

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

A son was born Tuesday morning to the wife of W. B. Zumwalt.

The bonfire social that was given at St. Paul's rectory on Tuesday night was in every way a success.

County School Superintendent J. C. Zinser commenced with the regular quarterly examinations on Wednesday for applicants for state and county certificates.

On Friday night of this week the Presbyterian Sunday School will give a lawn social at the home of C. Schuebel on Jefferson street between Seventh and Eighth streets.

A demurrer to the complaint of Agnes Silver, who is suing George Silver for a divorce, was filed in the clerk's office last Tuesday by the attorneys for the defence.

On Tuesday the sale of the farm of J. W. Powell to V. F. Blackwood was recorded. The farm is situated two miles south of the city and comprises 78 acres which sold for $100.

Adolphus Koztman has commenced suit for divorce from his wife, Lenora Koztman. They were married in Clackamas county in 1899 and he alleges that his wife left him in 1903.

The 6-year-old son of P. J. Bowerman fell while playing Wednesday night, and broke one of the bones in his leg. Dr. Stuart was called and set the limb, which is healing rapidly.

At a meeting of the school board it was decided to open school on September 26. At this meeting the contract for connecting the two schools with the city sewers was awarded to Lewis & Ketching, of Chicago, for $1650.

Monday night there was a most enjoyable lawn social held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Nelson on Seventh and J. Q. Adams streets. Ice cream and cake were served to a good crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Byland, formerly of this city, but now of Malheur county, were in the city Saturday visiting their daughter, Mrs. C. S. Seamann.

After being married but two months to his bride, John Schwickert, who conducted a grocery store for a short time on Seventh street near the railroad, suddenly left his spouse and failed to provide her money with which to exist.

The Triennial Conclave Knights Templar will be held at San Francisco September 5th to 9th and the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. will be held at the same point September 19th to 25th.

The dredger that has been in operation in the river opposite Green Point for the past week, is getting out gravel for the concrete work on the new mill that is being built by the W. P. & P. Co.

Two drunks were brought before Mayor Dimick on Tuesday and one was sentenced to one day in jail while the other offender was given ten days.

Small Fire On Taylor Street.

Tuesday night about 6:30 o'clock a fire alarm was turned in at engine house No. 3. The fire was located at Eleventh and Taylor streets in the house owned by Isaac Prindle and occupied by a man by the name of Howard.

Traction Roller Used On Seventh Street.

The traction roller that is rolling Center street attracts considerable attention to on-lookers as it is an innovation to the people of Oregon City who have been accustomed to see a roller propelled by horses.

street with. It weighs eleven tons and can roll two blocks in a day. Notwithstanding it looks ungainly, it can be managed as nicely as the most modern automobile.

PERSONALS

Judge William Galloway was an Oregon City visitor last Saturday. Adam Knight, of Canby, was an Oregon City visitor on Monday.

R. L. Holman and family returned from a vacation spent at Newport. Mrs. Ed Fortune left Wednesday for an extensive visit in California.

Ross Farr has returned from a two weeks' outing on the Tualatin river. Chris Hartman and John Moore spent a few days at Seaside last week.

Miss Laura Templeton left Tuesday for a visit among relatives in the East. Ed Titus and I. D. Taylor returned last week from an outing to the coast.

George Clark and family, of Logan, were Oregon City visitors last week. George Swafford is spending his vacation with his parents in Oregon City.

Livy Stipp went to Carrinsville the first part of the week for a short visit. Miss Hazel Pillsbury, of Portland, was an Oregon City visitor last Sunday.

Mrs. Harry M. Shaw, of Eugene, spent Sunday in the city with her husband. Miss Clark and Miss Nettie Bradley returned Wednesday from a trip to the St. Louis Fair.

J. W. Burks, Jr. left Monday for Tennessee, where he will spend three weeks visiting his old home. Miss Alvina Horn left for Seaside last Friday, where she will spend her vacation with friends.

Gordon and Merrill Moores left for Salem last week where they have obtained work in a sawmill. Mrs. Barney Dionne has returned to her home at Seattle, after visiting her sister, Mrs. C. A. Miller, on the West Side.

Dr. W. E. Carl is the winner of the raffle of a ticket to St. Louis and $100 for expenses while seeing the Fair. Carleton B. Harding left on Tuesday night's overland for Berkeley, Cal., where he will attend the University of California.

