

A BROOKLYN BELLE THREATENED WITH CONSUMPTION.

Pe-ru-na Promptly Saved Her Life.

Miss Alice O'Neil.

WHAT PEOPLE SAY

About Pe-ru-na as a Remedy for All Diseases of Winter, Coughs, Colds and Catarrh. That Pe-ru-na cures catarrh, coughs, colds, is well known to both the medical profession and the people generally. It is undoubtedly the most popular remedy for this class of diseases in existence. Read the following letters:

Pe-ru-na Cures a Cold at the Outset. Miss E. M. Isaacs, Armstrong, Pa., Vice-President of the Fortnightly Club, writes:

"No one who has tried the comforts Pe-ru-na brings would ever be without it. I used to dread the slightest cold, as its consequences were so lengthy and so unpleasant, and the catarrhal condition which invariably followed so hard to get rid of, but since I have known of the latest relief secured through the use of Pe-ru-na, I am free from all this unpleasantness and suffering."

"A few doses never fails to cure me of a cold and I keep well through its use."—Miss E. M. Isaacs.

Hon. W. J. Purman, ex-member of Congress from Florida, writes from 1428 Q street, N. W., Washington, D. C., as follows:

"From representations to me and my own experience I feel justified in recommending your Pe-ru-na to any and all persons suffering with catarrh, nervousness or stomach troubles. I regard it as a great tonic and remedy for such afflictions. I, and others to whom I recommended it, are using it now with beneficial results."—W. J. Purman.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Pe-ru-na write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

Miss Alice O'Neil, 312 Adams street, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes: "I cannot say too much in favor of Pe-ru-na. About a year ago I was completely worn out, had a serious cold and a hard cough which seemed to be in danger of affecting my lungs. If my system had been in a stronger condition it would have been much easier to throw off this cold, but I could not seem to get any relief until I took Pe-ru-na, and I must say that it did the work thoroughly. Within a week I could see a wonderful improvement, and I took Pe-ru-na four weeks and am in perfect health now." —ALICE O'NEIL.

—A. J. Hodge, of Canby, while in Oregon City on business Monday enrolled himself on the list of Courier subscribers. He is a solid substantial citizen and the county would be better off if he had more like him.

—John Harmes, who lives out from Aurora on the road to Macksburg was attending to legal and other business in Oregon City on Monday. Mr. Harmes lives in one of the very best sections of the county and is proud of the fact.

—James Howland, of Ilwaco, Washington, has been visiting his old home near Oregon City, during the past ten days. He has been working in a wood camp at Ilwaco and is getting good wages. He will shortly return to the woods.

—August Funk, of Redland, who claims the distinction of coming to Oregon City but once in twelve months, was in town on Monday meeting old friends and making new ones. Mr. Funk is a prosperous farmer and is a webfoot who believes in his country.

—James Wilson, of Clackamas, who is one of the old time farmers of Clackamas county, was in Oregon City on Tuesday and paid the Courier office a pleasant visit, renewing his subscription to the Courier for another year. Mr. Wilson has the distinction of being one of the oldest subscribers the Courier has on its books as he has not missed an issue of the paper since its beginning twenty years ago.

—Mr. N. R. Lang, resident manager of the Willamette Pulp and Paper Co., who with his wife attended the funeral and interment of Orestes Pierce, president of the Company at Oakland, Cal., last week, returned to Oregon City on Wednesday morning and resumed his duties as manager and resident director at the Willamette Mill. Mrs. Lang will remain in California during the winter.

—Ed Olds has moved with his family from the West Side to Oak Grove.

—C. W. Riseley, of Milwaukie, was in Oregon City on business on last Saturday.

—Leo J. Rosenstein is home from the Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis to spend Thanksgiving.

—L. T. Harris, speaker of the Oregon House of Representatives, was the guest of Ex-Sheriff J. J. Cooke, Sunday.

Thayer who formerly resided in Oregon City and for a time was in the real estate business here but who is now located in Modesta, California, was in Oregon City winding up his business affairs in this part of the world last week. Mr. Thayer is in the real estate business in his adopted town in California and is very much pleased with the state of his adoption. He lived in Clackamas county for twenty-eight years.

—P. P. Murphy, of Multno, a prominent and respected citizen of that part of the county was in Oregon City on last Saturday attending to business matters. Mr. Murphy thinks of disposing of his fine ranch at that place and locating in Oregon City. He is an Ohioan by birth and regularly sends the Courier to his brother at New Comers town in that state. While Mr. Murphy never expects to return to the state of Ohio to live, he is loyal to the place of his birth and thinks Ohio is one of the greatest states in the union.

—Steve Coleman, of Sandy, was in Oregon City Wednesday on business connected with the Barlow road. Mr. Coleman has operated the Barlow road across the Cascade Mountains for many years as a toll road. In the summer season the road is kept in a fairly good condition but in the winter and rainy season the road is abandoned on account of the snow and the winter storms, the snow at this season of the year being from five to ten feet deep on this old trail. The recent wind storm blew some two hundred trees across the road, and blew all the planking off of one of the bridges, so Mr. Coleman will have enough trouble on his hands next spring when he begins to get his road in condition to charge toll again. For a wagon and a two horse team to cross the mountains on the Barlow it costs $2 toll. The road runs within three miles of Mount Hood.

It's folly to suffer from that horrible plague of the nightingale piles. Doan's Ointment cures quickly and permanently. At any drug store, 29 cents.
