A QUESTION OF COLOR.

The Matter of Height Didn't Seem to Figure In the Scheme,

The young man considers himself a man of resources, although he is not as sure about it now as he was a few days ago. He has been very attentive to a certain young lady, and he was calling on her at the time that he partially lost confidence in his resourceful mind.

It is unnecessary to narrate what passed between them upon the occasion in question, but at the time the young lady's sister entered the room he was in the act of folding the young lady to his manly bosom.

Of course he desisted at once, as young men generally do under such circumstances, but he was not embarrassed-not a bit. The young lady's sister said, "Excuse me," and started to leave the room, when his resourceful mind began to work. He felt that he ought to say something and say it right away. "Don't go," he said; "we've just been measuring to see which one is the She paused in the doorway and looked at them intently.

"You're both about the same height," she said quietly, "but sister is much the redder."

Then she went out and he was embarrassed-just a little.-New York

A Donkey Decoy. A traveler in central Africa tells of a native hunter of the Wanderobo tribe who was the possessor of a most accomplished donkey, which, with an antelope's horns strapped to its head, its body covered with a skin or painted to resemble the animal its master intended to stalk that day, was the means of deluding many an unwary creature into falling a victim to the poisoned arrows of the hunter crouching behind his four footed assistant.

THE WAR IN THE EAST.

Important Battles in Progress at Port Arthur and Near Lino Vang.

The position of the Russians under Gen. Kuropatkin is becoming perilons. Gan, Kuroki, with 100,000 men, is now behind the Russian forces; Gen. Oku, with 50,000 men, is in their front and on their left, with 50,000 men, is Gen. Nodzu. A decisive battle is expected at any hour.

At Port Arthur, the Russian troops have been driven back to their last line of defenses.

THE MEAT STRIKE STILL ON.

Both Strikers and Employes Claim Advantage Over the Other.

The meatpackers' strike is still unbroken. The plants are running with unskilled labor and short forces. Outside industries were first affected on Wednesday night, when the Team sters' Union received orders forbid ding teamsters to dieliver any ice a retail shops that obtain their supplic from the packing houses. Oregon Development League.

On last Tuesdy was opened a meeting that, it is hoped, will prove of lasting benefit to the state of Oregon. Three hundred delegtaes from the various counties of the state, and representing all its varied interests, met for the purpose of devising ways and means for making known to the world the immense advantages and golden opportunities offered by Oregon to capital and labor. The meeting was enthusiastic; yet the delegates are not the class of men who are prone to talk much and do little. Good business judgment characterized the utterances. Chairman Cake ontlined the purposes of the league as follows: 'The objects are to bring all portions of the state together in a co-operative movemet for the advance of the state -to bind together all the individual resources of the state by collecting facts and the statistics of all these resources, and thus, through a central body, exploit to the world at large the greatness of Oregon, her soil and her climate-the extensiveness of her mining, agricultural, horticulturtal and timber resources. 🚍 Enthusiastic speeches were made by delegates from many of the counties. Permanent organization was effected Wednesday morning by the election of the following officers: President, E. L. Smith, Hood River; vice-presidents, F. J. Blakley, Roseburg; J. G. Graham, Salem; A. Bennett, Irrigon; J. H. Atkin, Huntington; J. Q. A. Bowlby, Clatsop; secretary and treasurer, T. Richardson, Porltand.
