

SHYLOCK

Shylock was the man who wanted a pound of human flesh. There are many Shylocks now, the convalescent, the consumptive, the sickly child, the pale young woman, all want human flesh and they can get it—take Scott's Emulsion.

Scott's Emulsion is flesh and blood, bone and muscle. It feeds the nerves, strengthens the digestive organs and they feed the whole body.

For nearly thirty years Scott's Emulsion has been the great giver of human flesh.

We will send you a couple of ounces free.

Redland
One of the saddest incidents of years happened here on Sunday, 15th. Mr. Allen, who arrived here from Wisconsin to visit his children, Mrs. Ruth Hickman and Arnold Allen, died. He was feeling even better than usual, when after dinner he announced he would take his usual nap after which he was preparing to put on his shoes, when he fell to the floor, and before any one could reach him, his life had gone. Mr. Allen was 83 years old. The doctor pronounced it apoplexy. He was revered and loved by all who knew him. The remains were sent home for burial.
With the saddest regret we announce the departure of one of our most highly respected citizens, Wm. Morgan, a man who grew up here in our neighborhood, was called away by the hand of God, on Tuesday the 13th of asthma. The remains were laid to rest by those of his father in the Redland country. Deceased was 45 years of age and unmarried. A mother one sister and two brothers mourn his departure.
Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Robert Connor came from Cosoband to pay their last respects to a beloved son and brother.
Earnest Linn and Miss Maude Eaton were married on Wednesday. The boys celebrated the event by a loud ring of cow bells and pans in which the boys wished them a long and prosperous life.
Potato digging and fall work in going along lively.
Ray Black has been assigned to the Viola circuit of the Salem M. E. conference.
Harry Mosher was down from Willamette University of Salem on a hunting trip. He found farmers trespass notices more plentiful than birds.
Jas. Severe, of Viola, is looking for a millwright for a saw mill here.
Our new road is most completed.
B. E. Courtright expects to go to Eastern Oregon and Washington, in a few days. He goes in the employe of L. Shank of Portland.
"Take them out; heal the wound," cures the pin. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, the household remedy.

The bridesmaid was Miss Celina Jones, sister of the bride, and Mr. A. L. Flemming, of Portland, acted as best man. Little Miss Scobee was the ring bearer.
The house was beautifully decorated with fir, cedar, flowers, evergreens and sweet briar. The couple stood under a bower of ferns and cut flowers. The bride looked charming in dove color Henrietta, and wore a wreath of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid wore a dove colored Henrietta skirt and waist of white. Jotted aiviss.
After the ceremony the guests partook of a bountiful repast. Mr. and Mrs. Londergan will spend their honeymoon in Portland.
