

TWO BULLETS PAST HIS HEAD

Unknown Man Fires Two Shots From Rifle.

SCARES LAMBERT BEARD

Miscrrent Waits Until Boy
Passes and Then Shoots
--Mind Probably Is Unbalanced.

While Lambert, the 12-year-old son of William Beard, was on his way home from school Monday afternoon, he became the victim of an incident that is nothing short of an outrage. Mr. Beard's home is on the Molalla road, two miles from town. The young man attends the high school in the Barclay building and walks home, arriving there about dark. Monday evening he passed a man about half way between his home and Josi's farm. He gave a fleeting glance at the man's face, but only remembers that he did not know the man, and can give no description of him, as his attention was attracted to the rifle that the man carried. The boy is a great lover of guns, and thought it strange that the man should carry a rifle, when in this time of the season for hunting pheasants, hunters nearly always have shot guns. The unknown man passed him without a word, and the boy proceeded on toward his home, and had nearly reached his gate, when he heard the report of a gun, and a bullet whizzed past his head, causing him to wince, and suddenly there was another gunshot, and another bullet passed him. He got into the house with all the speed of which he is capable, and reported the matter to his parents. The man's object in firing the shots is puzzling. He may have been trying to frighten the boy, in which event he may be put down as mentally unbalanced, and if Mr. Beard should ascertain who the man is, he will make it warm for him.

Saved His Life.
J. W. L. report, Wingo, Ky., writes: June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Lintment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one of my lungs was entirely gone, and the other badly affected. I also had a lump on my side. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Lintment. The first application gave me great relief; two fifty cent bottles cured me sound and well. It is a wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity. Charman & Co."

His Wife Beat Him.
Suit for divorce was filed Wednesday by J. E. Andock against Hattie G. Andock on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment. The plaintiff states that on the first anniversary of their marriage his wife celebrated the occasion by striking and beating him with her fist and used vile and abusive language.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.
"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tullamore, Ontario, Canada. For sale by Geo. A. Harding.

Sues for Damages.
O. L. Barber has filed an action in the circuit court against D. E. Leland and others alleging that in 1902 he leased the defendants 42 acres of land on their agreement to set out three acres of hops together with the yard now on the land. He says they have failed to keep the agreement and asks that the lease be declared forfeited and that he be allowed $1,500 damages.

Suit to Foreclose Mortgage.
Suit has been commenced by Richard Clinton and George W. McCoy against A. E. and Pauline Hammond and the Oregon Iron & Steel Company to foreclose a mortgage on four lots in Rosewood. This mortgage was given by Hammond and wife to secure a promissory note for $500, given September 14, 1893, and payable in 18 months. An attorney's fee of $50 is also sued for. The Oregon Iron and Steel Company claim an interest in these lots, and the plaintiffs ask for a decree of the court ordering that the Oregon Iron and Steel Company have no right, title, interest or claim in the premises.
