PERSONALS

Mrs. M. A. Stratton, of Portland, was in this city on a business trip Saturday.

Mrs. Newberry and daughter, of New Era, were visiting in Oregon City Wednesday.

Mrs. Herbert Thorne and infant son have returned to Portland after a week's stay with relative of this city.

Roy Martin, formerly of Oregon City, has been appointed to a position on the police force of Vancouver, Wash.

The many friends of C. O. T. Williams are pleased to see him improving from his recent illness, which kept him confined to the house for several weeks.

Mr. Dan O'Neill's friends were pleased to see him able to be out again the first of the week after his recent sick spell, and hope his health will continue to improve.

B. F. Swope, an attorney of Toledo, was visiting his father T. W. Swope, Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. Swope formerly practiced law in this city, about six years ago.

James Thorne, who for several years was a prominent business man of this city, is lying very low. He is past 80 years of age and but little hope is entertained for his recovery.

E. D. Olds, the rafter carpenter contractor of Oak Grove, went to Salem on Wednesday evening's train, where he will attend, as a spectator, the Republican Congressional Convention.

Mrs. L. L. Porter and mother, Mrs. John Spangler, returned from California Sunday, where they had been visiting the latter's son. Mrs. Spangler left for her home in Corvallis Tuesday morning.

Postmaster Tom P. Randall and bride have returned from their bridal trip on the Sound and are housekeeping in the cottage on Sixth and Adams streets. They are at home to their friends after April 19.

William Sprague, of Redland, will leave in a day or two for Eastern Oregon where he goes to look up a location with a view of leaving the valley. He thinks his health will be better in the higher altitude.

R. M. Cooper, postmaster at Carno, was on our streets last Saturday. In company with his son-in-law, Mr. Ingram of this city, he called at the Couriers office and expressed good wishes for the new management.

Miss Imogen Harding and brother, Carlton, are expected home from New York shortly. Miss Harding has spent the last two years in studying vocal music and Carlton has been in the employ of New York Railway Company.

Ira Bonney, of Hubbard, is putting a sawmill on Bear Creek near Newby. The mill was formerly in operation near Redland. It is thought that the body of timber accessible to this mill will keep it going for a considerable length of time.

John Wachtman, of Needy precinct, paid the Couriers office a pleasant call Saturday. Mr. Wachtman's farm lies near Rock Creek and is especially adapted for growing potatoes and hay both of which he markets in large quantities. Seed potatoes from this farm are always in demand.

Fred Hurst, of the Aurora Electric Co., was in town last Thursday. Besides having a plant at Aurora, which supplies light for Aurora, Hubbard, Barlow and Canby, Mr. Hurst has valuable riparian rights on the Molalla river where a large plant will eventually be installed.

John Eckerson, of Canby, was in our town Saturday. Mr. Eckerson is interested in raising strawberries and apples. The natural conditions surrounding Canby make it an excellent place for the production of all kinds of small fruits adapted to this latitude. Any person looking for a location where he may engage in work of this kind, should visit the section west of Canby.

Abe Cutting, who is a former resident of this county, but who now resides in Grant county, has been visiting here for several weeks. He will return to his home in a few days where he is interested in cattle raising. His brother David, also known here, has a band of about 3,500 sheep in the same county. Mr. Cutting reports that but few losses of stock occurred in his neighborhood.

Mrs. Cora Clickering, Miss Ada Zeller and Miss Frankie Zeller, of Columbus, Ohio, arrived in this city Saturday morning and are visiting their sister, Mrs. S. A. Hively, who resides in the J. W. Gray cottage at Green Point. They have been visiting with relatives in Southern California for several weeks, and will remain here a week before leaving for their home in Ohio. This is their first visit to the coast and were delighted with the Oregon climate.

Thomas Scott, of Scotts Mill, was in Oregon City Wednesday on his way to Portland. Mr. Scott is one of the pioneer mill men of Oregon, and is well known. Conditions have changed very materially in his section in the way of wheat production. The red soil of the foot hills has been found to be well adapted for fruit raising and for hops. As a result Mr. Scott's mill cannot be run more than one-third of the time, whereas it used to be busy the year around.

Frank Welch, Superintendent of the Molalla Central Mining Co., returned this week from the Company's holidays. He has several photographs showing the snow in the vicinity of their mines. The picture of the Company's cabin with the snow almost on a level with the top of the roof is a particularly interesting one. Mr. Welch feels enthusiastic about the Company's prospects and it is sincerely hoped that the mine will prove even better than he anticipates because it means much to Oregon City and Clackamas county.

An alarm was given, but before the firemen arrived the flames were extinguished by D-ll Hart, Bon and Will Nefzger, who were passing by on their way home from work. Little damage was done. The flames were supposed to have started from a lamp explosion.

Mr. G. F. Anderson and Miss Orpha Holclaw were united in marriage last Thursday afternoon at the Congregational manse, Rev. E. S. Bollinger officiating. Mr. Anderson, one of our tonorial artists, has been a resident of this city for about a year. Miss Holclaw recently arrived from Iowa. The newly-wedded people will take up their abode in this place. Long life and happiness be their lot.

The warm weather of the past few days is bringing the river up with a rush. It looks as though we might have the April and June rise at the same time in which case Portland will have a flood worth mentioning. The fishermen feel that fate is not kind to them as the high water interferes with the work which they can lawfully begin in a few days. On the other hand the balliffs will get a chance for a little rest. Patrolling several miles of swift river is no easy task as the balliffs fully recognize.

Death of John Baxter.

Died, in this city, Thursday, April 7, 1904, John Baxter, aged 63 years, 7 months and 20 days.

Mr. Baxter, who was enrolled as one of the early pioneers, passed away suddenly at his home in the northern part of this city last Thursday evening. He was born August, 21, 1840, and crossed the plains at the age of 12 years with his parents and met many hardships enroute, for his father died during the long and tedious trip. His early days were spent in Oregon. In 1865 he was wedded to Miss Janey Athey, of this city, who still survives him.

The deceased leaves ten children. They are Mrs. (Anna) Shoemaker, Mrs. Edna Loundagin, both of Dayton, Wash.; Mrs. Lizzie Charles, of Albany, Or.; Harry, Charles, James, Roy, Ward and Misses Mamie and Wanda Baxter, all of this city.

The funeral service was held at the residence on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Bollinger officiating, and the remains were laid to rest at Mountain View cemetery.
