Senator Lodge Defends Roosevelt

In Connection with Panama-The President's Panama Message a Long Document.

WASHINGTON, Dec 7, 1904.

On the 5th inst, before a crowded Senate, Senator Lodge of Mass., made a long and rather technical speech defending the President's action in connection with Panama. He spent much time and cited many authorities, from international law, from the dicta of former secretaries of state, and from decisions of the Supreme Court, to sustain the proposition, that it is the function of the Executive, as provided for in the Constitution, to receive ministers from other countries and thus recognize the de facto government. When this is to be done is a mere matter of state policy, and the President is to decide. Mr. Lodge said all the world knew a revolution was impending in Panama; he read about it while in London, and of course all this information flowed in upon the President, and he did not exceed his duty in taking prompt measures to protect American citizens and interests and prevent bloodshed. Only one man, said Mr. Lodge, was killed "the unfortunate and inevitable Chinaman" who was struck by a Colombian shell while in his bed. This is not a party issue he contended, and he charged his opponents with "hating the sinner and embracing the sin." Secretary Hay was eulogized; and the prediction made that future historians would give a high place to President Roosevelt for opening the gateway between the two oceans. He admitted that men from his section of the country—New England—opposed the Louisiana purchase, but said they were mistaken. When charged with inconsistency in voting for the Cuban resolution declaring the people of that island "free and independent," the Mass. Senator said that in his opinion it was a small matter whether a man was consistent or not.

The President's message of explanation and defense in reference to Panama was a very long document and gave a circumstantial account of what took place from his point of view. It was regarded by the Republicans as a complete vindication, but did not convince the Democrats. The gist of the whole matter is: Was there a revolution of the people of the department of Panama, and was there a government of any kind at the time independence was acknowledged by the President? The discussion of this question may continue a week or more before a vote is reached on the treaty. Not much new or important legislation is expected at this session of Congress. The usual appropriation bills will be passed, the Pension heading the list. The Panama treaty will be riddled with votes to spare; Gen. Wood will receive his promotion; and the probabilities are that Reed Smoot, senator from Utah, will be allowed to hold down his seat. Both parties are looking for issues which will give them political capital for the coming Presidential campaign. Owing to the falling off of customs receipts and internal revenue, economy will be the watchword. The subjects of irrigation and pure food will receive some attention. It is possible that four new states may be admitted to the Union. A civil pension list is talked of, but has no chance at present. The status of Mormonism is likely to be discussed. Bills have been introduced to amend the emigration laws, for which there is pressing need; to create a bureau of good roads which is sensible; to provide for the promotions in the army as a reward for notable services; and to build a palace for the departments of State and Commerce.

The unusually cold wave swept over the country the first week in January covered Washington with a sheet of glare ice about an inch thick, which remained intact for a number of days. The result was new and picturesque; the broad avenues, the wide streets, and the parks became skating ponds, crowded with all conditions of men and women; safe walking was well nigh impossible, and in time the town was covered with ashes as if a small Mt Pelee eruption had taken place. The mercury reached zero, and there was much suffering among the poor.

The Chicago fire has called forth a resolution of deep sympathy from the House of Representatives, while the Senate has passed a resolution ordering the District Commissioners to inspect all places of amusement in Washington and report. A modern fire alarm system is to be installed in the White House at once and the employees of that mansion, something like 150, are to be drilled as a fire brigade. There was a rumor that the President would do the drilling, but this is unlikely.

Dr. Wiley, chemist, after feeding a number of youngmen some months upon food prepared with salicylic acid, has abandoned the experiment for the present, since it has been demonstrated that such food seriously injures the health. One man may claim that this peculiar food cured him of rheumatism.

Food prepared with borax also proved to be unhealthy. "I feel as if my insides had been tanned with the stuff," was the way one of the subjects expressed it.

A Representative in Congress from Mont. has opened the Chinese question. He wants the government to build a wire fence along the Canadian boundary to keep the Chinese out. Of course the wires are to be kept alive with electricity.

