothing better for malaria, chills and fever, headache, biliousness and for a blood purifying cure, there is nothing as good." 25c at Charman & Co.
