

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

LOGAN.

Logan is well supplied with phones now and what Dinkenspiel might call phonetic conversations are all the go. The Logan correspondent has a phone by his ear now, so if you have any news item, just ring a long and a short and give the long and the short of it. Send in anything of public interest, such as births, deaths, marriages, engagements, elopements, robberies, building or other improvements, public or lodge meetings, gold mine discoveries, etc. If your wife or daughter elopes with the coachman or the latter marries a duke, kindly let us know about it.

An ice cream social will be given at the Grange hall, on the evening of Friday, June 23, by Mrs. Young and pupils of the Lower Logan school.

At the recent school election in District No. 4, Mrs. A. Falbert was elected director and Fred Gerber clerk.

W. P. Kirehem and family are domiciled in their new house.

The vetch crop of Logan is immense and fall grain looks well, even some that started off well, now has many red or yellow leaves.

MADRAS.

Hot days, dry winds, scarcity of water is the order of the day now.

Mr. Higginbotham, who lives three miles south of Madras, had a narrow escape from death a few days ago in a runaway. He was hauling some bundled wheat hay and when he got about one mile from Madras the hay slipped off the front end of the wagon, throwing him between the horses and under the wagon, which frightened the team into running away. The wheels on one side ran over his shoulder and hand, which crushed off his thumb nail and otherwise bruised him, but as no bones were broken he declared he was not hurt, considering how close he was to instant death. The runaway team was stopped by Lonsberry and Gard.

The Grizzley Lake Lumber Co. are stocking up their lumber yard in Madras, and also building an office and residence building for Mr. Waterhouse, their manager. Lonsberry & Wilson are doing the building and painting.

J. T. Maloy & Co. have employed M. Lonsberry to superintend the construction of their large store building on Main street. Mr. Lonsberry submitted plans for the building and is to see that plans and specifications are carried out. This will be the most modern business place in our burg and will be a handsome structure and a monument to the ability of Mr. Lonsberry as a builder.

H. W. Gard contemplates taking his family on a visit to Clackamas county about the 15th of this month.

Roscoe Gard left for the Trout Creek and Hay Creek country to get employment in hay harvest, as the new crop is now ready to cut.

The new Madras hotel has two new signs painted on the building, which looks fine, and adds greatly to the appearance of the building.

Miss Laura Isham left for Prineville last week, where she will visit for some time.

James Magnus was a Prineville visitor last week.

John Isham, who runs the town pumping station, will leave soon for his ranch on the Upper McKenzie river, where he intends to be gone several months. S. E. Gray will run the pumping station.

The social dance given at McFargart's hall last Friday evening was a success and all report a good time.

F. H. Hahn has put in a new platform scale, which is a much needed improvement to the town.

The new brick kiln is now burnt and as soon as the brick cool off, we can have brick at home and not have to pay $24 per thousand freight.

The Original.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar, as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. Ask for FOLEY'S Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered as no other preparation will give the same satisfaction. It is mildly laxative. It contains no opiates and is safest for children and delicate persons. For sale by Huntley Bros. Co.

REDLAND.

Rev. Levi Johnson, of Portland, commenced a series of revival meetings Thursday evening, in Bethel Presbyterian church and each succeeding evening. The large number present gives evidence of interest that is being taken. He tells the old, old story in such a loving, earnest manner that he has captured the hearts of his hearers. Sunday, at both morning and evening services, there were large congregations. The Methodist churches of Redland and Viola both united in the services, which were very impressive. The singing was excellent and at the close Miss Hamilton sang, "Give Me a Clean Heart," in such a way that it brought tears to the eyes of her hearers. All this week there will be services at 8 p. m. and on next Sabbath there will be an all-day service, commencing with a praise service at 10 a. m. Four churches will unite on that day with Bethel, Springfield, Beaver Creek, Viola and Redland. If it is fine weather services will be in the grove back of the church. Bring your lunch and come. The afternoon service will close the meetings.

If you want a pretty face and delightful air, Rosy cheeks and lovely hair, Wedding trip across the sea, Put your faith in Rocky Mountain Tea. Wurfel Bros., Barlow, Or.

MOLALLA.

Last Sunday was the hottest day that we have had so far this season.

There is a fine prospect for wheat in this section, but there seems to have something gone wrong with the oats. The blades of the grain are turning red. It resembles rust but yet it is not rust. There is a difference of opinion in regard to the cause. Some think it is owing to the late frost and cold rains, others claim some kind of an insect or worm is working on the roots of the grain. Whatever is causing it, unless there is a change soon, our oat crop is going to be short.

There was another match game of ball last Sunday between Needy and the Molalla boys, the score standing 12 to 3 in favor of Molalla. The boys have played six match games so far this season and have only lost one game so far.

Elder Perry is building an addition to his feed barn.

C. I. Gibson has finished the carpenter work on Mr. Jolliver's house. Painting will commence in a short time.

BARTON.

The Barton people can live without a bridge across the Clackamas river at this place although they feel they have been discriminated against by the Oregon City Board of Trade and others who have been so active in destroying the bridge prospects, considering the excellent transportation facilities enjoyed by Oregon City and the miserable, rough and uncertain road between Barton and the Baker bridge that people of this section have to travel in an effort to get to Oregon City. Besides the convenience it would be to the people of the Logan country when they wish to ship heavy stuff, such as hay, grain and potatoes. They would go to Oregon City as often with a bridge as without one. Oregon City should see to it that she provides good stores and groceries, with a cash market, where a farmer can sell for cash if he so desires. Besides, did you ever observe the great number of Oregon City shoppers who crowd the cars to trade in Portland stores? Oregon City should be loyal to itself before it tries to coerce other people to patronize it.

William Bartlemay and family, of Gilliam county, have been visiting relatives here and attending the Lewis and Clark Fair, returned home Monday.

J. S. and John Brackett, of Sherman county, are visiting their parents, also attending the Lewis and Clark Fair.

Dora Brackett has undergone another very dangerous operation, but WILHOIT.

We were visited with a fine shower the 16th, which was quite a treat. The gardens and grain crops are doing well.

O. S. Boyles and J. Marts were visitors at home last week. They had a sample of quartz taken from the mines on the headwaters of the Molalla.

Mr. Douglas, of Cherryville, was a visitor of Mr. and Mrs. Trullinger, of this section, last week.

The people of this country are perplexed on account of taxes, state, county, road, school and wolf tax, the wolves destroying many sheep for the people. Scratch! Poor, unfortunate beings, that is what you have come to! Get along as you can!

Scott Carter, Archie Boyles and Geo. Marts were salting cattle last week and reported finding the carcass of a deer, which was killed by a cougar.

Frank Scott is still unable to get out, he being crippled on the Coal Creek works by a rolling log.

The Man With the Hoe

Is no longer in the game. It is now the man with the Gang Plow, the Check-Row Planter, the Two-Horse Cultivator. And speaking of such tools we want to tell you that we've got them of the right sort, of the right quality, at the right prices; and not only these, but every style of implement or machine that you want for your farm, and we would like nothing better than a chance to "show you," unless it be a chance to fit you out with a full equipment. We offer you the genuine

and a large well selected and guaranteed stock of

and we invite you to come and look. Come, even if you are not ready to buy. Come before you get so far into the rush of spring and summer work that you will not have time to make a careful selection. We will satisfy you in stock, in quality and in price.

We said the man with the hoe is out of the game. He is out of the big game. There is a place for him though, and we really couldn't do without him, but the man who does things wants modern tools and he can get them from
