A. M. Kirchem is assisting D. W. Kinnaird setting grade stakes on the road from Fisher's mill to the main road.

Our G. O. P. friends seem to be in a hard row of stumps; nearly all the leaders indicted, selection of a Democratic attorney to defend Senator Mitchell, the recall of an appointee before he reaches his destination, by the President, Senator Fulton's recommendations on appointments ignored, which verily leaves everything in Mr. Heney's hands. Really, this is getting to be a grand OLD party.

Frost of last week has apparently done very little damage to fruit.

Counterfeiting the Genuine.

Foley & Co. Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. Ask for FOLEY'S Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered as no other preparation will give the same satisfaction. It is mildly laxative. It contains no opiates and is safest for children and delicate persons.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by Geo. A. Harding.

SANDY.

The most important real estate transaction consummated here for some time took place Saturday, when Caspar Junker sold his lots and hotel and saloon building and livery barn on Front street for $4500, to Balbar, a man from St. Paul, Or. The new landlord took possession Sunday of his new purchase.