The very wise optimistic Secretary of Agriculture says no panic is possible in this country so long as the farmer can produce good and saleable crops. Our surplus crops sold abroad last year amounted to $878,000,000. He adds that the state of Iowa alone sent sixty millions of dollars in 1903 to Canada to purchase grain and farming lands. But panics have taken place without regard to the condition of the crops; there is little connection between them.

It is getting to be dangerous for a well-preserved widow to show friendship for a pro-presiding man considerably her junior, especially if she happens to be a rich countess. At least the Countess Esterhazy has been sued for $100,000 damages by a woman who feels that the Countess has won her husband's affections. The Countess objected to taking the papers when they were served, but as they came with a lot of ostentatious Christmas presents, she yielded, protesting. She is a prominent society woman in Washington, and did not even know that her male friend was married.

No. 1. Rev Carlisle P. B. Martin L. D.

Of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm, which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." 25c, 50c and $1. A Prisoner in Her Own House.

Mrs. W. H. Layha, of 1001 Agnes Ave., Kansas City, Mo., has for several years been troubled with severe hoarseness and at times a hard cough, which she says, "Would keep me in doors for days. I was prescribed for by physicians with no noticeable results. A friend gave me part of a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with instructions to closely follow the directions and I wish to state that after the first day I could not see a decided change for the better, and at this time after using it for two weeks, have no hesitation in saying I realize that I am entirely cured. This remedy is for sale by G. A. Harding.

Pleasant and Most Effective.

T. J. Chambers, Ed. Vindicator, Liberty, Texas, writes Dec. 25, 1902: "With pleasure and unsolicited by you, I bear testimony to the curative power of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I have used it in my family and can cheerfully affirm it is the most effective and pleasant remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used." 25c, 50c and $1, at Charman & Co.

First Stamp Mill in Old Clackamas

The first stamp mill ever erected in Clackamas county will be installed by the Molalla Central Mining company on its claim near Ogle Creek, in the Cascade mountains, just so soon as the weather will permit in the spring. This action was decided upon by the board of directors of the company at a meeting held on Friday evening. This action upon the part of the company was decided upon after an assay of the latest samples brought out of the mine by Mr. Welsh, who returned from the mountains last week. The assay was as follows: Lowest grade ore, $16.76; next grade, $75.94; full test across the ledge, $410.33; selected samples, $2,773.31. Just so soon as the snow goes out of the mountains the people of the Molalla neighborhood will begin the building of a road from the foothills into the mines, and for that purpose have subscribed $700 in labor. The residents of Molalla Prairie have great faith in the Ogle Creek mines, and say these mountains will be prospected from one end to the other next summer.

A WORD TO FARM TOILERS.

PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND

The Home Friend of the Farmer and His Family.

After the labors and toils of the summer time, and harvesting of crops in the early autumn, many of our farmers, their wives, daughters, and sons, find themselves in a condition of health demanding careful attention if suffering is to be avoided later on. Many experience kidney trouble in some form; with some the liver is torpid; there is biliousness, nausea, and vomiting, with loss of appetite and depression of spirits. Thousands who have been exposed to cold, damp winds and rains while toiling in the harvest fields, now feel the twinges of terrible rheumatism; others run down by worry, overwork, and irregular dieting, are tormented with the pangs of dyspepsia.

To the thousands of run down, sickly, and half dead men and women in farm homes we recommend with all honesty and confidence the worker's friend, Paine's Celery Compound, the only medicine that can quickly and fully restore strength to the weak body and vigor to the muscles. Paine's Celery Compound tones the stomach; it removes poisonous acids from the blood which cause rheumatism; it feeds the weak and diseased nerves and banishes neuralgic tortures; it purifies the blood and gives true vitality and life. The use of Paine's Celery Compound in autumn means the establishing of a perfect physical vigor to withstand the rigors of a severe winter.
