

Try for Health

222 South Peoria St.
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 7, 1902.

Eight months ago I was so ill that I was compelled to lie on my back nearly all the time. My stomach was so weak and upset that I could keep nothing on it and I vomited frequently. I could not urinate without great pain and I coughed so much that my throat and lungs were raw and sore. The doctors pronounced it Bright's disease and others said it was consumption. It mattered little to me what they called it and I had no desire to live. A sister visited me from St. Louis and asked me if I had tried Wine of Cardui. I told her I had not and she bought a bottle. I believe that it saved my life. I believe many women could save much suffering if they but knew of its value.

Surgar Quinby

Don't you want freedom from pain? Take Wine of Cardui and make one supreme effort to be well. You do not need to be a weak, helpless sufferer. You can have a woman's health and do a woman's work in life. Why not secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today?

Miss Jennie F. W. Johnson, the "sweet singer of Chicago," is one of the great attractions at this year's Chautauqua. Her rich and cultivated voice has already delighted the ears of thousands of Chautauquans, and she has yet to render many of her best numbers. Do not fail to hear her before the close of the season.

Mr. F. X. HOLL, Asst. Supt. Div. 3, I. C. S., Portland, Ore.
Dear Sir:—Replying to yours of the 6th inst., will say, when I enrolled in the Schools I was receiving a salary of $60 per month, or $700 per year, and am now advanced to $90 per month, or $1,080 per year, an increase of 50% per cent. Aside from the financial gain, there is the satisfaction of knowing that you know the theory and fundamental principles of the profession, and no technical report or discussion is beyond your comprehension.

There is absolutely no question concerning the ability of the schools to teach, or of a student in learning under the system employed by the International Correspondence Schools, of Scranton, Pa.

Respectfully yours,
