

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

BEAVER CREEK.

William Reece returned from Kansas last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Herman, of Mt. Angel, are visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman.

Jacob Bohlander is working at Dix Bros.' sawmill.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. E. Staab, a son.

Miss Jessie Blank, of Portland, is visiting with Misses Daisy and Bertha Hughes.

Edward Hughes, who was attending college, returned home last week.

Mrs. Hugh Hughes and daughter, Dora, of Chinook, formerly of this place, called on friends here last week.

Miss Minnie Bohlander was married to Tom Smith, of West Oregon City last Friday.

Shannon Bros. moved their mill last week and will quit sawing until after harvest.

The German Congregational Sunday school will celebrate Children's day, Sunday, July 2, at Mr. Hollman's grove, and everybody is welcome.

Six Indians and a squaw passed through here last Friday with a band of horses. They sold a good number around here.

August Blahm is erecting a new grainery.

Miss Lydia Sauer, of Albina, is spending several weeks with Annie Steiner.

Everybody is busy putting up telephone poles. Telephone seems to be the talk of the day.

Rev. W. F. Essig, of Chicago, who was visiting friends here, returned to Walla Walla last Thursday.

Luke Duffy, Art Stalen and Dan Jones, returned from Kelso, Wash., last week.

Mrs. Lindsley and children went to join her husband at Long Beach last Wednesday.

The wedding bells will soon be ringing and Jake, we won't have any more burnt potatoes.

Tired out, worn out woman cannot sleep, eat or work; seems as if she would fly to pieces. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea makes strong nerves and rich red blood. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Wurfel Bros., Barlow, Or.

WILHOIT.

We are having some rain now in Russellville, which all are glad to see, as garden stuff was in need of rain at the present.

We are informed that Andrew Mazingo and John Wilhoit have been appointed firemen of this part of our country. The outlook is fearful.

Road work is in progress near here by Mr. Vick. We hope that we will have good roads sometime, but we think it will be in the far future, but we keep paying for it in advance.

Haying is now in progress but has now halted for a few days on account of the rain.

Harry Newton and sister, Bertha, are now visiting at their father's home in this section of the country. They will soon return to San Francisco to attend school.

We, the people, like our rural delivery very well, though our mail is a little slower. Mail leaves our boxes Friday morning and reaches Molalla Friday evening and leaves Saturday evening for Oregon City.

We hear that a person must have a license to go fishing. Oh! What will come next?

B. F. Boyles has his fence very near completed.

Miss Nellie Boyles came up today and is visiting her sister.

Scott Carter has a very sick pony, but thinks she will recover.

Makes digestion and assimilation perfect. Makes new red blood and bone. That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do. A tonic for the sick and weak. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Wurfel Bros., Barlow, Or.

LIBERAL.

This weather is a damper on the farmer, as there is lots of hay down and will surely do lots of damage if it rains many more days. Potatoes are a fine looking crop so far. Winter wheat is not going to make the crop that was expected. Rye is turning yellow and has fallen very badly. Spring oats are very red, something new for this section. Hay crop will not be very heavy. Field corn is very uneven and making slow growth. Pastures are good and stock of all kinds are getting in good shape for this time of year.

Mrs. Grace Lock, of Moro, Sherman county, was visiting Mrs. W. H. White for a few days.

S. Wright and W. H. White have their new barns about completed.

There has been a lot of work done on the Damm road and it is now passable. About 300 fir stumps were blown out.

R. A. Wright is still working and deserves great credit for the undertaking and he wishes to thank all for their aid in work and money.

Mr. McKinster has bought a new mower.

Max Heuss has a fine field of potatoes on the J. F. Nelson farm.

P. M. Graves and wife have purchased property in Oregon City and expect to move there this fall.

Miss Iva Graves attended the Rebekah's in Oregon City Friday night and returned home Saturday.

Lois Stehman has his house about painted. His driving mare drank a half gallon of white lead and oil. It did not seem to hurt her. So Levi was out that much, but C. G. Huntley gets the credit, for it was pure, or the mare would have died.

The Original.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. Ask for FOLEY'S Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered as no other preparation will give the same satisfaction. It is mildly laxative. It contains no opiates and is safest for children and delicate persons. For sale by Huntley Bros. Co.

SANDY.

Mrs. Caroline Bruns is very low from the effects of a terrible fright, caused by a drunken Indian. Three Indians from Warm Spring were to Oregon City with a band of horses, and in returning home over the mountains, the Indians, either at Oregon City or Eagle Creek, procured whiskey, and one of the Indians became dead drunk, leaving his companions, riding at breakneck speed until in front of Mrs. Bruns residence, where the horse dislodged the Indian, which enraged the Indian, and seeing Mrs. Bruns, who was home alone, made a dash for her, drawing his knife and gun and swearing a terrible oath, and threatened to kill her. Mrs. Bruns, terribly frightened, started to run for her life through the field to J. H. Weaver's home, and the drunken Indian, trying his best to gain entrance by kicking the door of Bruns' home. Meanwhile, the other Indian, also her son, Herman Bruns, arrived just in time, for the Indian was about to smash doors and windows. The drunken Indian's companion and Herman Bruns had an awful experience with the mad Indian to get him away, and finally he was overpowered and was taken to the woods, where after partly sobering up, was taken by his fellow Indians home, and on the way Miss Clara Meing and Frances Weaver were also terribly frightened by the drunken Indian and hid in the brush to escape harm, and at Sandy the Indian was so drunk that it was almost impossible to keep on his horse. Mrs. Bruns yesterday was very sick with hysterics and for a while it seemed she might not recover, but today she is resting very easy and hopes are entertained for her speedy recovery.

