The Presbyterian Endeavorers accepted a most cordial invitation of Mrs. Huelat-Bradley and spent a delightful evening on her lawn at Ely, last Friday. Mrs. Bradley has been ill, owing to a fall in alighting from a car on her return from the Pioneer Reunion in Portland, but is recovering.

The annual institute of this county will be held at the Barclay High School early in September, before the opening of the schools. President B. F. Mukey of the Ashland Normal, Superintendent L. R. Traver of the Salem schools and Professor D. A. Grout are among the instructors.

The putting of crushed rock on Center street was commenced this week, this being the final step in the making of the street. The sidewalks are still to be built, the delay experienced in getting lumber causing the contractors to be rather late in building the walks. This thoroughfare will be one of the best in the city when completed.

Misses Imogen Harding and Antoinette Walden have circulated a subscription during the past week for the purpose of raising money to rebuild the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sol Clark which was burned down a few days before the 4th, leaving the family destitute. The movement has been successful and the home of the Indian couple will probably soon be rebuilt.

D. K. Bill is commencing work on the erection of a hophouse at his yard below town near the motor line. The excavating for the house has been completed and the work of putting in the foundation for the house is now being done. The dimensions of the building will be 40x60 feet. Concrete piers will be put in for the foundation. Mr. Bill expects to have a good crop of hops from his yard this fall.

The members of the local fire companies, who have been in training for the past few weeks to compete at the Portland carnival for the prizes offered in the hose races, went to Portland yesterday morning and expected to compete yesterday and today. They will run four races altogether. Besides Capt. Frank McGinnis and Manager Lawrence Rugeonich, the team is made up of the following men: Tonkins, Warner, Hamilton, Love, Brown Beaulieu, Peters, Cox, Younger, Laurie, McFarland, Vegelius, Miller and Pope.

Work will soon be resumed on the state fish ladder over the falls here, which was no sooner begun last season than an injunction suit stopped all progress. It is expected that the work will be finished this summer so that during next winter the salmon can get into the upper Willamette to spawn. A system of pools and basins will be blasted in the rock, so that the fish can jump from one to another until the crest of the falls is reached. At the top a couple of concrete basins will be constructed. It will require about 12 men to build the fishway.

Divorces were asked for in the Circuit court Wednesday by A. Baty and Wm. King from May Baty and Carrie King, respectively. Baty charges his wife with cruel and inhuman treatment, saying that she cursed and swore at him, rendering his life burdensome, as well as alleging improper relations on the part of his wife. The two were married at Cherryville, this county, in 1888. The custody of two minor children is asked for by the plaintiff. William King alleges desertion on the part of his wife and asks for the care of three children, which are the result of the match.

The worst Fourth of July accident so far reported in this county occurred near Needy late on the night of the Fourth, when Clarence Green, the son of Street Commissioner John Green, lost most of his right hand by the explosion of a giant firecracker. He had driven out to Needy during the evening and some boys at Needy were exploding big firecrackers. One failed to explode and Green picked it up, thinking the fuse had gone out. Before he could drop it, it went off in his hand, tearing away the first two fingers and the thumb. He was taken to Aurora for medical treatment, and on Tuesday night brought to his home here.

The people of Oregon City and vicinity will have the opportunity this Sunday evening of hearing one of the child wives of India relate her own experiences. So much has been said and written of this suffering class of women that it will be a rare treat to hear it directly from one who has passed through it all, and one that does not come more than once in a life time as a rule. Mrs. Sukhoda Banarjee has only been in this country a few months but she speaks English well enough to be understood. If you want to hear all she has to say, and the first is perhaps the most interesting, you will have to be on time, as she will take the time of all the exercises. At the Baptist Church, Sunday evening, July 10th, at 7:45 p. m.

Death of P. F. Morey.

Mr. P. F. Morey, aged about 60 years, ex-president of the Portland General Electric Company and perhaps the richest man in the county, died at his farm near Oswego Thursday morning of heart disease. The end came very unexpectedly. Mr. Morey leaves a wife, a son Fred, and two daughters, Mrs. Axel Ekstrom of Albany, New York, and Miss Maud Morey, who lives with her parents. He was very well known here, he having lived here until a few years ago, when he took up his residence on the Oswego farm. Since that time he has been an almost daily visitor to this city, where he leaves many friends. He first came to Oregon City in 1892, making his home in this vicinity ever since. For a long time he was president of the Portland General Electric Company, being a large holder of the company's securities. It is estimated that he leaves an estate of probably $100,000. He was a member of Multnomah Lodge No. 1 of Masons and burial will probably be in Riverview cemetery under their auspices.

Meeting of City Council.

At the meeting of the city council Wednesday night, the committee on streets and public property was authorized to purchase crude petroleum to the extent of $20 and the same will be sprinkled on the brick pavement of Main street. An experiment in this direction, for the purpose of laying the dust, was made last week and it was found to work satisfactorily. It is believed that with the entire street sprinkled with the crude oil, the dust evil will be done away with.

There Are So Many Reasons Why

You ought to trade at our drug store that there is not room enough in a little advertisement to tell them all. One reason is that we are MODERN. We keep pace with new ideas and new conditions. As fast as anything better than we have is invented we secure it. As fast as we discover newer and purer, and more desirable things we take them up. But the old reasons are best of all—The reasons that will always govern us; these are Reliability, Honesty, Promptness, Purity, and Freshness of stock. The best always—never the next best.
