

THE STORE NOTED FOR GOOD GOODS AT THE LOWEST PRICES.

OUR SURROUNDINGS

Due to alterations--remodeling and enlarging our stores ---are not the same as in the palace of a king, but we have the goods, and the magnetic money-saving prices attract attention

McAllen & McDonnell POPULAR DRY GOODS STORE 1 CORNER THIRD AND MORRISON

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

J. W. Ballou and family, residing in Green Point, left on Monday.

Mrs. Nathan Tingle, who recently underwent an operation at a Portland hospital, is rapidly convalescing.

E. A. Brady has Jesse Moore whiskey in barrels and cases. It is the best of Kentucky Bourbons. Call on him for it.

Thomson's Bargain Store remodeled now, the best lighted store in town. Fall stock complete. Prices always the lowest.

Jennie Harrison and Thomas W. Phillips were married in this city last Monday, Rev. E. S. Bollinger officiating.

There is no more exhilarating beverage than Red Top Rye or the Planet Whiskey. Kelly & Ruconich, in the Garde Building.

Dr. C. S. Seann has permanently located in the Willemette building, opposite the postoffice, where he can be found at all times.

The Courier office is undergoing some extensive repairs this week. The Courier will shortly install a new press and will issue a 12-page paper.

Homestead receipts issued Saturday from the land office to Leon D. Hedges, of Meham, Or., to 160 acres in section 24, township 8 south of range 2 east.

The O. C. Mig. Co. has received a carload of iron pipe, some of it six-inch for its new buildings. The rotary drier will need the larger portion of this.

Almost every day we are asked to suppress some item of news. News is news and we are not in the news suppressing business, and if you don't want to get in print keep out of trouble.

Senator Brownell addressed the grange meeting at Eagle Creek, Saturday afternoon. In the evening he and Mayor Dimick attended a meeting of the Macabee Lodge at that place.

The piano guessing contest is attracting considerable amount of attention already. Come in and subscribe for the Courier and make an estimate on the number of seeds in the pumpkin. You may win.

Charles D. Dye brought suit for divorce Monday from his wife, Gertrude Dye. The parties were married at Yuma, Arizona, in May, 1902, and two months later Dye says his wife deserted him. There are no children.

A horse ran out on the trestle on the West Side railroad last Sunday evening and was unable to get back. It took several hours to extricate the animal from its perilous position and the 9:30 car was delayed until near midnight.

Louis Farr was the recipient of a surprise birthday party at his home on First and Adams streets, last Saturday night. The evening was passed with games, singing, and light refreshments. About 25 friends of Mr. Farr were present.

Ellery's Royal Italian Band, consisting of 57 pieces, was the attraction at the opera house last Monday evening. Nothing in the way of band music has ever appeared on the local stage that was anything to compare with this and to say that the large audience was delighted is but putting it mildly.

Eva Garrick has brought suit for a divorce from her husband, Webster F. Garrick, on the grounds of desertion. The parties were married in Portland in 1890 and the husband deserted the wife three years ago. There are two children for which the plaintiff asks the custody.

A little thing sometimes results in death. Thus a mere scratch, insignificant cuts or puny boils have paid the death penalty. It is wise to have Bucklen's Arnica Salve on ever handy. It is the best Salve on earth and will prevent fatality, when Burns, Sores, Ulcers and Piles threaten. Only 25c, at Charman's Drug Store.

The fish ladder at Willamette Falls, for which an appropriation of $5000 was made at the last session of the legislature, will not be built this year. Last week suit was filed in the Clackamas Circuit Court by Archie Pease, of Portland, Hattie M. Corbett and Elizabeth Lamb against Ernest P. Rands, the contractor, for $50,000 damages, and for an injunction restraining Rands from going ahead with the work. The plaintiffs claim that for the past 20 years they have had a two-third interest in all the fishing rights at all times at Moore's Island over which the ladder was to have been built, and it is on this ground that they have brought the suit which will delay the building of the ladder.

J. J. Cooke has organized an orchestra which will play at dances, entertainments, etc. during the winter. The old orchestra of Cooke's formerly gave satisfaction.