D. R. Dimick, the livery man, was kicked by a horse the first part of the week and as a result has a badly bruised eye. Francis Feller and H. L. Bents who are interested in hops at Butteville, were in Oregon City on business last Saturday.

George G. Guild and wife, of San Francisco arrived in Oregon City Tuesday and will spend a short vacation here. Mrs. A. J. Sawtell, of Molalla, returned today from an extended visit to her daughter, Mrs. Lewis, of Kalamath Falls.

J. L. Waldron and family left last week for the Toll Gate on the Mount Hood road, where they will spend the vacation. Miss Zilpha Galloway was an Oregon City visitor last week. She has just returned from a visit to different points in Idaho.

A. F. Sleight and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Church and Mrs. James Church left the first part of the week for Mount Hood. County Judge T. F. Ryan left on Wednesday for Salem, where he attended the meeting of the Good Roads Association.

John, Ida M. Roppel and George C. Roppel will leave soon for Peoria, Ill., where they will visit their grandparents several months. G. W. Church has returned from Mount Hood, where he accompanied his family and the family of F. A. Sleight on their vacation.

J. F. Hantelman left last Friday for Alberta, Canada, where he will look over the ground preparatory to investing in some business. Prof. W. Gilbert Beattie and wife have returned from Eugene, where Mr. Beattie served as an instructor at the University of Oregon summer school.

A. W. Baird, who has been studying medicine for three years in New York City was visiting with his mother and sister in Oregon City the first part of the week. Will Logus is spending a two weeks' vacation at Wilhoit, and while he is away his work at the Western Union Telegraph office will be done by Elmer Bacon.

Ed Schwab, formerly a clerk in the office of the Crown Paper Company, was visiting friends in this city last week. He is employed in a railroad office in San Francisco, and he is home for a visit to his parents in Portland.

A Bold Bad Man. M. J. Jones was brought before Mayor Dimick on Monday and charged with being drunk and disorderly. He was fined $10 which he paid. He is reported to have started in to carve things with his knife but was stopped by the police before any damage was done.

Following is the list of letters remaining in the Oregon City postoffice unclaimed August 11, 1904: Miss Jessie Blair (2), Mabel G. Smith, Miss Clara Davis, Mrs. Emma Wilkinson, Mrs. Maggie Harper, Mrs. Lillie Wheeler, Mrs. E. E. Kelly, J. H. Clark, Geo. E. Miller, Arthur Dickenson, M. O'Conner, Master Willie Grubbs, Guy Richard, Wm. Holmes, M. Sasman, B. F. Hicks, Jacob Smith, Pearl Kinkade, W. G. Scheer.

Letter List. Following is the list of letters remaining in the Oregon City postoffice unclaimed August 11, 1904: Miss Jessie Blair (2), Mabel G. Smith, Miss Clara Davis, Mrs. Emma Wilkinson, Mrs. Maggie Harper, Mrs. Lillie Wheeler, Mrs. E. E. Kelly, J. H. Clark, Geo. E. Miller, Arthur Dickenson, M. O'Conner, Master Willie Grubbs, Guy Richard, Wm. Holmes, M. Sasman, B. F. Hicks, Jacob Smith, Pearl Kinkade, W. G. Scheer.

Small Fire On Taylor Street. Tuesday night about 6:30 o'clock a fire alarm was turned in at engine house No. 3. The fire was located at Eleventh and Taylor streets in the house owned by Isaac Prindle and occupied by a man by the name of Howard.

Traction Roller Used On Seventh Street. The traction roller that is rolling Center street attracts considerable attention to on-lookers as it is an innovation to the people of Oregon City who have been accustomed to see a roller propelled by horses.

Water rent must be paid in advance at the office of the collector during the first ten days of each month. All delinquents will have the service shut off thereafter.

By order of the Board of Water Commissioners, T. Leonard Charman, Collector. Ordered July 6, 1904.

For Sale—Lot 4, blk 34, Central Addition to Oregon City. Nice level lot. Inquire at Courier office or of J. P. Putnam.

PERSONALS

Judge William Galloway was an Oregon City visitor last Saturday. Adam Knight, of Canby, was an Oregon City visitor on Monday.

