PERSONALS

—Miss Laura Coopers, of Clatskanie, has been visiting the Misses Albright.
 —Mrs. T. M. Smith and daughter, Elen, of Portland, visited relatives in Oregon City Sunday.
 —Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Wiggins and children, of Portland, were visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Wilkinson.
 —Mrs. M. E. Biles and daughters, Mrs. E. L. Howe and Miss Biles, of Portland, visited Mrs. Biles' sister, Mrs. F. L. Cochran.
 —Miss Edith B. Todd, of Hubbard, is visiting at the home of her friend, Mrs. J. J. Haight, at Antelope, Or. She expects to remain there for some time.
 —Dr. C. D. Love came in on last Thursday evening after a very successful day's hunt. He bagged four China pheasants and four mallard ducks, so far the best bag of game of which we have heard this season.
 —M. Walsh, of Milwaukie, one of the prosperous farmers of that neighborhood, was in Oregon City on last Friday on business. Mr. Walsh has been twenty-six years in Oregon and is wedded to the jury were discharged early in the day until Monday week. Each of these gentlemen are prosperous citizens of Clackamas county and worthy men. While in town they paid the Courier office a very pleasant call.

THAT PERLESS PETTICOAT SOROSIS

OF COURSE

Here to-day—a display of petticoat pertinence that's truly timely.

For what woman among you whose wardrobe won't admit another underskirt or so? If it's the Sorosis sort, certainly. Of mercerized material, it has the feel and the finish, the sight and the sound of silk-exclusiveness.

Cut from living models, every one, and finished in a way to hold your fancy fast.

And the crowning glory is the price—the best proof point of all that you must buy Sorosis here to-day.

—Miss Echo Samson visited friends in Hubbard Sunday.

—J. Dunwile has moved his family from Gladstone to Green Point.

—Wm Rosenau, of Milwaukie, was among the callers at the Courier office Wednesday.

—The Courier office has on exhibition in its office a turnip that weight twenty five pound. Who can beat it.

—L. E. Bowers, a prominent citizen of Macksburg, was in town Wednesday and paid the Courier a pleasant visit.

—Miss Grace Miller, teacher at Union Hall school, spent Saturday and Sunday in this city visiting friends and relatives.

—Misses Helen and Anesta Gleason, of this city, visited the Misses Knights, of Canby, Saturday and Sunday of the past week.

—Miss Bruce Reddick left Wednesday evening for Medford in company with her aunt, Mrs. J. W. Cooke, alert a visit with friends here and in Portland.

A. J. McIntosh returned on Wednesday from a stay of four weeks in San Francisco, and other parts of California. His daughter, Alice, returned with him. Mr. McIntosh says he much prefers the Oregon climate to that of California.

—J. M. Turner, of Willamette, placed the Courier office under lasting obligations to him by bringing and presenting half a dozen Irish potatoes each, weighing more than five pounds and the longest one being 14 inches in length. One potato will make three meals for an ordinary family. How is that for a potato story?

—J. C. Hall, the restaurant man on Railroad Avenue is not only a good hotel man but a farmer of no mean ability. On Monday he brought to the Courier office for exhibition a box of choice apples that would do credit to Hood River itself. Thanks Brother Hall, come again. This is a great apple country for the farmers and fruit raisers would give their fruit the attention that it deserves.

—Branch Tucker, an old time citizen and loyal Democrat of Clackamas county, and his wife and son were in Oregon City on last Friday. Mr. Tucker has not been in Oregon City for more than a year. Mr. Tucker has the reputation of being one of the best farmers of Clackamas county. It is now more than 51 years ago since Mr. Tucker, then a lad of eighteen summers left the state of Missouri and crossed the plains with his uncle driving five yoke of cattle. It took them five long months to make the trip and they suffered many hardships by the way. Mr. Tucker has now been in Oregon 51 years. He grew to manhood here, was married in Oregon and has raised his family in the Wehfoot state and never once has visited North Carolina, the state of his birth or Missouri, the state from which he started to Oregon. In the disastrous fire which swept over the Springwater country last year Mr. Tucker was one of the greatest sufferers, losing his residence, and all of his household furniture, two barns filled with hay and feed and all of his outbuildings and farming implements as well as quite a valuable lot of livestock. His loss all told was in the neighborhood of $5,000. From that he is now recuperating as well as all of the Springwater country. He says his people in that part of Clackamas county have good crops this year, they are getting good prices and in a year or two the disastrous fire will only be a memory. In politics Mr. Tucker is an old time Democrat and thinks the party will in a short time be doing some business in this part of the world.

