

WORK HAS COMMENCED

Southern Pacific Is Making Improvements.

THIRD STREET IS FIRST

Company Proposes to Sell Dirt to the City at Ten Cents a Yard.

Work on the South End road has again been resumed by the Southern Pacific Company, which began Wednesday morning to excavate for the underground roadway crossing at Third street of this city.

A gang of laborers has been put to work cleaning the roadbed of the railway track, so that a switch can be put in. It is the intention of the company to place a switch leading from the main track onto the siding at the flour mills that is to be run a little past the point where the excavation is to be done, and then to be run back to the main track again. All trains will pass the Third street crossing by way of this switch. When the track is fixed in proper shape work will be commenced and will be rapidly pushed until the dirt is taken away back to where the newly constructed switch is, then a false structure will be arranged over the cut where the main track is at the present for the cars to pass over. After all excavation is completed, then the company will put in their steel overhead structure for their tracks to run on.

Work on the pedestrian overhead crossings at Fourth, Sixth and Seventh streets will not be erected until after the work at Third street is practically completed.

The Southern Pacific Company has made a very good proposition to the city. It proposes to haul the dirt taken from this Third street cut and place it in the fill between the Congregational church, in the north end of the city, and Green Point, at 10 cents a yard. The proposition has been referred to the committee on streets and public property. Engineer Rands stated that there would be enough dirt taken from the cut to fill in and make a proper grade at this point.

Spiritualist Campmeeting.

The First Spiritual Religious Association of Clackamas County is now in the midst of one of its most successful campmeetings, and no wonder that is so, for they certainly have some of the best speakers and mediums to be had, notably Harrison D. Barrett, president of the National Spiritual Association, Harry J. Moore, Eva McCoy, Mrs. Ladd Finnician and others too numerous to mention. The meeting has been so successful the association has decided to make the session one week longer than first intended and instead of ending July 30, the date of closing the camp will be August 6. The business meeting for election of officers for the ensuing year will be held on Saturday, July 29, at 2 o'clock p. m. A dance is given every Friday night for the purpose of giving the young people a chance to enjoy themselves. Everyone come and enjoy themselves.

Begin Work on Road.

Work was begun this week on the county road leading from the Clackamas bridge at Parkplace, to a point where the road intersects with Damascus, Clackamas and Milwaukie roads. The work will be eagerly pushed by the county authorities with a view of completing it before the fall rains set in. The county intends to grade the roads through first, and after which they will put on crushed rock. During the past few years this county has made great progress in its road building schemes, and it will in a short time have completed many roads that we will be proud of.

OLIVE OIL

AS A PREVENTIVE OF CONSUMPTION

"Diet is a great factor in the prevention and cure of consumption," says Dr. W. H. Wiley, head chemist of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and although no diet can be regarded as strictly "curative," many foods are of extreme value in treatment on account of their high nutritive qualities—namely, pure olive oil.

Pure olive oil contains more nutrient than any other food, and in comparison with the best beef, 10 to 20 per cent. more. Two teaspoonsful before each meal is the proper portion. It is easily assimilated and readily clarifies the whole system—particularly the bowels. Masticating it thoroughly in the mouth not only pre-digests it, but its oily piquancy is most helpful to the throat. Olive oil is a wholesome stimulant. To obtain all these desirable results, however, the oil must be absolutely pure. The following brands we have handled for many years, and can safely guarantee them to be strictly pure.

- Maltese Cross, gallons.....$4.45
- Maltese Cross, 24 oz. bottles..... 1.00
- Lucca Cream, gallons..... 3.75
- Lucca Cream, pints..... .50
- Sanitarium Olive Oil, gallons..... 3.00
- Sanitarium Olive Oil, half gallon..... 1.75
- Durand's Olive Oil, gallons..... 3.25

We will gladly supply any customer a sample of any of these oils for the asking.