R. L. Holman and family returned from a vacation spent at Newport. Mrs. Ed Fortune left Wednesday for an extensive visit in California.

Ross Farr has returned from a two weeks' outing on the Tualatin river. Chris Hartman and John Moore spent a few days at Seaside last week.

Miss Laura Templeton left Tuesday for a visit among relatives in the East. Ed Titus and I. D. Taylor returned last week from an outing to the coast.

George Clark and family, of Logan, were Oregon City visitors last week. George Swafford is spending his vacation with his parents in Oregon City.

Livy Stipp went to Carrinsville the first part of the week for a short visit. Miss Hazel Pillsbury, of Portland, was an Oregon City visitor last Sunday.

Mrs. Harry M. Shaw, of Eugene, spent Sunday in the city with her husband. Miss Clark and Miss Nettie Bradley returned Wednesday from a trip to the St. Louis Fair.

J. W. Burks, Jr. left Monday for Tennessee, where he will spend three weeks visiting his old home. Miss Alvina Horn left for Seaside last Friday, where she will spend her vacation with friends.

Gordon and Merrill Moores left for Salem last week where they have obtained work in a sawmill. Mrs. Barney Dionne has returned to her home at Seattle, after visiting her sister, Mrs. C. A. Miller, on the West Side.

Dr. W. E. Carl is the winner of the raffle of a ticket to St. Louis and $100 for expenses while seeing the Fair. Carleton B. Harding left on Tuesday night's overland for Berkeley, Cal., where he will attend the University of California.

D. R. Dimick, the livery man, was kicked by a horse the first part of the week and as a result has a badly bruised eye. Francis Feller and H. L. Bents who are interested in hops at Butteville, were in Oregon City on business last Saturday.

George G. Guild and wife, of San Francisco arrived in Oregon City Tuesday and will spend a short vacation here. Mrs. A. J. Sawtell, of Molalla, returned today from an extended visit to her daughter, Mrs. Lewis, of Kalamath Falls.

J. L. Waldron and family left last week for the Toll Gate on the Mount Hood road, where they will spend the vacation. Miss Zilpha Galloway was an Oregon City visitor last week. She has just returned from a visit to different points in Idaho.

A. F. Sleight and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Church and Mrs. James Church left the first part of the week for Mount Hood. County Judge T. F. Ryan left on Wednesday for Salem, where he attended the meeting of the Good Roads Association.

John, Ida M. Roppel and George C. Roppel will leave soon for Peoria, Ill., where they will visit their grandparents several months. G. W. Church has returned from Mount Hood, where he accompanied his family and the family of F. A. Sleight on their vacation.

J. F. Hantelman left last Friday for Alberta, Canada, where he will look over the ground preparatory to investing in some business. Prof. W. Gilbert Beattie and wife have returned from Eugene, where Mr. Beattie served as an instructor at the University of Oregon summer school.

A. W. Baird, who has been studying medicine for three years in New York City was visiting with his mother and sister in Oregon City the first part of the week. Will Logus is spending a two weeks' vacation at Wilhoit, and while he is away his work at the Western Union Telegraph office will be done by Elmer Bacon.

Ed Schwab, formerly a clerk in the office of the Crown Paper Company, was visiting friends in this city last week. He is employed in a railroad office in San Francisco, and he is home for a visit to his parents in Portland.

A Bold Bad Man. M. J. Jones was brought before Mayor Dimick on Monday and charged with being drunk and disorderly. He was fined $10 which he paid. He is reported to have started in to carve things with his knife but was stopped by the police before any damage was done.

HUNTLEY BROS. CO. DRUGGISTS, AND BOOKSELLERS. MAKE USE OF OUR SERVICE. We provide a variety of little conveniences to which you are entirely welcome at all times.

The Brownie Camera $1.00. HUNTLEY'S ALMOND CREAM. You will like our Almond Cream. We have never yet found anybody who could find a fault in it.

FOR FIRST CLASS JOB WORK GO TO The Courier. We have put in a large amount of new type and machinery and are now prepared to do all kinds of work.

Anti-Trust Goods. We are agents for Anthony and Scovin & Co. Photo Line of Films, Printing, Developing Paper. We guarantee every Ansco Film.

CHARMAN & CO. CITY DRUG STORE. Try White Clover Ice Cream. Pure Fruit Juices at our Fountain.