A. Aschoff, supervisor of the forest rangers, met with a bad accident.

While cruising in the mountain near Lost lake, his horse balked, jumped and fell over backwards and his left leg above the knee was terribly smashed to the bone. Mr. Aschoff will be laid up for several months.

Joseph Beck, an eccentric hermit who has been living with two of his sons a secluded life, died June 17, and was buried the next day in a coffin that he had made himself a few years ago, and only two of his neighbors were allowed to attend the funeral. Mr. Beck gained considerable notoriety in Portland, where he always drove with an antique looking wagon, and one ox and a cow for a team.

Gritty Camp, No. 539, W. O. W., at their last meeting elected Harry Bramhall, consul commander; Ed Anderson, advisor; Noah Kuhn, clerk; E. F. Braun, escort; and Ernest Aschoff, manager.

If you want a pretty face and delightful air, Rosy cheeks and lovely hair, Wedding trip across the sea, Put your faith in Rocky Mountain Tea. Wurfel Bros., Barlow, Or.

CENTRAL POINT.

Rain! rain! More weeds.

Central Point Sunday school gave a Children's day picnic Sunday at the grove, and after the program an excellent dinner was served.

John H. Seiders attended the Sol-

MARKS PRAIRIE.

Copious doudles of rain; a good deal of hay is ruined, but it will help out all kinds of grain and gardens.

The hop crop here will be fair, although some yards are poor. One smart hop grower will never cut his hop yard back again, as he finds that to cut the earliest vines off will cost him a big lot of hard cash.

We are sorry that some of our friends and neighbors are putting locks on their gates, and we want to say that this contemptible piece of business is liable to cause serious trouble, as threats of violence are already being made.

The addition to Ben Wolfer's barn is nearing completion.

Oglesby brothers have one of the best new hop yards in the state and will have a good hop crop the first year.

Several of our farmers went to Portland and took in the Fair the past week.

Miss Alice Ritter and Frank Ringo were calling on relatives on our prairie Sunday.

Mrs. Sam Mark returned from Dallas last week and is staying with her son, John R. Mark.

Mr. Lucke has his new barn about finished.

That the oat crop here will be a failure is a foregone conclusion.

Say, Mr. Bert Wade, as you seem to have it very bad about the present gun license law and are doing lot of grumbling about not being able to R. B. Holcomb has a new barn, 24x28 feet, all enclosed.

Wash Smith has greatly improved the outward appearance of his dwelling house by three coats of paint.

Len Jones lost a fine young Jersey heifer lately. It got out of the pasture and of course strayed on the railroad. Somebody had cut a hunk of fine steak from the unbruised hind quarter, when the owner found the animal.

William Phillips, while leading his cow into the pasture Sunday afternoon was taken suddenly with a strange dizziness and fell down. He was absent from the house so long his wife became alarmed. Aleck Robinson, his son-in-law, went out to look for him and found him lying helpless, wet to the skin, as the rain was falling. He was taken to the house and a doctor summoned, who pronounced it a serious attack of heart failure. At present writing, Mr. Phillips is resting easily, his mind and faculties bright and clear.

Regular day meeting of the Grange will be held Saturday, July 1. A good program will be rendered by the children during the lecture hour.

School meeting was held Thursday evening. Retiring chairman of the school board was elected to serve as director, C. F. Clark chairman. It was voted to enclose the school yard with a new fence of boards, topped with barbed wire. Also voted new seats for primary room and new flooring throughout. Mrs. Elizabeth Buck and Miss Edna Armstrong were re-

The Man With the Hoe

Is no longer in the game. It is now the man with the Gang Plow, the Cheek Row Plow, the Two-Horse Cultivator. And speaking of such tools we want to tell you that we've got them of the right sort, of the right quality, at the right prices; and not only these, but every style of implement or machine that you want for your farm, and we would like nothing better than a chance to "show you," unless it be a chance to fit you out with a full equipment. We offer you the genuine

John Deere Plows, Harrows and Cultivators and a large well selected and guaranteed stock of General Farm Machinery

and we invite you to come and look. Come, even if you are not ready to buy. Come before you get so far into the rush of spring and summer work that you will not have time to make a careful selection. We will satisfy you in stock, in quality and in price.

We said the man with the hoe is out of the game. He is out of the big game. There is a place for him though, and we really couldn't do without him, but the man who does things wants modern tools and he can get them from hunt off your own premises, just remember that we had some very smart men in our last legislature and they wanted to let the dear people know that they were above the "common herd" and only wanted to do the just and honest thing for you. That this law is a fraud no one can deny and was passed for the special benefit of our city sports cannot be denied, but we are in for it for awhile, it seems. Let us do better at our next election and send men that will do their duty and not be controlled by the political boss of the county. In the meantime, remember that it takes a jury to convict one for any violation of this law, and it is very hard to enforce a law that is as unjust as this law seems to be.

Have You a Cough?

A dose of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will relieve it. Have you a cold? Try it for whooping cough, for asthma, for consumption, for bronchitis. Mrs. Joe McGrath, 327 E.