Richard Petzold, the butcher, has received from Eastern Oregon a carload of fine cattle for butchering purposes. Patrons of his shop will do well to call early.

Wes Sumner, of Mount Pleasant, will start next week with his family and a lot of stock of all kinds for the Reservation plains in Crook county. Takes boat to the Dalles.

Bro. Matthews will hold divine services at the home of Bro. Bruce, head of Seventh street, Saturday and Sunday. The Primitive Baptists having no house of worship in the city meet at the homes of the faithful.

Mrs. Margaret J. Dodson died at her home in Oregon City Tuesday at the age of 68 years, 4 months and 12 days. Funeral services were conducted from the Presbyterian church, Thursday, by Rev. Frank Mixsell and the remains were interred in the Mountain View cemetery.

John Scott, a pioneer of the early fifties, died at his home at Highland land Tuesday at the age of 77 years. He was a prominent citizen and highly respected. Six children survive him. The funeral services and burial took place at Highland yesterday.

The King's Daughters of the Episcopal church will give a Halloween party Friday evening, Oct. 30, at Willamette hall. There will be a short musical program, dancing and a gypsy fortune teller who will give you your fortune free. Turney's orchestra will furnish the music. Admission 25 cents. All are cordially invited.

C. Powell and J. N. Elliott, arrived in Oregon City with their families from Roseburg Monday morning. They have bought 140 acres of land five miles from town on the Molalla road and immediately removed to their new homes. The Courier extends a welcome to the new comers and hopes they may prosper.

PIANOS AT A BARGAIN—We have two upright pianos for sale—One Schumann and one Dunham & Co., also one square piano. All in first-class condition and a great bargain to any one. They must be sold at once to make room for our Fall and Winter stock. The first caller gets them. W. L. Block, The Home Furnisher.

Corporal Calder and Sergeant Maccom were here two days last week seeking recruits for the United States Army. They put in two full days and did not receive a single application. The pay of privates in the U. S. A. is so small that no young man can afford to enlist for the emoluments derived and few care to go into the service in times of peace for the glory there is in it. It would seem that in order to secure a better grade of recruits that the pay of privates will have to be increased.

The quarterly meeting of the M. E. church, South, for Oregon City church will be held at the Congregational church at Ely next Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 24th and 25th. Rev. Henry Spiess, the newly appointed presiding elder, will be present to preside over the conference and will preach Saturday at 7 p. m., and also Sunday morning and evening. Business session of conference will follow the service Saturday evening. Love feast at 10 a. m. and communion at 12 o'clock on Sunday. J. W. Craig, P. C.

The new railroad being surveyed through the Eastern part of the county runs according to the latest survey about one mile from Liberal. The line passes through the farm of J. O. Morris and he has agreed to give the company five acres of good land for its round house, depot and buildings and expects that quite a village will grow up on his farm if the railroad is finally built. He is laying off a part of the farm into lots and will place them on the market at a reasonable price just as soon as the railroad is certainly.

Anna W. Kenny has brought suit for divorce from her husband, Andrew A. Kenny, on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment. The plaintiff alleges that she and her husband were married in August, 1887, and that nearly ever since that time her husband has mistreated her. He complained constantly about her cooking and on divers occasions refused to eat the food she cooked for him and talked about it in a sarcastic manner. He was addicted to drunkenness she says, and on more than one occasion when drunk had abused her shamefully. He has also refused to support her. Two children have been born to the unhappy couple and Mrs. Kenny asks that she be given custody of them for the reason that her husband is not a proper person to look after them. She also asks to be allowed to resume her maiden name. Hedges & Griffith are attorneys for the plaintiff.

About 2500 sawed railway ties are piled up at the Paper Mill station, Park-place.

Recently a wild storm blew sundry trees into the Barlow road over the Cascades. They are doubtless by this time removed.

The biggest radish we have seen this year was brought to this office last week by W. O. Ganong. The radish weighed just 14 pounds, was six inches in thickness 12 and inches in length.