The King's Daughters

The Halloween social given by the King's Daughters of the Episcopal church at Willamette Hall on last Saturday evening was one of those delightful little affairs which always delight the hearts of those who participate. The hall was tastily decorated and the programme delightfully arranged and varied. The Maccabees Quartette, the sweet singers of Oregon, made a decided hit with that beautiful new song, "In the Valley of Kentucky." There was not a bit of music, instrumental or vocal, that was not worthy of the time and occasion. Lack of space forbids more extended notice of the many good things on the programme. After the musical features were disposed of the floor was cleared for dancing and until late in the night the merry fantastic toe was tripped. Old and young, beauty and youth were all happy in the maise of the dance. Miss Lizzie Walker was the gypsy fortune teller. Judge Livy Stipp auctioned off the posters to an excited crowd of bidders, and they all brought good prices. Supper was served in the hall, and a very delightful evening came to an end. The receipts were more than $30.

The Best Liniment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm is considered the best liniment on the market," writes Post & Bliss, of Georgia, Nt. No other liniment will heal a cut or bruise so promptly. No other affords such quick relief from rheumatic pains. No other is so valuable for deep seated pains like lame back and pains in the chest. Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by Geo. A. Harding.

AMBITION OF PEARY.

FAMOUS ARCTIC EXPLORER WHO HOPES TO REACH THE POLE.

Plans of His Coming Expedition to the North—Will Establish Headquarters at Grantland—The Snow Baby—Matthew Hansen's Fleck.

Commander Robert E. Peary, U. S. N., who has announced his intention of making another attempt to reach the north pole, has already made six trips to the frozen north and has spent over twelve years altogether in the arctic regions. Explorer Peary will start on his seventh polar expedition next summer, having been granted three years' leave of absence by the navy department for that purpose.

When Mr. Peary returned from his last trip to the north it was decided that his wife should accompany him if he decided to make another trial. The recent birth of a son has upset that plan, and Mrs. Peary will remain at home. She, however, continues to share the belief of her husband that the discovery of the north pole should be made by an American and also thinks that the discovery should be made by her husband, who has already spent many of the best years of his life in the undertaking. Therefore she is willing that he should again brave the perils of the north.

Commander Peary has said that he found his wife a valuable helpmeet on previous expeditions. Instead of being in the way she was ready for any undertaking, doing her full share of the work and proving that she was as capable of withstanding privations and hardships as any member of the party.

It was during the expedition of 1893 that Marie Ahnighite Peary, "the snow baby," was born. Her father and mother were living in Anniversary lodge, north Greenland, in 77 degrees 40 minutes north latitude, when the little one came into existence. This was on Sept. 12, 1893. The baby's first six months were spent in the lamplight, but later, when the long night of the arctic winter was over, she lived constantly in the uninterrupted sunshine and grew with great rapidity.

The snow baby was the wonder of the Eskimos, who traveled long distances to see her. They could not believe that she was not made of snow until they had touched her. A little suit of furs was made for her by an Eskimo woman named Ahnighite, so when the baby was christened she, too, was called Ahnighite.

Early next July Commander Peary expects to start for the north with a swift ship and an American crew. His plan is to establish winter quarters on the north shore of Grantland, where only 420 nautical miles will stretch between him and the pole.

"I have already demonstrated," said Commander Peary recently, "that I can travel more than twice that distance over the arctic ice. But the trouble has been previously that I did not have a ship that could take me there in time. That is all I need now. The rest of the problem has been worked out in practice."

