

NEWS OF THE COUNTY.

WILHOIT.

Mr. Wingfield had a picture sent to him, free of charge, representing him killing a skunk with a pistol. That is a little mistake. He traps them and the dog kills them.

L. B. Trullinger is helping John Shepherd in his haying.

Oats are not as good as was expected. Something causes them to turn red and we think that will damage them so the yield will be short. In traveling through the county we find many fine gardens in every locality.

Mr. Wingfield has been troubled by wolves killing his sheep, so he clothed some sticks, making them look very much like a man with a gun on his shoulder, and placed the dummy in his pasture in plain view. They have not done any more damage.

We were glad to hear again from Bert Wade. Come again, Bert.

Once more we are greeted with good haymaking weather and people are making use of the opportunity.

Some of the Russellvilleites spent the Fourth at Metropolitan Park, near Adkin's mill. All seemed to have a good time. Music as furnished by the Newburg band.

James Martis went to Canby a few days ago and on his way home he purchased a new mower and is now cutting his grass in good shape.

The present warm weather will furnish visitors for the Wilhoit Soda Springs. Some work was done on the road along the creek so the travel will be good.

Mr. Wingfield was the finder of two nice calves the other morning. They made their appearance off the mountain range.