The Courier office has in its show window a fine variety of apples grown by A. J. Lewis, of Maple Lane. The apples are as fine as were ever grown in Oregon or anywhere else for that matter.

This little squib ought in all conscience, to be a fair warning to the married Sellwood woman who often leaves her children, to meet at Meldrum station a young dude from Parkplace.

The fill being made by the motor line in Clackamas bottom, has raised the bicycle path at the point where it used to cross under the trestle, about 12 feet. The fact is the path is gone up the spout and will stay gone.

Harry Gard with his wife and four small children and his cousin, left their home in Clarkes on Tuesday, bound for the Warm Springs Reservation lands. They went by steamer to The Dalles and took a team with wagon and a cow.

Saturday was a red-letter day for Geo. Hulbert, the jolly proprietor of the Farmer's Feed Yard. His wife returned from a visit of two months in Nebraska, with headquarters at Kearney. Mr. Hulbert was formerly in business in that cyclonic state.

The Northern Pacific has issued a handsome pamphlet with the map of Oregon, on one side and various illustrations of the various industries of the state and an excellent description of the same printed on the other side. Parties desiring these pamphlets may secure them by calling on agent Frizelle.

The driven well of Mr. Harris, the ice man, on his Goose Flat property, is worth a small fortune. From the six-inch tube, which extends down 60 feet, or to the water stratum, a steam pump drew 15 gallons per minute for five hours, without perceptibly lowering the water. Mr. Harris is now making the machinery for his ice factory.

First Church of Christ (Scientists) Garde building, Cor. Seventh and Main St. Services begin Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m. The subject of the sermon is "Everlasting Punishment." Children's Sunday school meets at 10 a. m. Testimonial meeting Wednesday evenings at 8 o'clock. Reading room open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week from 2 to 4 p. m.

Henry Snawise brought suit in the Clackamas Circuit court Monday to have the marriage vows uniting himself and Annie Snawise dissolved. He alleges unfaithfulness on the part of his wife, who he says has frequently committed adultery, and who is now engaged in immoral practices in Dawson, N. W. T. The parties were married Nov. 4, 1890, and have been residents of Portland.

The Milwaukie Grange Fair which was held last Friday and Saturday was a most successful meeting both in point of agricultural products exhibited and in attendance at the evening meetings. The agricultural products were wide and varied and numerous prizes were awarded, several of which were given to Clackamas county people. Ladies' fancy work was also exhibited in profusion. Entertainments were given at each night session, winding up with a dance on Saturday evening.

Col. J. B. Pithian, 21 or more years ago publisher of a Democratic paper here, is editor of The Lantern in Portland.

Burmeister and Andresen have just received a new stock of the celebrated Rex Rheumatic Rings. Call for booklet.

Ivy Ross brought suit for a divorce in the Circuit Court Wednesday from her husband, Frank Ross, on the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

A Jap named Hanako was arrested at Milwaukie Wednesday by Sheriff Shaver on the charge of burglary, preferred by officers at Astoria. The Astoria officials came after him Thursday.

Homer Holland died at Salem Monday of paralysis and his funeral took place Wednesday. He was for years a bookkeeper for the Portland Flouring Mills company in this city and was well known to Oregon City people.

The Barclay residence, one of the prominent old landmarks on Main street, will be moved and turned around so that its front faces the river. The ground space it now occupies will probably form the site of a building devoted to trade, as the English put it.

On Wednesday evening Miss Shonkwiler, teacher in the Eastham school, was tendered a pleasant surprise party by the teachers of the Barclay and Eastham schools. Games and music were the features of the evening. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Society known as the Native Sons and Daughters of Oregon, which was mentioned in these columns last week, held another meeting in the office of O. D. Eby last Wednesday. At this meeting a rough draft of the resolutions was presented for consideration by the committee. The society proposes to keep a concise historical record of every member of the society and of the family of each, as it is possible to do.

