

A Few Facts

At no time in the long career of this house have we been in a better position to give our customers the very best service from every standpoint. Our experience as well as our stock is at the service of every patron. We consult his interest no less than our own and try to make his every purchase a profitable one.

Gold Filled Watches

Look as well and wear as well as a solid gold one and cost much less. You must look on the inside for the stamp in order to tell a good gold filled case from a solid gold case. We fit these cases with any desired movement such as the Waltham, Elgin or Hamilton make.

We sell gold filled watches guaranteed to wear twenty years for $12.00 and $15.00, some as low as $10. And we can fit them with the very best grades of movements.

The latest in this ware is their new pattern "Vintage", which we can furnish in spoons, forks and fancy pieces. It is finished entirely different from anything heretofore produced by this company. Come in and see it.

Clocks, all Sizes

From a fine Mantel Clock to a Nickel Alarm Clock of the very best makes only.

- Fine Black Wood Clock from $6 to $10
 - Gold Plated Clocks..... $2 to $8
 - Porcelain Clocks..... $2 to $3.50
 - Oak Mantel Clocks, Eight Day, Half Hour Strike..... $3 to $4
 - Nickel Alarm Clocks warranted for one year..... $1.00
- Come in and see our Spasmodic Alarm Clocks, the best ever put on the market.

YOU THINK IT OVER

For you could not find a better or more useful article than a

PARKER FOUNTAIN PEN

We have a complete line. Prices from $1.50 to $10.00. Let us remind you that right now is the time to pick one out. We guarantee them.

Libbey's Celebrated Cut Glass

It needs no introduction. It pleases the most exacting customers. We carry a large line of this popular ware.

There is no extra charge for Libbey's style. We have nicely cut pieces from $2 to $3. Some larger ones at $5 and $6, and as high as $20.

Now is the best time to make selections.

It's all in the Buying

Right buying is the basis of right selling. We buy our Umbrellas in large lots direct from the largest Factory in the United States. We pay cash for them and get the benefit of all the discounts. This enables us to sell Umbrellas as low as any house in Portland

Here Is one Better

Our personal Guarantee goes with every Umbrella we sell, no matter what price. We have all the late styles in handles for Ladies and gents.

PRICES FROM - $1 to $10

Eye Troubles

Good sight is a blessing second to none on earth and every person should take the very best possible care of it. When glasses are necessary, get the best you can afford, but be sure they are expertly fitted to your eyes.

We have a competent Optician who does this work with especial care and charge nothing for the service.

BURMEISTER & ANDRESEN

THE OREGON CITY JEWELERS
SUSPENSION BRIDGE CORNER

PERSONAL MENTION.

Thomas Duffy, of Beaver Creek, was in town last Monday.
Ralph Marshall, of Russelville, was in town Sunday visiting relatives.
Mrs. T. P. Randall is spending the week in Portland, the guest of friends.
Victor Dickey, a school teacher from Molalla, was in town on business Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Huntley and daughter made a short trip to Molalla the first of the week.
Warren Greenwell Democratic committeeman from Damascus precinct, was in town Saturday.
F. L. Mosfit, of San Francisco was visiting at the home of Mrs. E. J. Marshall last Saturday.
Hon. E. P. Maroon, an attorney of Woodburn, was attending Judge McBride's court Saturday.
William Mortenson, a prominent sawmill man of Marquam, was in the city on Friday on business.
Miss Ella Shaver left Saturday morning for Gervais, where she will visit friends for a few days.
Attorney and Mrs. C. D. Latour-ette were the guest of Dr. C. B. Smith at Eagle Creek Sunday.
Former Deputy Assessor Lloyd Williams, now a resident of Canby, was in the city on business Tuesday.
F. S. L. Bagby, manager of the Bagby Lumber Co. of Aurora, was transacting business in town Saturday.
Mrs. Eliza Wilbern, of Eagle Creek, spent Monday and Tuesday, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Malon.
Mayor G. B. Dimick, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Fry, of Hubbard, made a trip to Forest Grove Sunday.
F. E. Schatzman, Alexander Smith and Joseph Simmons, all leading farmers of Molalla, were in town Monday.
Miss Edna Caulfield and Miss Edna Danton will leave Sunday for Eugene, where they will enter the State University.
Arthur Howell and Chris Kelly have returned from Alaska where they have been engaged in mining for the past six months.
Mrs. George C. Brownell and son, Ambrose, have returned from a visit of several months with relatives and friends in the East.

