The Work of the Year reviewed and Plans For the Future Being Arranged.

We have with us this week in Oregon City the representatives of the Baptist churches of the state of Oregon. They are holding their annual convention and conference. On the first day of the session more than one hundred delegates registered representing practically every Baptist church in the state and every community where the Baptist people have secured a foothold. The delegates are made up of representative citizens, preachers, laymen and godly women. The convention is a good looking body of men and sisters and they are in earnest in their work.
It is interesting to note that the Battist church is one of the strongest denominations in the state of Oregon. According to their last report they had nine association with a total of 113 churches and a total of more than 7,000 members with 6,500 children in their Sunday schools. Their property in the state is valued at $350,000 and their current expenses are nearly $30,000 a year.
They contribute each year $2,000 to state missions, $1,500 to home missions and more than $5,000 to foreign missions and they contribute to Christian education and other benefactions some $3750 bringing their grand total of benefactions up to $10,000 per annum.
The last year according to reports being received by the convention has shown a substantial growth both in churches, membership and finances.
Many preachers of eminent ability are in attendance representing every part of the state. Some are here from distant countries. Among these are Rev.
John M. Foster, missionary of Shawty, China; Rev. L. Wallace Terry, general missionary for Western Washington, and Rev. P. G. Seymour, field secretary for the Baptist Publication Society.

REV. MR. BEAVEN IS PRESIDENT.
Missionary topics engaged the attention of the annual meeting of the State Baptist Association Wednesday. Wednesday night, the convention was addressed by Rev. R. G. Seymour, D. D., field secretary of the Baptist Publication Society, Philadelphia, and Miss Mary Burdette, of Chicago.
In the election of officers Wednesday a number of those who have served during the past year were retained in their respective stations for the ensuing year. The newly elected officers are:
President, Rev. J. H. Beaven, of Oregon City; vice-president, Rev. W. P.
Elmore, Portland; recording secretary, land; S. O. Miller, W. T. Ellis, of Baker City; H. F. Merrill, of Albany, and A.

L. Veazie, of Portland, constitute the new board of managers.
A deficit of $190.93 was reported for the year and this amount was provided for in a free will offering. Rev. R. Mc-Killip, of Ashland, presented the report of the state missions and the subject was discussed by Rev. A. J. Hun-
