He rising young lawyers of the state. He has been engaged in the practice of law since 1893. Mr. Hedges is a native son. He was born in Canemah just south of Oregop City, June 2, 1864. He is yet well under 40 years of age. Until he was 14 years of age he attended the schools of this county, after which he took a course at the Bishop Scott Academy at Portland, where he was afterwards an instructor for four years. In 1887 he instructor for four years. In 1887 he entered Yale University taking a classical course from which institution he was graduated with high honors in 1891. Mr. Hedges then returned to Oregon and began the practice of his profession in the city of Pertland, where he remained for two years. In 1805 he opened a law office in this city associ-ating himself with his present partner, Hon. Franklin T. Griffith. As a lawyer he is careful and painstaking and is recogn zed as one of the ablest lawyers of the Clackamas county bar. Mr. Hedges has the respect and confidence of the entire community. In politics he is an ardent Democrat and while he has not been an office seeker and as yet has held no office his party has its eye upon him and one of these days may call on him to go up higher. dozen years since Mr. Bush opened up his department store or house furnishing goods store in this city. At that time his store was a small affair and he began his business in an humble and quiet way. He has paid strict attention to ever detail of his business, has from time to time enlarged his place of business un-til at present he has the entire two low-er floors of the Weinbardt building. His business has grown with the passing years. It now takes ten clerks to wait on the throng of customers which from day to day crowd his emporium. Mr. Bush is a liberal progre sive citizen who has done much and is willing to do more to advance the business interests of Oregon Oity. His business methods are fair and above reproach. He asks no favors and pushes his business along legitimate lines. He's well liked by his neighbors and friends who are pleased at the evidences of prosperity

Oregon City is one of the best cities in the state of Oregon. It's business is growing apace. Its population is in-creasing from day to day. There are many reasons which contribute to its growth and development. It's citizenpositors. Our stores are bee hives, where he who wants to buy has to take his turn if he gets to the bargain counter. Our schools are full of bright, happy children an augury for the good days that are to come for the town. Our churches are well served and the morals of the town are of the best.

R. R. McLeod, who made the survey for the Southern Pacific Railway Com-pany through Milwaukie for the new line up to Oregon City and across the Willametteriver, is surveying the branch up the Tualatin river towards Hillsboro. He was back in Milwaukie last week, and said that he expected the right-of-way man along in a short time to interview the property owners through whose land the new branch would run. Mr. McLeod sent in his report of the survey made through Milwaukie time ago, but had not heard anything adverse to it, and hence had concluded that it was approved.

The survey through Milwaukie passes through several houses, and cuts up considerable property, but the owners are enterprising and will not fight the road, but naturally are a little anxious to