Jessie Caldwell has returned from Pendleton, where he has been for the past year, and will remain in Oregon City this winter.
J. T. Wallace has secured a permit to teach the Tracy school, district No. 68, at Currisville, and commenced work last Monday.
E. H. Cowing has moved to Portland to reside. Mr. Cowing is permanently engaged as draughtsman in the office of the Portland Gas Co.
Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Horn, of Portland, who have just returned from a sojourn of several months at Seaside, visited relatives in this city Sunday.
Mrs. Ed Kellogg and children left last week for Eastern Washington, where they will remain during the winter visiting Mrs. Kellogg's parents.
Rev. E. S. Bollinger went to Tualatin Friday night, where he delivered a lecture in the Congregational church on the subject of "The Samples We Carry."
Mr. and Mrs. Morrow removed from this city to Harrisburg, Linn county, this week, where Mr. Morrow has a position with the Southern Pacific railroad.
Walter L. Dimick, Fred J. Meindl and Oscar D. Eby have received word from Salem that they were successful in passing the examination for admission to the Oregon Bar.
E. N. Foster, Dr. C. B. Smith, Gus Burnett, George Brown and W. Woods, of Eagle Creek, were in the city Monday and attended the sale of the property of the Jacques heirs.
Miss Jessie Bibbe and Miss Helen Bollinger arrived last Friday night from Forest Grove, where they were attending Pacific University, and visited relatives in this city for a few days.
Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert L. Hedges, who are on their honeymoon, have written from St. Louis that they would leave there Monday last for Salt Lake, and will arrive in Oregon City in about two weeks.
Mrs. Donaldson, of Stevenson, B. C., wife of Rev. J. M. Donaldson, former rector of St Paul's church, is in this city looking after her property at Green Point. She is the guest of her friends, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Cowing.
T. R. A. Sellwood, Democratic committeeman from Milwaukie, was in Oregon City Monday morning on his way to Champeok, where he has a large hop yard. Mr. Sellwood is putting out another yard and is personally supervising the work.

Mrs. B. F. Linn returned from Walla Walla last Monday, where she had been visiting with her brother for a few days. She attended the fair, races and carnival, while there. Mrs. Linn considers Walla Walla a delightful "city of homes."
Rev. J. H. Beaven returned Tuesday from a ten days' trip to McMinnville and Walla Walla. He says that the Baptist State convention at McMinnville was one of the best he has ever attended, and that the progress of the Oregon Baptist Churches is very satisfactory. Mr. Beaven was in Walla Walla several days on business connected with the affairs of the church.
Mrs. Margaret Burmeister has returned from a five months' trip to Germany. She spent most of her time in Hamburg, Berlin, and in the mountains at one of the famous resorts for the benefit of her health. Mrs. Burmeister's stay was a very enjoyable one, and she is in much better health than when she left here last June. When she arrived at New York she was met at the pier by Sam Sell-ling and Miss Sybil Lippett, who are in the East on an extensive sojourn.
Saturday Club's Musicals.
The musicals to be given under the auspices of the Saturday Club at the First Congregational Church next Friday evening will be an event of more than usual interest in musical and social circles. The program will be rendered by three of the professors of the Conservatory of Music of Pacific University, of Forest Grove, and follows:
Sonata—op. 24, (for piano and violin)..... Beethoven
(a) allegro (b) adagio motto expressio (c) scherzo (d) rondo—allegro ma non troppo.
(a) Nymphs and Fauns..... Bemberg
(b) Villanelle..... Eva Del Agua
Mazurka..... Miss Linehan
Mazurka..... Masin
(a) "Mighty Lik a Rose" Nevin (b) "Supposing" Bischoff (c) "Better Ask Me"..... Lohr
Legende..... Miss Linehan
Carmens..... Wieniawski
Zigennerweisen, (gypsy air)..... H. Lane Wilson
Bel aggio (aria)..... Rossini
Waltz—op. 43..... Chopin
Miss Waggener.

