Mahara's Minstrels. After many years of experience in the minstrel field the well known managers of the Mahara's Minstrels have hit upon a new idea and will introduce a big lady chorus with their show this season. And in view of the old time performances they present a newer and more attractive kind, mirth, melody and music, in fact it is safe to say the elaborate program "A la musicale" is one of the best things ever introduced in any bill of minstrelsy. The comedians are many and form a school of humor where only the best emanate from, while the dancing, cotettes, and numerous other clever people who have a hand in the fun making are decidedly worthy up-to-date attractions. Shively's Opera House, February 9.

City Council. The council passed a resolution Wednesday placing liability for any damage that may result from the collapse of the basin bulkhead, upon the Portland General Electric Company. The company's engineer, T. W. Sullivan, stated that plans were being prepared for the construction of a floodgate or concrete bulkhead, to cost about $35,000, and the company expected Oregon City to assume a portion of the expense of construction. The remonstrance against the proposed improvement of Fourth street, from High to Monroe street, was referred to the street and public property committee. The city engineer was ordered to establish the grade on Moss and Eleventh streets between blocks 9 and 10, a petition having been presented for the improvement of this street. The tournament committee was granted $200 to be used to aid the success of the fireman's tournament in this city July 3, 4, and 5, next.

Nearly two acres, Oregon City. Value $650 and some cash for outside acreage. Box 561, Oregon City. Killed By Dynamite. Lawrence Hardman was found dead Tuesday night, within one hundred yards of his home at Meldrum's Station. Last August he went to Lebanon and there married Miss Julia Hood. They came to this city after their marriage, bought a two and one-half acre tract from Judge Meldrum at Meldrum Station. Hardman built a little house for himself and his bride, and set about to clear his land and make a home for them.

An Unjust Prayer. Macksburg, Ore., Jan. 28.—Editor Courier:—In the Oregon Legislature on January 20, 1905, there was sent to heaven a special prayer by a certain Portland clergyman in behalf of U. S. Senator John H. Mitchell. What the exact prayer was, and what attention it will receive from the Almighty, we do not know. In this land of religious liberty we have a right to pray for whom, when, and where we please, and the subject matter of our prayers is unrestricted. But we also have the right to criticize the one who prays as well as the subject matter of his prayer, especially if it is uttered from the rostrum of our legislative hall.

In our opinion, that particular prayer ought to be ruled out of order. It shows favoritism; it reveals either thoughtlessness or bad manners and it exposes a feeling that means, "save my friend, right or wrong." However, since this petition has gone beyond recall, it would be only a matter of equal right for our legislature to hire some reverend friend of Hermann, Williamson and each of their accomplices respectively, and allow them to offer up a fervent prayer in their behalf. For surely if reports are true, no man so far as we now know, is more in need of help from above than "our Binger."

In our humble judgment this prayer business in our legislative hall is now a farce. We are not opposed to prayer, but it certainly would show a better purpose and reveal a nobler heart if our public ministers, especially in the legislative halls of the nation, would pray that justice be done to all, regardless of person, be it friend or foe. Would it not be better to petition Almighty God to strengthen the arms of Heney, the government prosecutor, and provide him with all that is necessary to clear from suspicion the innocent and put behind prison bars the guilty? Would it not be nobler to give our aid to those who are trying so earnestly to purify our government? Let us pray and work for righteous principles and for justice to the end that injustice and wrong shall eventually disappear from the earth.

ROBERT GINTHER.
