HIS FIRST TRIUMPH.

A boy whose literary effort gains a place on the editorial page of the Oregonian is entitled to more than passing notice. John Finucane earned this distinction. At the age of fifteen he has narrated briefly in an easy and masterly style the story of John McLoughlin's career.

ONLY A MISUNDERSTANDING.

We think the Courier has no disagreement with the Redland correspondent regarding roads. We have heretofore commented on the fact that the splendid Logan road was due largely to the fact that the residents tributary to it went down in their pockets to a generous depth.

PROGRESSIVE MAPLE LANE.

A lively write-up such as was sent in to the Courier from Maple Lane last week helps the community and helps the local paper. Neighbors want to keep in touch with one another.

FAIR CLOSES TOMORROW.

Lewis and Clark Exposition closes tomorrow night! After a most successful season of four and one-half months the big Fair closes its gates, the lights will be extinguished, and the attractions beautiful will be no more.

who have from childhood believed that the great West was a dwelling place suitable for Indians alone, have become enlightened, satisfied, gratified and have gone home, full of praise for Portland, for Oregon and the Coast.

The Courier has scored a distinct triumph this week in its reports of the Grange Fairs and meetings, both Fairs being covered in detail by able correspondents at Molalla and Maple Lane.

One of the most noticeable of the purely agricultural exhibits at the Molalla Grange Fair was a seven ton turnip from the farm of Martin Robbins, a leading farmer of Needy.

EXCHANGE TALK

As Aurora Sees It. The present game law is a piece of class legislation pure and simple, the purpose of which is to discourage hunting among the country population so that the city sports can have a better opportunity for satisfying a mania for killing.

OREGON'S PLIGHT.

Half of her representation under conviction in the courts, and unable to occupy their seats in congress, is the unenviable distinction that has come to Oregon. Of all the states in the Union, Oregon is the only one that has ever been in such a pitiable plight.

THE NEWSPAPER POINT OF VIEW.

The merchant who wants your business and is entitled to your patronage is the one who advertises. By advertising he not only shows but also indicates a disposition to be a factor in the upbuilding of the whole community.

A Good Suggestion.

The Graphic wishes to encourage owners of farms in the neighborhood to give their farm home suggestive names. It adds a little of sentiment or romance or dignity to country life and while the mosaic round of duties to be done is not lessened, an appropriate name lends attractiveness to home.

THE MERCHANTS' VIEW OF IT.

The man who is proud of his town and interested in its welfare patronizes home industries. It is the man who buys his groceries, his clothing, his hardware, etc., from the mail order houses, the man who sends his money to an outside bank for safe keeping, who does more hurt to his town than any other one cause.

prosecution of these land fraud cases, President Roosevelt is endeavoring to defend the people of Oregon from further betrayal by those they have set in high places.—Cervallis Times.

UP FOR GOVERNOR.

Charles A. Johns, of Baker City, announces by personal letter to his friends in Oregon that he will be a candidate for governor on the Republican ticket, subject to the terms and conditions of the direct primary law.

SURVEYORS TO BLUE RIVER.

E. P. Rands, L. E. Blanchard, Ernest Charters, L. A. Bushey and C. B. Harding, a party of surveyors, registering here as being from Oregon City, left this morning for Blue River.

ASK BROWNELL.

A gentleman by the name of Houtley of Oregon City, will, in all likelihood, be the next state senator from Clackamas.—Woodburn Independent.

CITY FILES DEMURRER

Three Councilmen Seek to Have Restraining Order Dismissed. City Attorney Franklin T. Griffith has filed a demurrer to the complaint of William Andersen against M. P. Chapman, M. Justin and C. M. Mason and the argument on the demurrer will be made as soon as Judge McBride returns to this city.

COUNTERFEITING THE GENUINE.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine.

MILWAUKIE GRANGE.

Milwaukie Grange held a very enjoyable meeting Friday night. The Grange has been divided into two sides for a literary contest and this had aroused more interest in the Grange literary programs.

THE STORK BRINGS JOY

To the household but how about the mother? This she has been joyful during the weeks and months preceding the advent? Two many mothers find it a time of fearful anxiety because of the knowledge that they are not in good health.

Weakness, pains and drains to accumulate till the health is completely undermined and they are more than discouraged, and all because they have been misadvised by well-meaning friends or maltreated by an inefficient doctor.

An Ideal Medicine.

MISS LOUISE MATHER, 13 Church St., Burlington, Vt., Vice-President Bureau of Exchange, writes:

"Your medicine is an ideal woman's medicine and by far the best I have known to restore lost health and strength."

"I suffered for several years. My back ached, I had bearing down pains, and frequent headaches."

"I would often wake from sleep in such pain that I would suffer for hours before my eyes would close again. I dreaded the long nights as well as the weary days."

"I consulted two physicians, hoping to get relief. Finding that their medicine did not seem to cure me, a friend advised me to try Peruna."

"I am certainly glad that I followed her advice, for Peruna was the only medicine for me. Every ache and pain disappeared in four months and I am in perfect health now."

"My earnest advice to suffering women is to try Peruna, for I feel sure they will not be disappointed in it."—Louise Mather.

Enjoying Splendid Health. Mrs. L. E. Tyler, Santa Monica, Cal., Secretary Santa Monica Musical Society, writes:

"I was troubled for over three years with systemic catarrh, complicated by female weakness and inflammation. This induced frequent headaches, nervousness, hysteria and sleeplessness, which nothing could relieve until I tried Peruna."

"I began to feel better after I had taken the first bottle and improved from week to week until at the end of about eleven weeks I was entirely well."

"I am pleased to say that I have enjoyed splendid health now for nearly a year. I have a fine appetite, enjoy sound sleep and do not suffer from any more headaches or other pains."—L. E. Tyler.

Completely Regained Her Health. Miss Edith Reams, 726 North Main St., Dayton, O., writes:

"I suffered for some time with both lung and female troubles. I had been under the treatment of a good physician for about nine months without obtaining any relief, when Peruna was recommended to me. After taking twelve bottles of this medicine I have completely regained my health."

"I am pleased to recommend Peruna to any one suffering from the above ailments."—Edith Reams.

America is the Land of Nervous Women. The majority of women are nervous because they suffer from some form of female disease.

The greatest obstacle in the way of recovery is that they do not understand that catarrh is the main source of their illness.

Women who are in doubt as to their ailments should write to Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O. Give him a full description of your symptoms, previous treatment and age.

He will promptly reply with full directions for treatment, free of charge.
