BARTON.
Barton still growing. Wet goods, dry goods and most any kind of goods can be bought now.
The new machine shop will be soon finished and in operation.
Will the editor send us a man to build and operate a hotel?
Barker Bros. are moving in this vicinity to haul wood, and they are the lads that can do it. The pity is they don't operate a sash and door factory here.
Mr. Gordon has bought an addition to his farm, and is still "carpentering" his house, and we'll give him one more summer to finish the job.
Hallow'en pranks were not very extensive, but to one man it was expensive. His cow was found three miles away, and then wasn't found till many a day, in a salal pasture with a 7-foot fence.
Hallow'en's over for a year, so let it go hence.
Mr. August Linn was buried from the residence of E. Foster this week. Potato-digging is in full progress, and say, Correspondents, we are getting 70 cents a sack. Can you say as much?
John Douglass has two sons down with typhoid.
Mr. Charles Livesay and wife, of Oregon City, passed through town on their way to the "Little Burn" to visit. H. Ward is painting the house of Hal Gibson.
I'd like to say a word to the "Correspondents." Do you know we could make this paper about twice as valuable if we all wrote at least twice a month? There are many things that the people of this county could talk over among themselves and profit by it.
By the way, "Logan," is there any articles raised and for sale in your vicinity? And won't some one tell me what telephone instruments cost for farmers' lines, and what size wire to get, and how many pounds per mile?
Our school now progresses nicely. A candy pull was indulged in last Friday. No wonder so many of our young men want to go to school.
We hear a power plant is going in four miles below here in the Clackamas River. This is all right; but be it known this river is full of good places for power plants.