"If I can get the right kind of a ship—and if I get the money I know where to get the ship—I can sail on July 1 and get to Cape Sabine by the end of the month. I can stay there until September, gathering walrus meat, native helpers, dogs and whatever else I need. I can winter on the shores of Grantland and have everything ready to start for the pole at the first return of arctic daylight in February. That would give me 100 to 110 days to reach the pole and get back. All I ask is a ship that will take me the 350 miles that lie between Cape Sabine and Grantland. I know I can reach the pole from that point."

Commander Peary is tall and strongly made, with a long face and a square, determined chin. A reddish mustache shades his firm mouth. He is forty-seven years old, yet walks with the spring of youth notwithstanding that he is minus seven toes that were frozen off during one of his journeys.

In his final attempt to reach the pole the explorer will take with him only men of tried experience in arctic work. Eskimos will form the principal members of his sled dash. One man has already been selected, Matthew Hansen, who has been with Peary on all his expeditions. Hansen is a mulatto, born in Maryland. He has shown wonderful grit under most trying conditions and endurance equal to that of Peary himself. On the last expedition, when all the others quit, Hansen kept on the march, and when Peary's feet were frozen almost solid Hansen cared for him and took him into camp. Funds for the coming expedition to the amount of $150,000 are expected from the Peary Arctic club of New York.

CATARRH WHEREVER LOCATED IN THE SYSTEM.

MISS BEATRIX CALLAM.

Interesting Letters from Catholic Institutions.

In every country of the civilized world the Sisters of Charity are known. Not only do they minister to the spiritual and intellectual needs of the charges committed to their care, but they also minister to their bodily needs. With so many children to take care of and to protect from climate and disease, these wise and prudent sisters have found Peruna a never-failing safeguard.

A letter recently received by Dr. Hartman from Sister Beatrix B. Callam, 410 W. Thirtieth street, New York, reads as follows:

"I cannot say too much in praise of Peruna. Eight bottles of it cured me of catarrh of the lungs of four years' standing, and I would not have been without it for anything. It helped several Sisters of coughs and colds and I have yet to find one case of catarrh that it does not cure."—Sister Beatrix.

From a Catholic institution in Central Ohio comes the following recommendation from the Sister Superior.

"Some years ago a friend of our institution recommended to us Dr. Hartman's Peruna as an excellent remedy for the influenza of which we then had several cases which threatened to be of a serious character.

"We began to use it and experienced such wonderful results that since then Peruna has become our favorite medicine for influenza, catarrh, cold, cough and bronchitis."

Another recommendation from a Catholic institution of one of the Central States written by the Sister Superior reads as follows:

"A number of years ago our attention was called to Dr. Hartman's Peruna, and since then we have used it with wonderful results for grip, coughs, colds and catarrhal diseases of the head and stomach.

"For grip and winter catarrh especially it has been of great service to the inmates of this institution.

All Over the United States Use Pe-ru-na for Catarrh.

Dr. Hartman receives many letters from Catholic Sisters all over the United States. A recommendation recently received from a Catholic institution in the Southwest reads as follows:

A Prominent Mother Superior Says:

"I can testify from experience to the efficiency of Peruna as one of the very best medicines, and it gives me pleasure to add my praise to that of thousands who have used it. For years I suffered with catarrh of the stomach, all remedies proving valueless for relief. Last spring I went to Colorado, hoping to be benefited by a change of climate, and while there a friend advised me to try Peruna. After using two bottles I found myself very much improved. The remains of my old disease being now so slight, I consider myself cured, yet for a while I intend to continue the use of Peruna. I am now treating another patient with your medicine. She has been sick with malaria and troubled with leucorrhoea. I have not a doubt that a cure will be speedily effected."

These are samples of letters received by Dr. Hartman from the various orders of Catholic Sisters throughout the United States.

The names and addresses to these letters have been withheld from respect to the Sisters but will be furnished upon request.

One-half of the diseases which afflict mankind are due to some catarrhal derangement of the mucous membrane lining some organ or passage of the body.

A remedy that would act immediately upon the congested mucous membrane restoring it to its normal state, would consequently cure all these diseases. Catarrh is catarrh wherever located, whether it be in the head, throat, lungs, stomach, kidneys, or pelvic organs. A remedy that will cure it in one location will cure it in all locations.

If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.
