

Dragging Pains

2925 Keeley St.,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 2, 1902.

I suffered with falling and congestion of the womb, with severe pains through the groins. I suffered terribly at the time of menstruation, had blinding headaches and rushing of blood to the brain. What to try I knew not, for it seemed that I had tried all and failed, but I had never tried Wine of Cardui, that blessed remedy for sick women. I found it pleasant to take and soon knew that I had the right medicine. New blood seemed to course through my veins and after using eleven bottles I was a well woman.

Maudie Bush

Mrs. Bush is now in perfect health because she took Wine of Cardui for menstrual disorders, bearing down pains and blinding headaches when all other remedies failed to bring her relief. Any sufferer may secure health by taking Wine of Cardui in her home. The first bottle convinces the patient she is on the road to health.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

"Hail, gentle Spring, Ethereal morn, come!" O, Thompson! void of rhyme as well as reason, how couldst thou thus untimely Nature hnn (bug) there's no such reason!

Since Panama reduced her army to a couple of hundred minnows and sold the two midget tags that constituted her navy, even President Roosevelt must admit that she is the most dependent little independency and powerless little power that there is on the face of the earth.

The President says with uplifted hand that he will personally investigate every department of the government, if he shall be elected. Why don't he do it now when he has a chance?

Our Washington correspondent asked Sen. Reed Smoot if he could have been elected if he had not been a Mormon. Reply: Yes, certainly; was not Senator Rawlins elected, who was not a Mormon? But could a protestant be elected alderman in the fourth ward of New York?—and could a Catholic be elected President of the United States? Very well; what's the matter with me then?"

When a band of the Ogallala Sioux paid their respects to the President last week he emphasized his hostility by earnestly advising them to sell half their horses and quit their horse racing. At this point his secretary, Loeb, whispered in his ear to hurry up as the races at Bennington began in half an hour. His Excellency told the sagamore that he regretted being obliged to draw the interview to a close, but it was time for Cabinet meeting. The chief apologized, bowed, shook hands fervently, and vacated the ranch.

Secretary Hitchcock has paid out $692,000 to lobbyists in connection with an Indian claim. Senator Platt says "this is one of the most notorious instances of lobbying that has ever come to my notice." A discussion of it occupied several hours in the Senate last week.

Rey Dr. Easton of Washington, D. C., has resigned because his congregation would not lift the church's debt and pay taxes on it like other property. He said "Our Lord never ran in debt and He paid His taxes like a gentleman."

His Accidency, President Roosevelt, is fond of parade and gold lace. He has matured a plan to increase the number of handsome young officers in brilliant filigree at his reception next winter, by having them detailed to make a special study of ordnance at the Washington gun factory.

In two years President Roosevelt has expended besides his salary more in extras than did President Hayes, Garfield, Arthur, Cleveland, Harrison and McKinley all put together. Strenuous comes high.

That General Bristow be superseded was fiercely demanded by 151 Congressmen until it was rumored that he had something else up his sleeve.

The conviction of U. S. Senator Burton, Kansas, is a wholesome sight. He took money for protecting a St. Louis securities company against the post-office department and is liable to $10,000 fine and two years imprisonment, besides being prohibited from ever holding office again. Our Republican friends seem to have a heap of trouble this year. The convict will now revise and re-publish Burton's Anatomy of Melancholy.

If all goes well in November and no body has an attack of appendicitis, gout or acute indigestion, Secretary Taft contemplates making a tour of the Philippines Islands next year, to see if the Filipinos are good and obedient. He says they will be fit for self-government whenever they think that we ought to govern them.

Secretary of the navy once upon a time, John D. Long, has just spent an evening at the White House. "How are you, Jack? By George! It's good for sore eyes to see you!" He is no longer an "old fogey," no longer "way behind the times," he's a Massachusetts delegate who will vote at Chicago.

Having arbitrarily abolished the "solemn treaty" which Col. Bates made with the Moros, which was not to be abrogated without the consent of both parties, Secretary Taft sends a dispatch instructing General Wade not to excite the Moros.

It is reported that the President says he is sorry that when he enacted the law giving $6 per month to all veterans, he didn't make it $50. The Speaker of the House has no veto, and it would be so easy for him to make it $50 that he has a great mind to do it now.

Sixto Lopez wants to go to his home in the Philippine Islands but declines to take the oath of allegiance to the United States. A bond of $100,000 for his good behavior and obedience to law has been offered by General Palmer of Corozado, but the President declines to accept it. What is compulsory oath of allegiance good for?

Senator Platt Conn., says that unless the Panama canal is built without reference to political influence, its progress will be marred by scandal. He knows his friends.

Ten thousand applications for patents are held up in the United States Patent Office on account of informal presentation or unskillful prosecution. C. A. Snow & Co., Patent Lawyers of Washington, make a specialty of such cases, fees moderate and contingent on success.

At Shively's Opera House.

The Portland Italian Band, composed of 35 of the most accomplished musicians, and who have played in all of the prominent cities of the United States, under the leadership of such famous leaders as Liberati, Menolitti, Creatore, Cappa, Rivia, including 12 of the most celebrated soloists, and who are now under the leadership of Signor D'Urbano, a scholar of the celebrated composer, Mascagni, will appear at the Shively Opera House Tuesday evening, April 12, 1904.

The repertoire of the Band is composed of over 1,500 selections from the most famous composers of the musical world. This organization is the finest musical organization of its kind on the Pacific Coast and will be one of the great attractions at the Lewis & Clark Centennial Exhibition in 1905. The musical loving people of this community should appreciate the fact that this organization brings honor to the State of Oregon in general and it is hoped that they will be greeted by a large audience.

Signor D'Urbano is a lively conductor of the Creatore type, and is possessed of that magnetic quality which enables him to get wonderful results in tone color.

At the reception tendered by the Portland Lodge of Elks to the Grand Exalted Ruler Fanning on April 2 last, the band was present and made a splendid showing, earning numerous encores.

Every individual player of the band is a thorough musician, and an expert on his splendid instrument.

The band is a musical organization of the first rank. It is well balanced; playing is always orderly and spirited, and renderings of the various standard and classical selections are all that can be expected and will compare favorably with the leading organizations of its kind in America.

A new postoffice has been established between Colton and Meadowbrook. The new office has been named Jametown. There are about forty people who will get their mail at the new office. D. A. James has been appointed postmaster.

A Dandy for Burns.

Dr. Bergin, Pana, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommended it to my friends, as I am confident there is no better made. It is a dandy for burns." Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns, bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. "It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency." 25c, 50c, $1 bottle. Sold by Charman & Co.

This Beats Ann.

"Five men, A, B, C, D and E, meet, each of whom owes the other $5. They only had $1 a piece.

"A, who was a 'Napoleon of Finance,' after some thought, said he could fix it all right, so he to'd each one of the four to give him his dollar. He put them in the one he had, and handed the $5 to B, and took his receipt canceling the debt. B paid C, and took his receipt, and then paid D, and E paid E, who then handed the $5 to A, taking his receipt.

"Does it not appear that each man is $4 ahead in the game except A, who has not only paid his $5 debt with $1, but has the $5 in cash?

"Who if any one, is the loser in this transaction?"