Notice has been received by the Postmaster from the Postoffice Department ordering the discontinuance of the post-offices of Logan, Viola and Redland. The new order will go into effect the last of the month. This action is due to the fact that these districts are now served by rural delivery from this place, rural route No 2 serving the residents of this district affected by the new order. Mail to persons living along these routes should be addressed to route No 2.

On the 6th, inst., Uncle Henry Samson, of Needy, who celebrated his 88th birthday on August 7th, made a trip to the "world's fair" at Marquam. From there his friends took him to Silverton in order to meet his Masonic brethren once more in the sacred precincts of the lodge room. A large number of his old friends gave Uncle Henry a festive reception on his arrival. Until the midnight hour they entertained the patriarch, who is one of that sturdy, noble band of early pioneers which is rapidly passing over to the silent majority.

The Molalla Central Mining Company was organized Wednesday and articles of incorporation filed. The promoters are Frank Welch, Otto Olson and Linn E. Jones, of this city. The company has a capital stock of $25,000, divided into 250,000 shares of 10 cents each. The boys are confident that the stock will be easy to dispose of, as they believe that the mines are quite valuable. A heavy pack train, carrying provisions and supplies will leave for the mines the latter part of this week and the bad weather which may be expected soon will not be allowed to interfere with the mining, but work will continue all winter. The boys are confident that the stock will more than double in value in a few months.

Prescriptions Properly Prepared HOWELL & JONES THE RELIABLE DRUGGISTS

The New York World. THIRICE-A-WEEK EDITION. Read Wherever the English Language is Spoken. Letter List. Following is the list of letters remaining in the Oregon City postoffice on Oct. 22, 1903: Women's List—Mrs W P Adams, Miss Ethel Brown, Mrs J Burgman, Mrs Robert Llerie, Mrs Edith Kelly, Mrs Frank Raymond, Miss Cory Richmond, Miss Rose Wilkins, Miss Edith Walten. Men's List—O R Barber, T L Brown, E D Ealey, W J Gilbert, Joel Giles, Harry Grazier, Dr W H Grimm, R K Hartell, Wm F Ostermann, G Setjje R Siovanover, Mr and Mrs Geo Warfield, Harry O Williams. Tom P. Randall, P. M. Olathe (Kan.) Patron—A woman cannot be too careful in the treatment of man. It is said that a woman here is an old maid because she once laughed at her lover when she saw him wearing a little apron in a lodge parade. He had been patient with her caprices and tempers for some time, but to laugh at the sacred emblem of his lodge, a little apron that looked as if it were a kitchen apron which had shrunk in the wash to its present size, was too much!—Olathe Patron.

Fifty-One Kinds of Syringes. A recent inspection of our stock shows that we have on hand fifty-one styles of syringes. This includes about a dozen new kinds just received this week. While this fact is a good index to our stock of sundries and sick-room supplies yet it is a whole lot more of this kind of goods than we can afford to carry. Therefore for the next two weeks we will make a reduction of from 25 to 50 per cent on all syringes, hot water bottles, atomizers, etc. Many things we will be unable to price here but every customer may be sure of at least 25 per cent saving during the coming two weeks. Regular. Special. Marvel Whirling Spray $3.50 $2.60 Dr. Tullar's 3.00 2.10 Dr. Lister's 3.00 2.10 Dr. Humphrey's 3.00 2.10 Goodyear's Safety 1.25 .75 Omega No. 5 Bulb .50 .33 Carmen Scarlet Bulb 1.50 .98 Jersey Fountain, 2 qt. .75 .39 Western " " .75 .45 Challenge " " .75 .45 Antoniette 2 qt Rapid Flow $1.75 $1.10 Perfection 2 qt " 1.00 .69 Pearl Comb, 2 qt. 1.40 1.10 Challenge " 1.50 1.10 Goodyear Crown Hot Water Bottle, 4 qt. 2.50 1.85 Commgn Sense " " 2.50 1.80 Faultless " " 2.00 1.25 Venetian " " 1.50 1.10 Yale " " 1.00 .67 Western " " 1.25 .85 As our regular prices are the lowest obtainable the specials are something better than bargains. Huntley Brothers Druggists and Booksellers