WEEK IN THE COURTS

A decree of divorce has been made in the Circuit Court in the case of C. M. Baldwin vs Mary A. Baldwin.
A judgment has been rendered for $578.75 in the case of L. A. Beede vs George A. Hardisty. The plaintiff also recovers his costs and disbursements.
Judge McBride has overruled the demurrer in the suit of William H. Heyser, vs Liddie G. Heyser, for a divorce.
An order for foreclosure on the northwest quarter of section 10, township 2, north range 5 e, has been made in the Circuit Court. This property was mortgaged to secure a loan and a judgment has been rendered for $257.05 in the case of A. E. Latourette, trustee, vs G. D. and Mattie Pickens.
Notice of Appeal Filed.
A notice of appeal from the decision of the circuit court to the supreme court has been filed in the case of Margaret Barrington vs John W. Loder, Mrs. A. M. Hayden, and W. B. Hayden, her husband, Catherine Miller, and Elvira Fellows. This case involves a foreclosure of a mortgage. D. C. and C. D. Latourette represent the defendants, who are taking the appeal and the plaintiff's case is in charge of Grant B. Dimick and C. J. Schabel. This morning an exception was filed to the notice of appeal on the ground that the justification of surety, J. J. Cooke, was insufficient.
She Threatened to Kill Him.
Alfred Press has brought suit for a divorce from Julia Press, whom he married June 14, 1899, at LaGrande, Oregon. He alleges cruel and inhuman treatment and personal indignities, and states that on May 8, of this year, in Portland, the defendant threatened to kill the plaintiff. On May 18, 1904, the defendant, without cause or provocation, caused the arrest of the plaintiff upon the false charge of assault and battery but he was acquitted. The couple have one child, Harriet, aged 4 years, now with its mother at La Grande. Mr. Press states further that his wife deserted him May 23, 1904, and asks for the custody of the child.
Damage Suit of Mayor.
O. W. Eastham, attorney for Mrs. Hoskins, who is being sued for $250 on account of having printed an alleged defamatory article, which reflected upon the character and good name of his honor, Mayor Grant B. Dimick, has filed a demurrer to the complaint, stating that the facts are insufficient to constitute a cause of action. Mayor Dimick is representing himself in the suit, and it is now up to the two attorneys to get together and agree upon a date when the demurrer shall be argued before Justice Stepp.

File Mechanics Lien.
William Beman and C. Z. Lake have filed a mechanics lien on 125 cords of wood belonging to C. B. Chandler, which has been cut from dead timber, and is now stacked up in a pile at Seifer on the line of the Oregon Water Power & Railway Company. The claim is for labor for hauling the wood. Beman was to receive $1 a cord and Lake 50 cents per cord. They worked 135 days between June 1, 1904, and October 18, 1904. Beman's claim was $553, and of this amount $407.25 has been paid, there now being due $145.75. The claim of Lake was $72, all of which has been paid, with the exception of $32.
Isaac D. Surfus Estate.
Mary M. Surfus has filed a petition in the county court asking that she be appointed administrator of the estate of the late Isaac D. Surfus, who died in this county July 18, 1904. The estate consist of 130 acres of real estate, valued at $1200 and personal property valued at $350. The personal property is mostly farming implements. The heirs are: Mary M. Surfus, widow, aged 53 years; Charles E., aged 25 years; Wiona E., aged 23 years, and Isabella M., aged 19 years.
Sued by a Physician.
Dr. Ella E. Dearborn, of Portland, has commenced suit in the circuit court to recover $52.15 from J. N. Maule and Carrie Maule, his wife. The plaintiff alleges that she is a practicing physician and surgeon and that the services for which the claim has been brought were rendered from July 4, 1903, to July 15, 1902. An attachment has been secured and the property of the defendant will be levied upon to cover the claim.
Lambermann Sues for Divorce.
F. E. Linn, who is well known in lumber circles and who operates a sawmill in Clackamas county, has commenced suit against his wife for a divorce, charging her with attending dances and keeping late hours, and of having a fondness for the companionship of other men beside himself. Sometimes, he alleges, she returns from a dance at a late hour, long after midnight. The couple were married in December, 1895.

Alleges Desertion.
Hollis Hartlow has commenced suit against Francis Hartlow for a divorce on the ground of desertion. They were married in May, 1886, at Abrams, Wisconsin, and have two children, a daughter, Hattie, aged 17 years, and a son, Earl, aged 15 years. The plaintiff alleges that his wife deserted him in May, 1901, and asks the court for the custody of the children.
Had to Work in Restaurant
Jessie B. Ringland filed a suit in the circuit court asking for a divorce from David U. Ringland, alleging cruelty and desertion. She says she is compelled to work at a restaurant for $20 per month in order to support herself and two children.
Court Notes.
Jacob Harless has commenced suit against N. P. Katler to recover $78.84, the balance alleged to be due on a promissory note for $97 and for $25 attorneys fees.
The case of W. A. Dimick vs Charles Grider has been settled. Grider paying the amount of the claim against him, $70, and his team and wagon have been released from attachment.
A petition to probate the will of the late John O. Wilson has been filed in the county court.
A demurrer has been filed to the complaint in the case of William H. Heyser vs Liddie G. Heyser. This is an action for divorce.
In the suit of Priscilla McKinney and Lillian Bell Sparks against Nancy Anderson a demurrer has been filed, alleging that the complaint does not state sufficient facts to constitute a cause of action.
A petition for letters of administration has been filed by Mrs. Katherine Lins, widow of the late Herman Lins. The real property of the estate is valued at $1200 and the personal property at $1700. The real value of the real property is $90 per annum.
F. A. McCarthy has filed a divorce against Lena McCarthy. They were married in Eugene. The plaintiff alleges that his wife deserted him on August 15, 1902.

See list of Courier Premiums on page 11.